Further, the Executive shall compensate the Company for any misuse or damage to the Confidential Information of the Company.

(vii) The Executive understands that access to the Company's databases and table structures, including but not limited to databases or tables relating to salary information, benefits, or stock of Company Executives, is only on a "need to know basis". The Executive understands that he/she is not permitted to access any database and tables, unless the database or table directly relates to the work being performed by the Executive, and the Executive agrees that he/she shall not access any databases or tables for purposes other than those necessary to perform the Executive's duties. The Executive understands that accessing a Company database or table that does not directly relate to the work required to be performed by the Executive may, at the sole option of the Company, result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. Further,

a) The Executive will not disclose his salary or any other compensation details to other Executives.
b) Using another Executive's password, or allowing someone to use a password that has been designated solely as the password of the Executive, may, at the sole option of the Company, result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.
c) The Executive will not copy Company data or any technical code to the Executive's personal or home computers and will use only Company provided equipment.
d) The Executive also understands that the Company may monitor and review which databases and tables the Executive has been accessing at any time without prior notice to the Executive.

7. Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation

(i) During the term of the Executive's engagement by the Company and for 2 (two) years thereafter (the "Restricted Period"), neither the Executive nor any of his/her affiliates shall, directly or indirectly, or together with any other person (including, any combination thereof or through or with any of their respective affiliates or any director of the Company or otherwise howsoever) engage in any acts of Competition. In agreeing to this restriction on Competition, the Executive acknowledges that:

a) The Company's business is conducted on an international basis, and as such is not geographically limited;

b) If the Executive were to participate in a business that competes with the Company, the Executive's new duties and the products, services, and technology of the competing business would be so similar or related to those contemplated by the Executive's engagement by the Company that it would be very difficult for the Executive not to rely on or use the Confidential Information; and

c) The Executive, and any entity in competition with the Company to which the Executive might render services, cannot avoid using the Confidential Information, because even in the best good faith, the Executive cannot as a practical matter avoid using the knowledge of the Confidential Information in the Executive's work with such an entity.

(ii) If any restriction with regard to Competition is found by any court of competent jurisdiction, or an arbitrator, to be unenforceable because it extends for too long a period of time or over too great a range of activities or in too broad a geographic area, it will be interpreted to extend over the maximum period of time, range of activities or geographic area to which it may be enforceable.

(iii) For the purpose of this Agreement, "Competition" means:

a) incorporating, promoting, joining, engaging in, entering into or associating themselves in any capacity whatsoever or being interested in or concerned in any manner with a competing business, in whatever form and wherever organized, to that of the business of the Company and / or any of its affiliates/subsidiaries as now or hereafter may be carried on (or agreeing to or entering into or participating in any negotiations or discussions to do all or any of the foregoing); or

b) investing in any manner in the capital or becoming a shareholder of all or any of the subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates or in any joint venture or other entity in which the Company and / or its subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates are involved, or collectively and / or individually initiating or engaging in any new activities that could be in competition with the business activities of the Company and / or its subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates as now or hereafter may be carried on, through any vehicle other than the Company and / or its subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates; or

c) Recruiting, soliciting, or inducing of any non-clerical executives of the Company or its affiliates or any advisor in the Company to terminate their employment with, or otherwise cease their relationship with, the Company or its affiliates, or hiring or assisting another person or entity to hire any non-clerical executive of the Company or its affiliates or any person who within 6 (six) months before had been a non-clerical executive of the Company or any of its affiliates or any advisor to the Company;

d) Soliciting or inducing any actual or prospective customer, client, or investor of the Company or its affiliates to terminate, or otherwise to cease, reduce, or diminish in any way its relationship or contemplated relationship with the Company or its affiliates, whether or not the relationship between the Company or such affiliate and such person or entities was originally established, in whole or in part, through Executive's efforts; or

e) Soliciting business of any client of or investor in the Company or any affiliates thereof (unless such solicitations are rendered on behalf of the Company or its affiliates), or render any services of the type usually rendered by the Company or an affiliate thereof for any such client of the Company or any affiliates thereof (unless such services are rendered on behalf of the Company), whether or not the relationship between the Company or such affiliate and such client or investor was originally established, in whole or in part, through Executive's efforts.

f) Joining, working for, being employed with, providing consultation or services to, being associated with, or advising a competitor of the Company.

(iv) Reasonableness:

The Executive acknowledges that based on his unique skills, position and exposure to Confidential Information, the breach, or threatened breach, by him of the provisions of this Clause 7 shall cause grave and irreparable harm, loss and injury to the Company and / or its affiliates/subsidiaries, which harm cannot be fully redressed by the payment of damages to the Company and / or its affiliates/subsidiaries. The Executive acknowledges that the scope and duration of the non-competition and non-solicitation provisions are reasonable and the Company may, in addition to any remedy available to it at law, obtain equitable relief in the form of specific performance, temporary or permanent injunction, or any other equitable remedy which may be available against the Executive for the non-performance of any term or provision hereof.

8. Warranties and Indemnification

(i) The Executive represents and warrants to the Company that he is free to accept employment with the Company as contemplated herein, and he has no other prior obligation or commitments of any kind to anyone which would in any way interfere with his acceptance, or full performance of his obligations, under this Agreement, or the exercise of his best efforts to his employment hereunder.

(ii) The Executive acknowledges that the employment is offered by the Company on the basis of the Executive having furnished to the Company all the documents as set out in Annexure - B.

(iii) The Executive shall defend, indemnify and hold the Company, its directors, affiliates, subsidiaries and agents harmless from and against any and all losses, claims, liabilities, judgments and other matters, including but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees arising out of or incurred in connection with, a breach of any representation, warranty or covenant of the Executive under this Agreement.

9. Remedies on Breach

(i) The Executive agrees that upon a material breach of this Agreement by the Executive and failure by the Executive to rectify such breach within the cure period of seven (7) days, only if such breach is capable of such cure or rectification, the Company shall have the right to recover all the losses and damages suffered by it and the Executive shall be liable to pay to the Company all remuneration received from the Company in addition to the compensation for the losses suffered by the Company.

(ii) The Executive agrees that any negative covenants, obligations and/or undertakings given to the Company shall be specifically enforceable by injunction and any damages claimed in addition thereto shall not constitute a defense to any claim of injunction nor prevent the grant of specific relief to the Company. The Executive expressly waives the defense that damages are sufficient alternate relief to an injunction and the Executive confirms, assures and represents that each and all of the negative covenants and obligations and undertakings referred to herein or separately executed in favor of the Company shall be enforceable by one or more mandatory injunctions prohibiting the breach of any covenant or compelling specific performance of any obligation or the observance of any covenant on the part of the Executive as contracted herein (whether by way of ad interim or interim relief, or otherwise by way of permanent injunction and damages).

(iii) No remedy conferred by any of the provisions of this Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy which is otherwise available at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise, and each and every other remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise. The election of any one or more of such remedies by any of the Parties hereto shall not constitute a waiver by such party of the right to pursue any other available remedy.

10. Termination

Resignation by the Executive and Termination by the Company without Cause

(i) Either party is entitled to terminate this Agreement by a notice of 30 (Thirty) days in writing or payment of base salary in lieu thereof. If such termination is by the Company and is without Cause (as defined in Clause 10(vi) below), notice pay will be calculated at the rate of Basic Salary for 30 (Thirty) days together with the Termination Dues (as defined in Clause 10(x) below).

(ii) In case any disciplinary and /or legal proceeding is pending or contemplated against the Executive, the Company may refuse the Executive's resignation and in such case, the resignation shall not take effect till the Company accepts it.

Termination due to the Executive's Death

(v) This Agreement will terminate forthwith upon the Executive's death and the Company shall not have any further liability or obligation to the Executive, his executors, heirs, assigns or any other person claiming under or through his estate; provided however that the Executive's legal heirs shall receive Termination Dues (as defined below).

7. Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation

(i) During the term of the Executive's engagement by the Company and for 2 (two) years thereafter (the "Restricted Period"), neither the Executive nor any of his/her affiliates shall, directly or indirectly, or together with any other person (including, any combination thereof or through or with any of their respective affiliates or any director of the Company or otherwise howsoever) engage in any acts of Competition. In agreeing to this restriction on Competition, the Executive acknowledges that:

a) The Company's business is conducted on an international basis, and as such is not geographically limited;

b) If the Executive were to participate in a business that competes with the Company, the Executive's new duties and the products, services, and technology of the competing business would be so similar or related to those contemplated by the Executive's engagement by the Company that it would be very difficult for the Executive not to rely on or use the Confidential Information; and

c) The Executive, and any entity in competition with the Company to which the Executive might render services, cannot avoid using the Confidential Information, because even in the best good faith, the Executive cannot as a practical matter avoid using the knowledge of the Confidential Information in the Executive's work with such an entity.

(ii) If any restriction with regard to Competition is found by any court of competent jurisdiction, or an arbitrator, to be unenforceable because it extends for too long a period of time or over too great a range of activities or in too broad a geographic area, it will be interpreted to extend over the maximum period of time, range of activities or geographic area to which it may be enforceable.

(iii) For the purpose of this Agreement, "Competition" means:

a) incorporating, promoting, joining, engaging in, entering into or associating themselves in any capacity whatsoever or being interested in or concerned in any manner with a competing business, in whatever form and wherever organized, to that of the business of the Company and / or any of its affiliates/subsidiaries as now or hereafter may be carried on (or agreeing to or entering into or participating in any negotiations or discussions to do all or any of the foregoing); or

b) investing in any manner in the capital or becoming a shareholder of all or any of the subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates or in any joint venture or other entity in which the Company and / or its subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates are involved, or collectively and / or individually initiating or engaging in any new activities that could be in competition with the business activities of the Company and / or its subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates as now or hereafter may be carried on, through any vehicle other than the Company and / or its subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates; or

c) Recruiting, soliciting, or inducing of any non-clerical executives of the Company or its affiliates or any advisor in the Company to terminate their employment with, or otherwise cease their relationship with, the Company or its affiliates, or hiring or assisting another person or entity to hire any non-clerical executive of the Company or its affiliates or any person who within 6 (six) months before had been a non-clerical executive of the Company or any of its affiliates or any advisor to the Company;

d) Soliciting or inducing any actual or prospective customer, client, or investor of the Company or its affiliates to terminate, or otherwise to cease, reduce, or diminish in any way its relationship or contemplated relationship with the Company or its affiliates, whether or not the relationship between the Company or such affiliate and such person or entities was originally established, in whole or in part, through Executive's efforts; or

e) Soliciting business of any client of or investor in the Company or any affiliates thereof (unless such solicitations are rendered on behalf of the Company or its affiliates), or render any services of the type usually rendered by the Company or an affiliate thereof for any such client of the Company or any affiliates thereof (unless such services are rendered on behalf of the Company), whether or not the relationship between the Company or such affiliate and such client or investor was originally established, in whole or in part, through Executive's efforts.

f) Joining, working for, being employed with, providing consultation or services to, being associated with, or advising a competitor of the Company.

(iv) Reasonableness:

The Executive acknowledges that based on his unique skills, position and exposure to Confidential Information, the breach, or threatened breach, by him of the provisions of this Clause 7 shall cause grave and irreparable harm, loss and injury to the Company and / or its affiliates/subsidiaries, which harm cannot be fully redressed by the payment of damages to the Company and / or its affiliates/subsidiaries. The Executive acknowledges that the scope and duration of the non-competition and non-solicitation provisions are reasonable and the Company may, in addition to any remedy available to it at law, obtain equitable relief in the form of specific performance, temporary or permanent injunction, or any other equitable remedy which may be available against the Executive for the non-performance of any term or provision hereof.

8. Warranties and Indemnification

(i) The Executive represents and warrants to the Company that he is free to accept employment with the Company as contemplated herein, and he has no other prior obligation or commitments of any kind to anyone which would in any way interfere with his acceptance, or full performance of his obligations, under this Agreement, or the exercise of his best efforts to his employment hereunder.

(ii) The Executive acknowledges that the employment is offered by the Company on the basis of the Executive having furnished to the Company all the documents as set out in Annexure - B.

(iii) The Executive shall defend, indemnify and hold the Company, its directors, affiliates, subsidiaries and agents harmless from and against any and all losses, claims, liabilities, judgments and other matters, including but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees arising out of or incurred in connection with, a breach of any representation, warranty or covenant of the Executive under this Agreement.

9. Remedies on Breach

(i) The Executive agrees that upon a material breach of this Agreement by the Executive and failure by the Executive to rectify such breach within the cure period of seven (7) days, only if such breach is capable of such cure or rectification, the Company shall have the right to recover all the losses and damages suffered by it and the Executive shall be liable to pay to the Company all remuneration received from the Company in addition to the compensation for the losses suffered by the Company.

(ii) The Executive agrees that any negative covenants, obligations and/or undertakings given to the Company shall be specifically enforceable by injunction and any damages claimed in addition thereto shall not constitute a defense to any claim of injunction nor prevent the grant of specific relief to the Company. The Executive expressly waives the defense that damages are sufficient alternate relief to an injunction and the Executive confirms, assures and represents that each and all of the negative covenants and obligations and undertakings referred to herein or separately executed in favor of the Company shall be enforceable by one or more mandatory injunctions prohibiting the breach of any covenant or compelling specific performance of any obligation or the observance of any covenant on the part of the Executive as contracted herein (whether by way of ad interim or interim relief, or otherwise by way of permanent injunction and damages).

(iii) No remedy conferred by any of the provisions of this Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy which is otherwise available at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise, and each and every other remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise. The election of any one or more of such remedies by any of the Parties hereto shall not constitute a waiver by such party of the right to pursue any other available remedy.

10. Termination

(i) Either party is entitled to terminate this Agreement by a notice of 30 (Thirty) days in writing or payment of base salary in lieu thereof. Termination due to the Executive's Death

(v) This Agreement will terminate forthwith upon the Executive's death and the Company shall not have any further liability or obligation to the Executive, his executors, heirs, assigns or any other person claiming under or through his estate; provided however that the Executive's legal heirs shall receive Termination Dues (as defined below).

f) Joining, working for, being employed with, providing consultation or services to, being associated with, or advising a competitor of the Company.

The Executive acknowledges that based on his unique skills, position and exposure to Confidential Information, the breach, or threatened breach, by him of the provisions of this Clause 7 shall cause grave and irreparable harm, loss and injury to the Company and / or its affiliates/subsidiaries, which harm cannot be fully redressed by the payment of damages to the Company and / or its affiliates/subsidiaries. The Executive acknowledges that the scope and duration of the non-competition and non-solicitation provisions are reasonable and the Company may, in addition to any remedy available to it at law, obtain equitable relief in the form of specific performance, temporary or permanent injunction, or any other equitable remedy which may be available against the Executive for the non-performance of any term or provision hereof.

8. Warranties and Indemnification

(i) The Executive represents and warrants to the Company that he is free to accept employment with the Company as contemplated herein, and he has no other prior obligation or commitments of any kind to anyone which would in any way interfere with his acceptance, or full performance of his obligations, under this Agreement, or the exercise of his best efforts to his employment hereunder.

(ii) The Executive acknowledges that the employment is offered by the Company on the basis of the Executive having furnished to the Company all the documents as set out in Annexure - B.

(ii) The Executive agrees that any negative covenants, obligations and/or undertakings given to the Company shall be specifically enforceable by injunction and any damages claimed in addition thereto shall not constitute a defense to any claim of injunction nor prevent the grant of specific relief to the Company. The Executive expressly waives the defense that damages are sufficient alternate relief to an injunction and the Executive confirms, assures and represents that each and all of the negative covenants and obligations and undertakings referred to herein or separately executed in favor of the Company shall be enforceable by one or more mandatory injunctions prohibiting the breach of any covenant or compelling specific performance of any obligation or the observance of any covenant on the part of the Executive as contracted herein (whether by way of ad interim or interim relief, or otherwise by way of permanent injunction and damages).

(iii) No remedy conferred by any of the provisions of this Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy which is otherwise available at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise, and each and every other remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise. The election of any one or more of such remedies by any of the Parties hereto shall not constitute a waiver by such party of the right to pursue any other available remedy.

10. Termination

Resignation by the Executive and Termination by the Company without Cause

(i) Either party is entitled to terminate this Agreement by a notice of 30 (Thirty) days in writing or payment of base salary in lieu thereof. (ii) If any restriction with regard to Competition is found by any court of competent jurisdiction, or an arbitrator, to be unenforceable because it extends for too long a period of time or over too great a range of activities or in too broad a geographic area, it will be interpreted to extend over the maximum period of time, range of activities or geographic area to which it may be enforceable.

(iii) For the purpose of this Agreement, "Competition" means:

a) incorporating, promoting, joining, engaging in, entering into or associating themselves in any capacity whatsoever or being interested in or concerned in any manner with a competing business, in whatever form and wherever organized, to that of the business of the Company and / or any of its affiliates/subsidiaries as now or hereafter may be carried on (or agreeing to or entering into or participating in any negotiations or discussions to do all or any of the foregoing); or

b) investing in any manner in the capital or becoming a shareholder of all or any of the subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates or in any joint venture or other entity in which the Company and / or its subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates are involved, or collectively and / or individually initiating or engaging in any new activities that could be in competition with the business activities of the Company and / or its subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates as now or hereafter may be carried on, through any vehicle other than the Company and / or its subsidiaries and / or any of their respective affiliates; or

c) Recruiting, soliciting, or inducing of any non-clerical executives of the Company or its affiliates or any advisor in the Company to terminate their employment with, or otherwise cease their relationship with, the Company or its affiliates, or hiring or assisting another person or entity to hire any non-clerical executive of the Company or its affiliates or any person who within 6 (six) months before had been a non-clerical executive of the Company or any of its affiliates or any advisor to the Company;

d) Soliciting or inducing any actual or prospective customer, client, or investor of the Company or its affiliates to terminate, or otherwise to cease, reduce, or diminish in any way its relationship or contemplated relationship with the Company or its

affiliates, whether or not the relationship between the Company or such affiliate and such person or entities was originally established, in whole or in part, through Executive's efforts; or

e) Soliciting business of any client of or investor in the Company or any affiliates thereof (unless such solicitations are rendered on behalf of the Company or its affiliates), or render any services of the type usually rendered by the Company or an affiliate thereof for any such client of the Company or any affiliates thereof (unless such services are rendered on behalf of the Company), whether or not the relationship between the Company or such affiliate and such client or investor was originally established, in whole or in part, through Executive's efforts.

f) Joining, working for, being employed with, providing consultation or services to, being associated with, or advising a competitor of the Company.

(iv) Reasonableness:

The Executive acknowledges that based on his unique skills, position and exposure to Confidential Information, the breach, or threatened breach, by him of the provisions of this Clause 7 shall cause grave and irreparable harm, loss and injury to the Company and / or its affiliates/subsidiaries, which harm cannot be fully redressed by the payment of damages to the Company and / or its affiliates/subsidiaries. The Executive acknowledges that the scope and duration of the non-competition and non-solicitation provisions are reasonable and the Company may, in addition to any remedy available to it at law, obtain equitable relief in the form of specific performance, temporary or permanent injunction, or any other equitable remedy which may be available against the Executive for the non-performance of any term or provision hereof.

8. Warranties and Indemnification

(i) The Executive represents and warrants to the Company that he is free to accept employment with the Company as contemplated herein, and he has no other prior obligation or commitments of any kind to anyone which would in any way interfere with his acceptance, or full performance of his obligations, under this Agreement, or the exercise of his best efforts to his employment hereunder.

(ii) The Executive acknowledges that the employment is offered by the Company on the basis of the Executive having furnished to the Company all the documents as set out in Annexure - B.

(iii) The Executive shall defend, indemnify and hold the Company, its directors, affiliates, subsidiaries and agents harmless from and against any and all losses, claims, liabilities, judgments and other matters, including but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees arising out of or incurred in connection with, a breach of any representation, warranty or covenant of the Executive under this Agreement.

9. Remedies on Breach

(i) The Executive agrees that upon a material breach of this Agreement by the Executive and failure by the Executive to rectify such breach within the cure period of seven (7) days, only if such breach is capable of such cure or rectification, the Company shall have the right to recover all the losses and damages suffered by it and the Executive shall be liable to pay to the Company all remuneration received from the Company in addition to the compensation for the losses suffered by the Company.

(ii) The Executive agrees that any negative covenants, obligations and/or undertakings given to the Company shall be specifically enforceable by injunction and any damages claimed in addition thereto shall not constitute a defense to any claim of injunction nor prevent the grant of specific relief to the Company. The Executive expressly waives the defense that damages are sufficient alternate relief to an injunction and the Executive confirms, assures and represents that each and all of the negative covenants and obligations and undertakings referred to herein or separately executed in favor of the Company shall be enforceable by one or more mandatory injunctions prohibiting the breach of any covenant or compelling specific performance of any obligation or the observance of any covenant on the part of the Executive as contracted herein (whether by way of ad interim or interim relief, or otherwise by way of permanent injunction and damages).

(iii) No remedy conferred by any of the provisions of this Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy which is otherwise available at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise, and each and every other remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise. The election of any one or more of such remedies by any of the Parties hereto shall not constitute a waiver by such party of the right to pursue any other available remedy.

10. Termination

Resignation by the Executive and Termination by the Company without Cause

(i) Either party is entitled to terminate this Agreement by a notice of 30 (Thirty) days in writing or payment of base salary in lieu thereof. EMPLOYEE INVENTION ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSFER AGREEMENT

In consideration of, and as a condition of my employment with Practo Technologies Private Limited (the "Company"), and for other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, I, as the "Employee" signing this Employee Invention Assignment and Transfer Agreement (this "Agreement"), hereby represent to the Company, and the Company and I hereby agree as follows:

1. Purpose of Agreement. I understand that the Company is engaged in a continuous program of research, development, providing products and services, marketing, sales and other activities in connection with the current and projected business of the Company and its holding company (collectively, the "Practo Group"), and that it is critical for the Company to preserve and protect the proprietary information, rights in certain inventions and works and related intellectual property rights of the Company and the other Practo Group companies. Accordingly, I am entering into this Agreement, whether or not I have created or I am expected to create inventions or other works of value for the Practo Group. As used in this Agreement, "Inventions" means inventions, improvements, designs, original works of authorship, formulas, processes, compositions of matter, computer software programs, databases, mask works, confidential information and trade secrets.

2. Disclosure of Inventions. I will promptly disclose in confidence to the Company, or to any person designated by it, all Inventions that I make, create, conceive or first reduce to practice, either alone or jointly with others, during the period of my employment, whether or not in the course of my employment, and whether or not patentable, copyrightable or protectable as trade secrets.

3. Work for Hire; Assigned Inventions. I acknowledge and agree that any copyrightable works prepared by me within the scope of my employment will be "works made for hire" under the Copyright Act and that the Company will be considered the author and owner of such copyrightable works. I agree that all Inventions that I make, create, conceive or first reduce to practice during the period of my employment, whether or not in the course of my employment, and whether or not patentable, copyrightable or protectable as trade secrets, and that (i) are developed using equipment, supplies, facilities, proprietary information or trade secrets of the Company or other Practo Group companies; (ii) result from work performed by me for the Company or other Practo Group companies; or (iii) relate to the business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group, including the Company (the "Assigned Inventions"), will be the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

4. Excluded Inventions and Other Inventions. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a list describing all existing Inventions, if any, that may relate to the Practo Group's business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development and that were made by me or acquired by me prior to the Effective Date and which are not to be assigned to the Company ("Excluded Inventions"). If no such list is attached, I represent and agree that it is because I have no rights in any existing Inventions that may relate to the business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group. For purposes of this Agreement, "Other Inventions" means Inventions in which I have or may have an interest, as of the Effective Date or thereafter, other than Assigned Inventions and Excluded Inventions. I acknowledge and agree that if, in the scope of my employment, I use any Excluded Inventions or any Other Inventions, or if I include any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions in any product or service of the Prcato Group or if my rights in any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions may block or interfere with, or may otherwise be required for, the exercise by the Practo Group of any rights assigned to the Company under this Agreement, I will immediately so notify the Company in writing. Unless the Company and I agree otherwise in writing as to particular Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions, I hereby grant to the Company, in such circumstances (whether or not I give the Company notice as required above), a perpetual, irrevocable, nonexclusive, transferable, worldwide, royalty-free, fully paid up license to use, disclose, make, have made, perform, execute, market, license, sell, offer to license, offer to sell, import, export, copy, distribute, modify and create works based on, perform, display or otherwise exploit such Excluded Inventions and Other Inventions, in whole or in part, and to sublicense third parties in one or more tiers of sublicenses with the same rights.

5. Exception to Assignment. I understand that the Assigned Inventions will not include, and the provisions of this Agreement requiring assignment of inventions to the Company do not apply to, any invention that I develop entirely on my own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information of the Practo Group except for those inventions that (i) relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the invention to the business, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group, (ii) result from any work performed by me for the Practo Group, or (iii) qualifies fully for exclusion under the applicable laws of the state in which I am employed.

6. Assignment of Rights. I agree to assign, convey and transfer, and do hereby irrevocably assign, convey and transfer, to the Company: (i) all of my rights, title and interests in and with respect to any Assigned Inventions; (ii) all patents, patent applications, copyrights, mask works, rights in databases, trade secrets, and other intellectual property rights, worldwide, in any Assigned Inventions, along with any registrations of or applications to register such rights; and (iii) to the extent assignable, any and all Moral Rights (as defined below) that I may have in or with respect to any Assigned Inventions. I also hereby forever waive and agree never to assert any Moral Rights I may have in or with respect to any Assigned Inventions and any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions licensed to the Company under Section 4, even after termination of my employment. "Moral Rights" means any rights to claim authorship of a work, to object to or prevent the modification or destruction of a work, to withdraw from circulation or control the publication or distribution of a work, and any similar right, regardless of whether or not such right is denominated or generally referred to as a "moral right."

7. Assistance. I will assist the Company in every proper way to obtain and enforce for the Company all patents, copyrights, mask work rights, trade secret rights and other legal protections for the Assigned Inventions, worldwide. 9. Indemnification. I will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Practo Group, and its officers, directors, shareholders, successors, and assigns, from and against all losses, liabilities, and costs including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, expenses, penalties, judgments, claims and demands of every kind and character that the Practo Group, its officers, directors, shareholders, successors, and assigns may incur, suffer, or be required to pay arising out of, based upon, or by reason of: my use of the Assigned Inventions prior to the date of this Agreement; or my failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

10. Injunctive Relief. I understand that a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by me may cause the Company and the other Practo Group companies to suffer irreparable harm and that the Company will therefore be entitled to injunctive relief to enforce this Agreement.

11. Governing Law; Severability. This Agreement is intended to supplement, and not to supersede, any rights the Company and the other Practo Group companies may have in law or equity with respect to the duties of its employees and the protection of its trade secrets. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India with the courts in Bangalore assuming exclusive jurisdiction on all matters hereunder. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such provision will be enforced to the maximum extent possible, given the fundamental intentions of the parties when entering into this Agreement. To the extent such provision cannot be so enforced, it will be stricken from this Agreement and the remainder of this Agreement will be enforced as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained in this Agreement.

12. Counterparts. Counterparts may be delivered via facsimile, electronic mail (including pdf) or other transmission method and any counterpart so delivered shall be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes.

1. Purpose of Agreement. I understand that the Company is engaged in a continuous program of research, development, providing products and services, marketing, sales and other activities in connection with the current and projected business of the Company and its holding company (collectively, the "Practo Group"), and that it is critical for the Company to preserve and protect the proprietary information, rights in certain inventions and works and related intellectual property rights of the Company and the other Practo Group companies. Accordingly, I am entering into this Agreement, whether or not I have created or I am expected to create inventions or other works of value for the Practo Group. As used in this Agreement, "Inventions" means inventions, improvements, designs, original works of authorship, formulas, processes, compositions of matter, computer software programs, databases, mask works, confidential information and trade secrets.

2. Disclosure of Inventions. I will promptly disclose in confidence to the Company, or to any person designated by it, all Inventions that I make, create, conceive or first reduce to practice, either alone or jointly with others, during the period of my employment, whether or not in the course of my employment, and whether or not patentable, copyrightable or protectable as trade secrets.

3. Work for Hire; Assigned Inventions. I acknowledge and agree that any copyrightable works prepared by me within the scope of my employment will be "works made for hire" under the Copyright Act and that the Company will be considered the author and owner of such copyrightable works. I agree that all Inventions that I make, create, conceive or first reduce to practice during the period of my employment, whether or not in the course of my employment, and whether or not patentable, copyrightable or protectable as trade secrets, and that (i) are developed using equipment, supplies, facilities, proprietary information or trade secrets of the Company or other Practo Group companies; (ii) result from work performed by me for the Company or other Practo Group companies; or (iii) relate to the business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group, including the Company (the "Assigned Inventions"), will be the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

4. Excluded Inventions and Other Inventions. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a list describing all existing Inventions, if any, that may relate to the Practo Group's business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development and that were made by me or acquired by me prior to the Effective Date and which are not to be assigned to the Company ("Excluded Inventions"). If no such list is attached, I represent and agree that it is because I have no rights in any existing Inventions that may relate to the business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group. For purposes of this Agreement, "Other Inventions" means Inventions in which I have or may have an interest, as of the Effective Date or thereafter, other than Assigned Inventions and Excluded Inventions. I acknowledge and agree that if, in the scope of my employment, I use any Excluded Inventions or any Other Inventions, or if I include any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions in any product or service of the Prcato Group or if my rights in any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions may block or interfere with, or may otherwise be required for, the exercise by the Practo Group of any rights assigned to the Company under this Agreement, I will immediately so notify the Company in writing. Unless the Company and I agree otherwise in writing as to particular Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions, I hereby grant to the Company, in such circumstances (whether or not I give the Company notice as required above), a perpetual, irrevocable, nonexclusive, transferable, worldwide, royalty-free, fully paid up license to use, disclose, make, have made, perform, execute, market, license, sell, offer to license, offer to sell, import, export, copy, distribute, modify and create works based on, perform, display or otherwise exploit such Excluded Inventions and Other Inventions, in whole or in part, and to sublicense third parties in one or more tiers of sublicenses with the same rights.

5. Exception to Assignment. I understand that the Assigned Inventions will not include, and the provisions of this Agreement requiring assignment of inventions to the Company do not apply to, any invention that I develop entirely on my own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information of the Practo Group except for those inventions that (i) relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the invention to the business, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group, (ii) result from any work performed by me for the Practo Group, or (iii) qualifies fully for exclusion under the applicable laws of the state in which I am employed.

6. Assignment of Rights. I agree to assign, convey and transfer, and do hereby irrevocably assign, convey and transfer, to the Company: (i) all of my rights, title and interests in and with respect to any Assigned Inventions; (ii) all patents, patent applications, copyrights, mask works, rights in databases, trade secrets, and other intellectual property rights, worldwide, in any Assigned Inventions, along with any registrations of or applications to register such rights; and (iii) to the extent assignable, any and all Moral Rights (as defined below) that I may have in or with respect to any Assigned Inventions. I also hereby forever waive and agree never to assert any Moral Rights I may have in or with respect to any Assigned Inventions and any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions licensed to the Company under Section 4, even after termination of my employment. "Moral Rights" means any rights to claim authorship of a work, to object to or prevent the modification or destruction of a work, to withdraw from circulation or control the publication or distribution of a work, and any similar right, regardless of whether or not such right is denominated or generally referred to as a "moral right."

7. Assistance. I will assist the Company in every proper way to obtain and enforce for the Company all patents, copyrights, mask work rights, trade secret rights and other legal protections for the Assigned Inventions, worldwide. I will execute and deliver any documents that the Company may reasonably request from me in connection with providing such assistance. 9. Indemnification. I will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Practo Group, and its officers, directors, shareholders, successors, and assigns, from and against all losses, liabilities, and costs including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, expenses, penalties, judgments, claims and demands of every kind and character that the Practo Group, its officers, directors, shareholders, successors, and assigns may incur, suffer, or be required to pay arising out of, based upon, or by reason of: my use of the Assigned Inventions prior to the date of this Agreement; or my failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

If any provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such provision will be enforced to the maximum extent possible, given the fundamental intentions of the parties when entering into this Agreement. To the extent such provision cannot be so enforced, it will be stricken from this Agreement and the remainder of this Agreement will be enforced as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained in this Agreement.

12. Counterparts. Counterparts may be delivered via facsimile, electronic mail (including pdf) or other transmission method and any counterpart so delivered shall be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes.

3. Work for Hire; Assigned Inventions. I acknowledge and agree that any copyrightable works prepared by me within the scope of my employment will be "works made for hire" under the Copyright Act and that the Company will be considered the author and owner of such copyrightable works. I agree that all Inventions that I make, create, conceive or first reduce to practice during the period of my employment, whether or not in the course of my employment, and whether or not patentable, copyrightable or protectable as trade secrets, and that (i) are developed using equipment, supplies, facilities, proprietary information or trade secrets of the Company or other Practo Group companies; (ii) result from work performed by me for the Company or other Practo Group companies; or (iii) relate to the business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group, including the Company (the "Assigned Inventions"), will be the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a list describing all existing Inventions, if any, that may relate to the Practo Group's business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development and that were made by me or acquired by me prior to the Effective Date and which are not to be assigned to the Company ("Excluded Inventions"). If no such list is attached, I represent and agree that it is because I have no rights in any existing Inventions that may relate to the business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group. For purposes of this Agreement, "Other Inventions" means Inventions in which I have or may have an interest, as of the Effective Date or thereafter, other than Assigned Inventions and Excluded Inventions. I acknowledge and agree that if, in the scope of my employment, I use any Excluded Inventions or any Other Inventions, or if I include any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions in any product or service of the Prcato Group or if my rights in any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions may block or interfere with, or may otherwise be required for, the exercise by the Practo Group of any rights assigned to the Company under this Agreement, I will immediately so notify the Company in writing. Unless the Company and I agree otherwise in writing as to particular Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions, I hereby grant to the Company, in such circumstances (whether or not I give the Company notice as required above), a perpetual, irrevocable, nonexclusive, transferable, worldwide, royalty-free, fully paid up license to use, disclose, make, have made, perform, execute, market, license, sell, offer to license, offer to sell, import, export, copy, distribute, modify and create works based on, perform, display or otherwise exploit such Excluded Inventions and Other Inventions, in whole or in part, and to sublicense third parties in one or more tiers of sublicenses with the same rights.

I understand that the Assigned Inventions will not include, and the provisions of this Agreement requiring assignment of inventions to the Company do not apply to, any invention that I develop entirely on my own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information of the Practo Group except for those inventions that (i) relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the invention to the business, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group, (ii) result from any work performed by me for the Practo Group, or (iii) qualifies fully for exclusion under the applicable laws of the state in which I am employed.

I agree to assign, convey and transfer, and do hereby irrevocably assign, convey and transfer, to the Company: (i) all of my rights, title and interests in and with respect to any Assigned Inventions; (ii) all patents, patent applications, copyrights, mask works, rights in databases, trade secrets, and other intellectual property rights, worldwide, in any Assigned Inventions, along with any registrations of or applications to register such rights; and (iii) to the extent assignable, any and all Moral Rights (as defined below) that I may have in or with respect to any Assigned Inventions. I also hereby forever waive and agree never to assert any Moral Rights I may have in or with respect to any Assigned Inventions and any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions licensed to the Company under Section 4, even after termination of my employment. "Moral Rights" means any rights to claim authorship of a work, to object to or prevent the modification or destruction of a work, to withdraw from circulation or control the publication or distribution of a work, and any similar right, regardless of whether or not such right is denominated or generally referred to as a "moral right."

7. Assistance. I agree that all Inventions that I make, create, conceive or first reduce to practice during the period of my employment, whether or not in the course of my employment, and whether or not patentable, copyrightable or protectable as trade secrets, and that (i) are developed using equipment, supplies, facilities, proprietary information or trade secrets of the Company or other Practo Group companies; (ii) result from work performed by me for the Company or other Practo Group companies; or (iii) relate to the business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group, including the Company (the "Assigned Inventions"), will be the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

4. Excluded Inventions and Other Inventions. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a list describing all existing Inventions, if any, that may relate to the Practo Group's business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development and that were made by me or acquired by me prior to the Effective Date and which are not to be assigned to the Company ("Excluded Inventions"). If no such list is attached, I represent and agree that it is because I have no rights in any existing Inventions that may relate to the business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group. For purposes of this Agreement, "Other Inventions" means Inventions in which I have or may have an interest, as of the Effective Date or thereafter, other than Assigned Inventions and Excluded Inventions. I acknowledge and agree that if, in the scope of my employment, I use any Excluded Inventions or any Other Inventions, or if I include any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions in any product or service of the Prcato Group or if my rights in any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions may block or interfere with, or may otherwise be required for, the exercise by the Practo Group of any rights assigned to the Company under this Agreement, I will immediately so notify the Company in writing. Unless the Company and I agree otherwise in writing as to particular Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions, I hereby grant to the Company, in such circumstances (whether or not I give the Company notice as required above), a perpetual, irrevocable, nonexclusive, transferable, worldwide, royalty-free, fully paid up license to use, disclose, make, have made, perform, execute, market, license, sell, offer to license, offer to sell, import, export, copy, distribute, modify and create works based on, perform, display or otherwise exploit such Excluded Inventions and Other Inventions, in whole or in part, and to sublicense third parties in one or more tiers of sublicenses with the same rights.

5. Exception to Assignment. I understand that the Assigned Inventions will not include, and the provisions of this Agreement requiring assignment of inventions to the Company do not apply to, any invention that I develop entirely on my own time without using the equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information of the Practo Group except for those inventions that (i) relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the invention to the business, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Practo Group, (ii) result from any work performed by me for the Practo Group, or (iii) qualifies fully for exclusion under the applicable laws of the state in which I am employed.

6. Assignment of Rights. I agree to assign, convey and transfer, and do hereby irrevocably assign, convey and transfer, to the Company: (i) all of my rights, title and interests in and with respect to any Assigned Inventions; (ii) all patents, patent applications, copyrights, mask works, rights in databases, trade secrets, and other intellectual property rights, worldwide, in any Assigned Inventions, along with any registrations of or applications to register such rights; and (iii) to the extent assignable, any and all Moral Rights (as defined below) that I may have in or with respect to any Assigned Inventions. I also hereby forever waive and agree never to assert any Moral Rights I may have in or with respect to any Assigned Inventions and any Excluded Inventions or Other Inventions licensed to the Company under Section 4, even after termination of my employment. "Moral Rights" means any rights to claim authorship of a work, to object to or prevent the modification or destruction of a work, to withdraw from circulation or control the publication or distribution of a work, and any similar right, regardless of whether or not such right is denominated or generally referred to as a "moral right."

7. Assistance. I will assist the Company in every proper way to obtain and enforce for the Company all patents, copyrights, mask work rights, trade secret rights and other legal protections for the Assigned Inventions, worldwide. I will execute and deliver any documents that the Company may reasonably request from me in connection with providing such assistance. 10. Injunctive Relief. I understand that a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by me may cause the Company and the other Practo Group companies to suffer irreparable harm and that the Company will therefore be entitled to injunctive relief to enforce this Agreement.

11. Governing Law; Severability. This Agreement is intended to supplement, and not to supersede, any rights the Company and the other Practo Group companies may have in law or equity with respect to the duties of its employees and the protection of its trade secrets.
