FAQ on ESOP

Q1. What is the current price of the PhonePe option?

- The current value of PhonePe option is USD 70.26, however this may be revised periodically based on the change in valuation of the company.

Q2. Can you explain the terms Grant, Vesting & Exercise?

- Grant means the grant of PhonePe Options to an employee (referred as 'Option Grantee') under the PSOP.
- PhonePe Option means an option Granted to an Option Grantee pursuant to the PSOP, each of which gives such Option Granted the right, but not an obligation, to purchase or subscribe for one Share.
- Exercise is the fulfilment of the right whereby the option holder gets the option converted into a share by paying the exercise price.

Q3. How does the spinoff affect the valuation of Flipkart and PhonePe and hence the ESOPs?

- Stock valuation of any organization is a factor of the value that the company is expected to generate. PhonePe is in a sector that is fairly nascent and it has significant opportunity to open up new profit pools. With PhonePe getting spun off, both Flipkart and PhonePe's valuation for both now and the future can be a truer reflection of its own individual roadmaps. Typically, the trend from spinoffs is that both sets of organizations see an upside due to stronger focus and clearer alignment of value.

Q4. What does the PhonePe stock option mean?

- Each PhonePe option that you are granted will entitle you, on exercise, to acquire one share of PhonePe Private Limited (Singapore)

Q5. What is the current exercise price?

- The current exercise price is Zero, you will not have to pay anything while exercising PhonePe vested options.

Q6. What are the vesting conditions of the options?

- The vesting schedule and other conditions for the options will be as laid out in the stock agreement letter issued to you.

Q7. What is the expiry date of PhonePe ESOPs?

- All PhonePe ESOPs will expire in 10 years from the date of grant

Q8. Will ESOP Grants be taxed?

- As per Indian income-tax laws, any tax resident in India will be subject to tax on ESOPs as follows:
- On Grant: No Tax
- On Vesting: No Tax
- On Exercise of Options: Taxable as salary (perquisite) - the difference between the Fair Market Value (on exercise date) and exercise price is taxed as perquisite. The employer (PhonePe) will deduct tax (TDS) on this perquisite. This amount will be shown in the employee's Form 16 and would need to be included as part of total income from salary in the tax return
- On sale of shares: The proceeds of the sales would be treated as capital gains at applicable rates. Capital gain is calculated as follows - Consideration on sale of shares less cost (i.e. fair market value treated as perquisite on exercise and subject to tax as salary). Tax rate for capital gains would depend on the period of holding of shares.

Q9. When can I sell my shares?

- Once the options have vested you can sell the shares only on the listing of the company or during other liquidity window events before listing, that the Company may declare.
- You will be provided with access to an online portal to access your options

- Q10. What happens if an employee is on sabbatical leave?

DocuSign Envelope ID: D3A4E1DC-7D93-48F5-8685-8BB8E4834951

If an employee is on sabbatical all vested options till the day of sabbatical will remain as is, vesting of remaining options will pause and will resume from the day the employee has joined back the organization post sabbatical.

Q11. What happens to my options in case of my death, incapacitation or termination?

- In the event of the death of an employee while in employment, all the options granted to him/her till such date shall vest in the legal heirs or nominees of the deceased employee.
- In case the employee suffers a permanent incapacity while in employment, all the options granted to him/her as on the date of permanent incapacitation, shall vest on that day.
- In the event of separation from PhonePe, all options unvested for an employee as on that day shall expire. The vested options will continue to be held by the employee (till the date of expiry of the ESOPs), unless found to be guilty of grave misconduct or moral turpitude (fraud, dishonesty, sexual harassment and other offences of a grave nature committed whilst at the Company).
- The company withholds the right to clawback any gains made by the employee through the ESOP program or cancel the vested options if the employee is found guilty of misconduct, moral turpitude or non–adherence to the clauses in the appointment letter and employment agreement.

COMPUTER INTERNET & E-MAIL POLICY

Introduction

Computer equipment and electronic communications devices are used in all aspects of working life; they are essential business tools which make communication between colleagues, to and from customers and third parties easy and efficient. However, all of these devices are open to misuse and abuse and so we have adopted a policy designed to define acceptable use. We hope that in most cases what is acceptable and unacceptable will be a matter of common sense. Colleagues should also be aware of IHS Markit Securities Policies, Procedures, Guidelines and Forms (available to view on employee intranet).

Risks

Files stored on computers or on shared networks are business records and therefore belong to the Company. They have the same legal status as other more traditional forms of communication and may be disclosable to legal or regulatory authorities, or used in furtherance of disciplinary processes. Deletion from the user's in-box or archive does not destroy the text of the message. Deletion of an e-mail does not mean that the message has been obliterated.

No electronic communication is fully secure. This means that information stored or carried over networks may be the subject of accidental or intentional interception or misdelivery. It may also be the case that third parties wish to introduce viruses into the Company computer systems. We wish to minimize these risks and colleagues are expected to play their part by taking sensible precautions and observing the terms of this policy.

Physical Security

Portable computer devices are particularly theft attractive and if not looked after can be easily lost or damaged. If you have been issued with a laptop, PDA, Blackberry or mobile phone, you must take due care and attention to ensure that it is kept safe and secure at all times, especially when travelling. Simple measures can greatly enhance physical security such as not using or displaying laptops in isolated or dangerous areas. Care should be taken when using computer equipment on public transport, apart from the risk of theft confidential information may be viewable to fellow travelers. Do not leave laptops on view in cars.

‘Soft Security’

Whether using a desktop, portable or other device you should be aware that computer systems in use at work contain company confidential information and possibly confidential information about customers and colleagues. Accordingly, colleagues are responsible for ensuring that basic security measures are taken such as regularly changing passwords, not leaving confidential material open and easy to view whilst they are away from their desks, ensuring that they have logged out when leaving the workplace and taking other reasonable actions to prevent unauthorized access. It may also be necessary for users to ensure that back-up procedures are in operation when using remote devices or lap tops.

Programmes and Software

The Company provides operating systems and programmes suitable for work purposes. These must not be tampered with or deleted. Employees are not permitted to download or install programmes, including instant messenger programmes, screen savers, photos, video clips and music files. Downloading entertainment software is forbidden.

Use of the Web

Care should be taken when accessing web pages, when a web-site is visited then ‘cookie’s, ‘tags’ or ‘web beacons’ may be enabled to allow the site owner to identify and monitor visitors. You should not use a web based systems to download any documents, images or files which on the widest interpretation could be regarded as offensive (e.g. sexually explicit material). As a general rule, if any person might be offended by the contents of a web page or downloaded image, or if it would cause embarrassment if made public then viewing it will be a breach of this policy and may be regarded as a disciplinary offence. On-line gaming or gambling is strictly forbidden.

Use of e-mail Facilities

E-mail is an essential business tool, but an informal means of communication and for this reason must be used with care. Despite the obvious convenience it is important to consider whether an e-mail is the correct medium for each particular communication. Assuming it is then e-mail communications should be written professionally, as would a letter or fax.

On no account should an e-mail be sent containing any abusive, obscene, pornographic or discriminatory material, it is immaterial that the sender may regard the message as humorous and expect the recipient not to be offended in any way. If you receive such messages then they should be deleted immediately and you should discourage the sender for transmitting further similar messages to you.

The Company has the right to have access to any e-mail sent and/or received using the e-mail provided by the Company and also to navigate internet information, when the company has any suspicion of an infringement of this Policy, unfair competition practices, and in general under any used done against the good faith. The Company has the right to have the mentioned access, even when the labour contract had terminated, and for a period of five (5) years thereafter. The content of these communications can be used by the Company to defend its legitimate interest and to defend the interest of any company belonging to the Group.

Personal Use and Monitoring

The Company recognizes that colleagues may wish to make personal use of the e-mail systems and the internet. A modest amount of personal use is acceptable provided it meets these criteria:

- Use must be minimal and be conducted substantially outside of business hours (e.g. during the course of breaks);
- Use must not interfere with the normal duties of the job;

- Personal e-mails should be labelled as “personal” in the subject header;
- Use must be compliant with this policy;

Whilst incidental personal use is acceptable, within the above limits, there can be no expectation of privacy as the Company reserves the right to review, intercept and access all messages received or sent over its computer systems. This includes the contents of downloaded information, e-mail etc. We reserve the right to retrieve the contents of messages or check searches which have been made on the internet in order to: monitor whether usage of the e-mail system and internet is legitimate and in accordance with this policy; to find lost messages or to retrieve messages lost due to computer failure and to assist in the investigation of wrongful acts; or to comply with any legal obligation(s).

Inappropriate Use

Misuse or abuse of the Company’s computer systems or inappropriate use of the e-mail and internet is a breach of this policy and is likely to result in disciplinary action. Misuse of the internet can in certain circumstances constitute a criminal offence and where this is the case the law enforcement agencies will be informed. In particular, misuse of the e-mail system or inappropriate use of the internet by viewing, assessing, transmitting or downloading pornographic or otherwise obscene or offensive material will amount to gross misconduct and disciplinary procedures will be initiated.

Colleague Responsibilities

- To observe basic security procedures when using computers and electronic communication devices
- Not to introduce software or programmes onto any work computer, unless you have permission from your manager to do so
- Not to make excessive personal use of the internet or the Company e-mail system
- To keep all personal use within the bounds of acceptability, as defined by this policy

Management Responsibilities

- To ensure that colleagues who are using computers are taking due care to ensure the safety and security of the Company assets
- To remind colleagues of the need to change passwords regularly and to ensure that important documents are stored securely on PC’s shared drives or lap tops
- To remind colleagues of what is considered to be acceptable use in terms of both time spent on personal usage and content of pages viewed on the web or e-mails sent and received
- To liaise with HR if it is apparent that a colleague is not adhering to this policy

6.13 You agree and accept that any statutory or other "last in first out" rule or any modifications thereof will not apply in the event of termination of your employment for any reason whatsoever.

7 What Happens After the Termination of Employment

AGENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into on March 3, 2021, by and between Abuyo, Inc. ("Abuyo", "SelectHub" or "Company") and Kairavi Gupta ("Agent").

This Agreement sets forth the relationship between the parties and the manner in which compensation will be paid to Agent.

1. Definitions:
    a. "Start Date" is the date from which Agent will begin work for the Company, which is being defined as March 15, 2021.
    b. The scope of work includes but is not limited to market research, analyzing data related to software vendors and products in specific software categories, compiling and curating accurate research content including but not limited to requirements templates, vendor / product scorecards and leaderboards, compiling good quality product screenshots and demo videos, liaising with vendor representatives for SelectHub RFI (request-for-information), new content creation, as well as content scraping and entry into SelectHub or other systems, building specifications and documentation, and other tasks as requested by SelectHub management from time to time ("Scope of Work").

2. Compensation. Company will pay Agent a certain Base Compensation related to the amount of work done by Agent per Scope of Work documented above and as per the following:

    Base Compensation: Agent agrees to devote a minimum of 40 hours per week pursuing activities that are deemed as being within the Scope of Work (as documented above) on a full-time, dedicated basis for the Company per the following work hours: 8am to 5pm Denver Time (US Mountain Time), unless such hours are changed by SelectHub. There may be occasional extended work hours, wherein Agent may need to work longer hours or during the weekends (Saturday and/or Sunday) or other holidays to accomplish the goals set out by SelectHub.

    Agent's day-to-day efforts and quality of results will be measured by the supervisor assigned to oversee Agent's work on a regular basis. In exchange for this work, Company will pay Agent a monthly Base Compensation of INR 52,000 (equating to annually INR 624,000). The Base Compensation will be paid out on a monthly basis prorated to any start or termination date, or any excess leaves taken during the pay period. If the first month worked will be a partial month, Agent's first payment may be pro-rated for the remainder of month, and paid out at the end of first complete month of work.

    Work From Home / Benefits Allowance: An additional payment of INR 3,000 (equating to annually INR 36,000) will be paid to you for:
    - Ensuring that your at-home Internet and Mobile Phone connectivity and associated services such as Skype, Phone / VoIP, etc. are adequately functional and maintained such that you are able to work from home in a productive manner, as per expectations shared with you by the SelectHub supervisor.

- Part of this allowance is also meant to help subsidize any health insurance and associated costs you will be incurring.

3. Personal Time Off (PTO), Sick Leaves and Holidays. PTOs and Sick Leaves are granted according to Company's policies in the US, and will be as per accompanying Staff Handbook. It comprises 1 day PTO per month worked, after the initial probationary period. Also, please note that PTOs, Sick Leaves and other holidays are not cashable in the event of termination of this Agreement. Sick leaves are provided as a courtesy for taking requisite time off in the event of your sickness only (and cannot be applied towards any other reason, including to tend to any family members being sick). PTOs are to be taken in minimum increments of half-days (4 hours).

   Please note that the Company provides 6 paid holidays per year. Since the set paid holidays follow primarily the US based holidays, we allow flexibility for our Indian team to take these days as "floating holidays" to celebrate other US or India-specific holidays and festivals, at your discretion, and subject to your supervisor's approval. For e.g., on US Labor Day holiday (first Monday in September), you can choose to work and instead take Diwali Day off.

4. Activity Log and Marketing Forecasting Reports. Agent will maintain and provide the Company and his assigned supervisor with an activity log sheet report via Hubstaff or other system on a daily basis. Access to such system(s) shall be provided by Company.

5. Expenses. Company will reimburse Agent for reasonable expenses necessarily incurred in relation to the above Scope of Work for the Company. Agent will not incur expenses without first receiving authorization from the Company's CEO. Agent shall submit an expense report, with receipts, to the Company on a monthly basis, and the Company shall pay the expenses within 30 days after receipt. Expense reports and receipts submitted to Company 60 days after they have occurred on a normal basis, and 30 days after they have occurred during the month of December, will not be accepted and reimbursed by Company.

6. Laptop. SelectHub will provide a laptop to the Agent. Until SelectHub does so, Agent will use his own laptop to perform the work assigned to him by SelectHub. Once the SelectHub-supplied laptop is provided to Agent, he will transfer the work to that laptop and only use it for SelectHub work-related purposes.

7. Authority. Agent is not authorized to enter into any binding agreements with any third-parties regarding SelectHub.

8. Other Employment. Agent will not accept part-time, full-time or other contract employment with any other third party during his tenure with SelectHub.

9. Termination. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without cause. In case the Agent would like to terminate the Agreement, he can do so with a minimum of 90 days notice to the Company, which the Company may opt to waive or reduce at its sole discretion. If Agent is terminated for any reason, Agent shall be paid Base Compensation through the date of termination. The payment shall be made in accordance with this Agreement and there shall be no acceleration of any payment. Agent shall not be entitled to any other payments. If this Agreement is terminated, the Agent agrees to provide accurate status reports and Activity Logs for the concluding week(s) with full and complete details of all work done during such period. Agent also agrees to the safe return to the Company of all Company items in Agent's possession, including but not limited to laptop, hardware, software, building access cards/keys, parking tags, and any other items within 24 hours after such termination (by "safe return" we mean to return the undamaged company property to a qualified company representative or initiate shipment via an insured carrier). Agent understands that such failure to perform termination-related tasks as listed here, are grounds for non-payment of any outstanding Compensation by Company.

10. Modifications. Company may modify the terms of this Agreement at any time in its sole discretion. Such modification shall not reduce any Compensation earned as of the date of the modification.

11. Non-Exclusivity for Company. This Agreement is not exclusive with regard to personnel or territory and Company may engage other personnel to handle any matter within the Scope of Work. Agent agrees to follow any specific guidelines provided by Company in this regard.

12. Independent Contractor. This Agreement calls for the performance of the services of the Agent, as an independent contractor. Agent shall be responsible for his own benefits and taxes, including all country, state and local taxes, workers compensation insurance, medical insurance, liability insurance and unemployment insurance.

13. Confidentiality. Agent agrees to comply with the terms of the Proprietary Information, Inventions, Non-Competition, and Non-Solicitation Agreement executed contemporaneously with this Agreement.

14. Applicable Law. The laws of the State of Colorado, USA shall govern this contract and any interpretations or constructions thereof. Further, the place of performance and transaction of business shall be deemed to be in the County of Denver, State of Colorado, USA and in the event of litigation, the exclusive venue and place of jurisdiction shall be the State of Colorado, USA and more specifically, Denver County District Court, Colorado, USA.

This Agreement and any fully-executed attachments constitute the entire Agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior or contemporaneous proposals or agreements whether oral or written, and all communications between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and all past courses of dealing. No amendment or modification of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized signatory of Abuyo and Agent. Both the Company and the Agent agree that any breach of any clauses in this Agreement will cause irreparable harm to the non-breaching party, for which damages would not be an adequate remedy, and, therefore, the non-breaching party will be entitled to injunctive relief with respect thereto in addition to any other remedies. The failure of either party to enforce its rights under this Agreement at any time for any period shall not be construed as a waiver of such rights. No changes or modifications or waivers to this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and signed by both parties. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement shall otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado without regard to the conflicts of laws provisions thereof. In any action or proceeding to enforce rights under this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover costs and attorneys fees. The parties agree to submit any dispute between them to arbitration under the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The order of the clauses in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall in no way affect interpretation of this Agreement.

PROPRIETARY INFORMATION, INVENTIONS, NON-COMPETITION, AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT

This Proprietary Information, Inventions, Non-competition, and Non-solicitation Agreement ("Agreement") is made in consideration for my contractual relationship or continued contractual relationship by ABUYO, INC. or its subsidiaries or affiliates (the "Company"), and the compensation now and hereafter paid to me. I hereby agree as follows:

1. NONDISCLOSURE.

1.1 Recognition of Company's Rights; Nondisclosure. At all times during my contract and thereafter, I will hold in strictest confidence and will not disclose, use, lecture upon or publish any of the Company's Proprietary Information (defined below), except as such disclosure, use or publication may be required in connection with my work for the Company, or unless an officer of the Company expressly authorizes such in writing. I will obtain Company's written approval before publishing or submitting for publication any material (written, verbal, or otherwise) that relates to my work at Company and/or incorporates any Proprietary Information. I hereby assign to the Company any rights I may have or acquire in such Proprietary Information and recognize that all Proprietary Information shall be the sole property of the Company and its assigns.

1.2 Proprietary Information. The term "Proprietary Information" shall mean any and all confidential and/or proprietary knowledge, data or information of the Company. By way of illustration but not limitation, "Proprietary Information" includes (a) trade secrets, inventions, mask works, ideas, processes, formulas, source and object codes, data, programs, other works of authorship, know-how, improvements, discoveries, developments, designs and techniques (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Inventions"); and (b) information regarding plans for research, development, new products, marketing and selling, business plans, budgets and unpublished financial statements, licenses, prices and costs, personally identifying or proprietary information of investors, suppliers, customer and users; and (c) information regarding the skills and compensation of other employees or contractors of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood that, at all such times, I am free to use information which is generally known in the trade or industry, which is not gained as result of a breach of this Agreement, and my own, skill, knowledge, know-how and experience to whatever extent and in whichever way I wish.

1.3 Third Party Information. I understand, in addition, that the Company has received and in the future will receive from third parties confidential or proprietary information ("Third Party Information") subject to a duty on the Company's part to maintain the confidentiality of such information and to use it only for certain limited purposes. During the term of my contract and thereafter, I will hold Third Party Information in the strictest confidence and will not disclose to anyone (other than Company personnel who need to know such information in connection with their work for the Company) or use, except in connection with my work for the Company, Third Party Information unless expressly authorized by an officer of the Company in writing.

1.4 No Improper Use of Information of Prior Employers and Others. During my period of work with the Company I will not improperly use or disclose any confidential information or trade secrets, if any, of any former employer or any other person to whom I have an obligation of confidentiality, and I will not bring onto the premises of the Company or include in my work any unpublished documents or any property belonging to any former employer or any other person to whom I have an obligation of confidentiality unless consented to in writing by that former employer or person. I will use in the performance of my duties only information which is generally known and used by persons with training and experience comparable to my own, which is common knowledge in the industry or otherwise legally in the public domain, or which is otherwise provided or developed by the Company.

2. ASSIGNMENT OF INVENTIONS.

2.1 Proprietary Rights. The term "Proprietary Rights" shall mean all trade secret, patent, copyright, mask work and other intellectual property rights throughout the world.

2.2 Prior Inventions. Inventions, if any, patented or unpatented, which I made prior to the commencement of my contract with the Company are excluded from the scope of this Agreement. To preclude any possible uncertainty, I have set forth on

Exhibit A (Previous Inventions) attached hereto a complete list of all Inventions that I have, alone or jointly with others, conceived, developed or reduced to practice or caused to be conceived, developed or reduced to practice prior to the commencement of my contract with the Company, that I consider to be my property or the property of third parties and that I wish to have excluded from the scope of this Agreement (collectively referred to as "Prior Inventions"). If disclosure of any such Prior Invention would cause me to violate any prior confidentiality agreement, I understand that I am not to list such Prior Inventions in Exhibit A but am only to disclose a cursory name for each such invention, a listing of the party(ies) to whom it belongs and the fact that full disclosure as to such inventions has not been made for that reason. A space is provided on Exhibit A for such purpose. If no such disclosure is attached, I represent that there are no Prior Inventions. If, in the course of my contract with the Company, I incorporate a Prior Invention into a Company product, process or machine, the Company is hereby granted and shall have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, modify, use and sell such Prior Invention. Notwithstanding the foregoing, I agree that I will not incorporate, or permit to be incorporated, Prior Inventions in any Company Inventions without the Company's prior written consent.

2.3 Assignment of Inventions. Subject to Sections 2.4, and 2.6, I hereby assign and agree to assign in the future (when any such Inventions or Proprietary Rights are first reduced to practice or first fixed in a tangible medium, as applicable) to the Company all my right, title and interest in and to any and all Inventions (and all Proprietary Rights with respect thereto) whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar statutes, made or conceived or reduced to practice or learned by me, either alone or jointly with others, during the period of my contract with the Company. Inventions assigned to the Company, or to a third party as directed by the Company pursuant to this Section 2, are hereinafter referred to as "Company Inventions."

2.4 Nonassignable Inventions. I recognize that, in the event of a specifically applicable state law, regulation, rule, or public policy ("Specific Inventions Law"), this Agreement will not be deemed to require assignment of any invention which qualifies fully for protection under a Specific Inventions Law by virtue of the fact that any such invention was, for example, developed entirely on my own time without using the Company's equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secrets and neither related to the Company's actual or anticipated business, research or development, nor resulted from work performed by me for the Company. In the absence of a Specific Inventions Law, the preceding sentence will not apply.

2.5 Obligation to Keep Company Informed. During the period of my contract and for twelve (12) months after the last day of my contract with the Company, I will promptly disclose to the Company fully and in writing all Inventions authored, conceived or reduced to practice by me, either alone or jointly with others. In addition, I will promptly disclose to the Company all patent applications filed by me or on my behalf within a year after termination of my contract. At the time of each such disclosure, I will advise the Company in writing of any Inventions that I believe fully qualify for protection under the provisions of a Specific Inventions Law; and I will at that time provide to the Company in writing all evidence necessary to substantiate that belief. The Company will keep in confidence and will not use for any purpose or disclose to third parties without my consent any confidential information disclosed in writing to the Company pursuant to this Agreement relating to Inventions that qualify fully for protection under a Specific Inventions Law. I will preserve the confidentiality of any Invention that does not fully qualify for protection under a Specific Inventions Law.

2.6 Government or Third Party. I also agree to assign all my right, title and interest in and to any particular Invention to a third party, including without limitation the United States, as directed by the Company.

2.7 Works for Hire. I acknowledge that all original works of authorship which are made by me (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of my contract with the Company and which are protectable by copyright are "works made for hire," pursuant to United States Copyright Act (17 U.S.C., Section 101).

2.8 Enforcement of Proprietary Rights. I will assist the Company in every proper way to obtain, and from time to time enforce, United States and foreign Proprietary Rights relating to Company Inventions in any and all countries. To that end I will execute, verify and deliver such documents and perform such other acts (including appearances as a witness) as the Company may reasonably request for use in applying for, obtaining, perfecting, evidencing, sustaining and enforcing such Proprietary Rights and the assignment thereof. In addition, I will execute, verify and deliver assignments of such Proprietary Rights to the Company or its designee. My obligation to assist the Company with respect to Proprietary Rights relating to such Company Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the termination of my contract, but the Company shall compensate me at a reasonable rate after my termination for the time actually spent by me at the Company's request on such assistance.

In the event the Company is unable for any reason, after reasonable effort, to secure my signature on any document needed in connection with the actions specified in the preceding paragraph, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint the Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest, to act for and in my behalf to execute, verify and file any such documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the purposes of the preceding paragraph with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me. I hereby waive and quitclaim to the Company any and all claims, of any nature whatsoever, which I now or may hereafter have for infringement of any Proprietary Rights assigned hereunder to the Company.

3. NO CONFLICTS OR SOLICITATION. I acknowledge that during my contract I will have access to and knowledge of Proprietary Information. To protect the Company's Proprietary Information, I agree that during the period of my contract with the Company I will not, without the Company's express written consent, engage in any other employment or business activity directly related to the business in which the Company is now involved or becomes involved, nor will I engage in any other activities which conflict with my obligations to the Company. For the period of my contract with the Company and continuing until (a) twelve (12) months after my last day of my contract with the Company if I terminate my contract with Good Reason (as defined below) or the Company terminates my contract without Cause (as defined below) or (b) two (2) years after my last day of my contract with the Company if I terminate my contract without Good Reason or the Company terminates my contract for Cause, I will not (x) directly or indirectly induce any employee or contractor of the Company to terminate or negatively alter his or her relationship with the Company, (y) solicit the business of any client, customer, user, or investor of the Company (other than on behalf of the Company) or (z) induce any customer, investor, user, supplier, vendor, consultant or independent contractor of the Company to terminate or negatively alter his, her or its relationship with the Company. If any restriction set forth in this Section is found by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable because it extends for too long a period of time or over too great a range of activities or in too broad a geographic area, it shall be interpreted to extend only over the maximum period of time, range of activities or geographic area as to which it may be enforceable.

4. COVENANT NOT TO COMPETE. I acknowledge that during my contract I will have access to and knowledge of Proprietary Information. To protect the Company's Proprietary Information, I agree that during my contract with the Company whether full-time or half-time and for a period of (a) twelve (12) months after my last day of my contract with the Company if I terminate my contract with Good Reason or the Company terminates my contract without Cause or (b) two (2) years after my last day of my contract with the Company if I terminate my contract without Good Reason or the Company terminates my contract with Cause, I will not directly or indirectly engage in (whether as an employee, consultant, proprietor, partner, director or otherwise), or have any ownership interest in, or participate in the financing, operation, management or control of, any person, firm, corporation or business that engages in a Restricted Business (as defined below) in a Restricted Territory (as defined below). It is agreed that ownership of (i) no more than one percent (1%) of the outstanding voting stock of a publicly traded corporation, or (ii) any stock I presently own shall not constitute a violation of this provision.

4.1 Reasonable. I agree and acknowledge that the time limitation on the restrictions in this paragraph, combined with the geographic scope, is reasonable. I also acknowledge and agree that this paragraph is reasonably necessary for the protection of Company's Proprietary Information as defined in paragraph 1.2 herein, that through my contract I shall receive adequate consideration for any loss of opportunity associated with the provisions herein, and that these provisions provide a reasonable way of protecting Company's business value which will be imparted to me. If any restriction set forth in this paragraph 4 is found by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable because it extends for too long a period of time or over too great a range of activities or in too broad a geographic area, it shall be interpreted to extend only over the maximum period of time, range of activities or geographic area as to which it may be enforceable.

AGENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into on March 3, 2021, by and between Abuyo, Inc. ("Abuyo", "SelectHub" or "Company") and Susmitha Tammineedi ("Agent").

This Agreement sets forth the relationship between the parties and the manner in which compensation will be paid to Agent.

1. Definitions:
    a. "Start Date" is the date from which Agent will begin work for the Company, which is being defined as March 15, 2021.
    b. The scope of work includes but is not limited to market research, analyzing data related to software vendors and products in specific software categories, compiling and curating accurate research content including but not limited to requirements templates, vendor / product scorecards and leaderboards, compiling good quality product screenshots and demo videos, liaising with vendor representatives for SelectHub RFI (request-for-information), new content creation, as well as content scraping and entry into SelectHub or other systems, building specifications and documentation, and other tasks as requested by SelectHub management from time to time ("Scope of Work").

2. Compensation. Company will pay Agent a certain Base Compensation related to the amount of work done by Agent per Scope of Work documented above and as per the following:

    Base Compensation: Agent agrees to devote a minimum of 40 hours per week pursuing activities that are deemed as being within the Scope of Work (as documented above) on a full-time, dedicated basis for the Company per the following work hours: 8am to 5pm Denver Time (US Mountain Time), unless such hours are changed by SelectHub. There may be occasional extended work hours, wherein Agent may need to work longer hours or during the weekends (Saturday and/or Sunday) or other holidays to accomplish the goals set out by SelectHub.

    Agent's day-to-day efforts and quality of results will be measured by the supervisor assigned to oversee Agent's work on a regular basis. In exchange for this work, Company will pay Agent a monthly Base Compensation of INR 52,000 (equating to annually INR 624,000). The Base Compensation will be paid out on a monthly basis prorated to any start or termination date, or any excess leaves taken during the pay period. If the first month worked will be a partial month, Agent's first payment may be pro-rated for the remainder of month, and paid out at the end of first complete month of work.

    Work From Home / Benefits Allowance: An additional payment of INR 3,000 (equating to annually INR 36,000) will be paid to you for:
    - Ensuring that your at-home Internet and Mobile Phone connectivity and associated services such as Skype, Phone / VoIP, etc. are adequately functional and maintained such that you are able to work from home in a productive manner, as per expectations shared with you by the SelectHub supervisor.

- Part of this allowance is also meant to help subsidize any health insurance and associated costs you will be incurring.

3. Personal Time Off (PTO), Sick Leaves and Holidays. PTOs and Sick Leaves are granted according to Company's policies in the US, and will be as per accompanying Staff Handbook. It comprises 1 day PTO per month worked, after the initial probationary period. Also, please note that PTOs, Sick Leaves and other holidays are not cashable in the event of termination of this Agreement. Sick leaves are provided as a courtesy for taking requisite time off in the event of your sickness only (and cannot be applied towards any other reason, including to tend to any family members being sick). PTOs are to be taken in minimum increments of half-days (4 hours).

   Please note that the Company provides 6 paid holidays per year. Since the set paid holidays follow primarily the US based holidays, we allow flexibility for our Indian team to take these days as "floating holidays" to celebrate other US or India-specific holidays and festivals, at your discretion, and subject to your supervisor's approval. For e.g., on US Labor Day holiday (first Monday in September), you can choose to work and instead take Diwali Day off.

4. Activity Log and Marketing Forecasting Reports. Agent will maintain and provide the Company and his assigned supervisor with an activity log sheet report via Hubstaff or other system on a daily basis. Access to such system(s) shall be provided by Company.

5. Expenses. Company will reimburse Agent for reasonable expenses necessarily incurred in relation to the above Scope of Work for the Company. Agent will not incur expenses without first receiving authorization from the Company's CEO. Agent shall submit an expense report, with receipts, to the Company on a monthly basis, and the Company shall pay the expenses within 30 days after receipt. Expense reports and receipts submitted to Company 60 days after they have occurred on a normal basis, and 30 days after they have occurred during the month of December, will not be accepted and reimbursed by Company.

6. Laptop. SelectHub will provide a laptop to the Agent. Until SelectHub does so, Agent will use his own laptop to perform the work assigned to him by SelectHub. Once the SelectHub-supplied laptop is provided to Agent, he will transfer the work to that laptop and only use it for SelectHub work-related purposes.

7. Authority. Agent is not authorized to enter into any binding agreements with any third-parties regarding SelectHub.

8. Other Employment. Agent will not accept part-time, full-time or other contract employment with any other third party during his tenure with SelectHub.

9. Termination. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without cause. In case the Agent would like to terminate the Agreement, he can do so with a minimum of 90 days notice to the Company, which the Company may opt to waive or reduce at its sole discretion. If Agent is terminated for any reason, Agent shall be paid Base Compensation through the date of termination. The payment shall be made in accordance with this Agreement and there shall be no acceleration of any payment. Agent shall not be entitled to any other payments. If this Agreement is terminated, the Agent agrees to provide accurate status reports and Activity Logs for the concluding week(s) with full and complete details of all work done during such period. Agent also agrees to the safe return to the Company of all Company items in Agent's possession, including but not limited to laptop, hardware, software, building access cards/keys, parking tags, and any other items within 24 hours after such termination (by "safe return" we mean to return the undamaged company property to a qualified company representative or initiate shipment via an insured carrier). Agent understands that such failure to perform termination-related tasks as listed here, are grounds for non-payment of any outstanding Compensation by Company.

10. Modifications. Company may modify the terms of this Agreement at any time in its sole discretion. Such modification shall not reduce any Compensation earned as of the date of the modification.

11. Non-Exclusivity for Company. This Agreement is not exclusive with regard to personnel or territory and Company may engage other personnel to handle any matter within the Scope of Work. Agent agrees to follow any specific guidelines provided by Company in this regard.

12. Independent Contractor. This Agreement calls for the performance of the services of the Agent, as an independent contractor. Agent shall be responsible for his own benefits and taxes, including all country, state and local taxes, workers compensation insurance, medical insurance, liability insurance and unemployment insurance.

13. Confidentiality. Agent agrees to comply with the terms of the Proprietary Information, Inventions, Non-Competition, and Non-Solicitation Agreement executed contemporaneously with this Agreement.

14. Applicable Law. The laws of the State of Colorado, USA shall govern this contract and any interpretations or constructions thereof. Further, the place of performance and transaction of business shall be deemed to be in the County of Denver, State of Colorado, USA and in the event of litigation, the exclusive venue and place of jurisdiction shall be the State of Colorado, USA and more specifically, Denver County District Court, Colorado, USA.

This Agreement and any fully-executed attachments constitute the entire Agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior or contemporaneous proposals or agreements whether oral or written, and all communications between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and all past courses of dealing. No amendment or modification of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized signatory of Abuyo and Agent. Both the Company and the Agent agree that any breach of any clauses in this Agreement will cause irreparable harm to the non-breaching party, for which damages would not be an adequate remedy, and, therefore, the non-breaching party will be entitled to injunctive relief with respect thereto in addition to any other remedies. The failure of either party to enforce its rights under this Agreement at any time for any period shall not be construed as a waiver of such rights. No changes or modifications or waivers to this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and signed by both parties. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement shall otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado without regard to the conflicts of laws provisions thereof. In any action or proceeding to enforce rights under this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover costs and attorneys fees. The parties agree to submit any dispute between them to arbitration under the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The order of the clauses in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall in no way affect interpretation of this Agreement.

2.1 Proprietary Rights. The term "Proprietary Rights" shall mean all trade secret, patent, copyright, mask work and other intellectual property rights throughout the world.

2.2 Prior Inventions. Inventions, if any, patented or unpatented, which I made prior to the commencement of my contract with the Company are excluded from the scope of this Agreement. To preclude any possible uncertainty, I have set forth on

Exhibit A (Previous Inventions) attached hereto a complete list of all Inventions that I have, alone or jointly with others, conceived, developed or reduced to practice or caused to be conceived, developed or reduced to practice prior to the commencement of my contract with the Company, that I consider to be my property or the property of third parties and that I wish to have excluded from the scope of this Agreement (collectively referred to as "Prior Inventions"). If disclosure of any such Prior Invention would cause me to violate any prior confidentiality agreement, I understand that I am not to list such Prior Inventions in Exhibit A but am only to disclose a cursory name for each such invention, a listing of the party(ies) to whom it belongs and the fact that full disclosure as to such inventions has not been made for that reason. A space is provided on Exhibit A for such purpose. If no such disclosure is attached, I represent that there are no Prior Inventions. If, in the course of my contract with the Company, I incorporate a Prior Invention into a Company product, process or machine, the Company is hereby granted and shall have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, modify, use and sell such Prior Invention. Notwithstanding the foregoing, I agree that I will not incorporate, or permit to be incorporated, Prior Inventions in any Company Inventions without the Company's prior written consent.

2.3 Assignment of Inventions. Subject to Sections 2.4, and 2.6, I hereby assign and agree to assign in the future (when any such Inventions or Proprietary Rights are first reduced to practice or first fixed in a tangible medium, as applicable) to the Company all my right, title and interest in and to any and all Inventions (and all Proprietary Rights with respect thereto) whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar statutes, made or conceived or reduced to practice or learned by me, either alone or jointly with others, during the period of my contract with the Company. Inventions assigned to the Company, or to a third party as directed by the Company pursuant to this Section 2, are hereinafter referred to as "Company Inventions."

2.4 Nonassignable Inventions. I recognize that, in the event of a specifically applicable state law, regulation, rule, or public policy ("Specific Inventions Law"), this Agreement will not be deemed to require assignment of any invention which qualifies fully for protection under a Specific Inventions Law by virtue of the fact that any such invention was, for example, developed entirely on my own time without using the Company's equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secrets and neither related to the Company's actual or anticipated business, research or development, nor resulted from work performed by me for the Company. In the absence of a Specific Inventions Law, the preceding sentence will not apply.

2.5 Obligation to Keep Company Informed. During the period of my contract and for twelve (12) months after the last day of my contract with the Company, I will promptly disclose to the Company fully and in writing all Inventions authored, conceived or reduced to practice by me, either alone or jointly with others. In addition, I will promptly disclose to the Company all patent applications filed by me or on my behalf within a year after termination of my contract. At the time of each such disclosure, I will advise the Company in writing of any Inventions that I believe fully qualify for protection under the provisions of a Specific Inventions Law; and I will at that time provide to the Company in writing all evidence necessary to substantiate that belief. The Company will keep in confidence and will not use for any purpose or disclose to third parties without my consent any confidential information disclosed in writing to the Company pursuant to this Agreement relating to Inventions that qualify fully for protection under a Specific Inventions Law. I will preserve the confidentiality of any Invention that does not fully qualify for protection under a Specific Inventions Law.

2.6 Government or Third Party. I also agree to assign all my right, title and interest in and to any particular Invention to a third party, including without limitation the United States, as directed by the Company.

2.7 Works for Hire. I acknowledge that all original works of authorship which are made by me (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of my contract with the Company and which are protectable by copyright are "works made for hire," pursuant to United States Copyright Act (17 U.S.C., Section 101).

2.8 Enforcement of Proprietary Rights. I will assist the Company in every proper way to obtain, and from time to time enforce, United States and foreign Proprietary Rights relating to Company Inventions in any and all countries. To that end I will execute, verify and deliver such documents and perform such other acts (including appearances as a witness) as the Company may reasonably request for use in applying for, obtaining, perfecting, evidencing, sustaining and enforcing such Proprietary Rights and the assignment thereof. In addition, I will execute, verify and deliver assignments of such Proprietary Rights to the Company or its designee. My obligation to assist the Company with respect to Proprietary Rights relating to such Company Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the termination of my contract, but the Company shall compensate me at a reasonable rate after my termination for the time actually spent by me at the Company's request on such assistance.

In the event the Company is unable for any reason, after reasonable effort, to secure my signature on any document needed in connection with the actions specified in the preceding paragraph, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint the Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest, to act for and in my behalf to execute, verify and file any such documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the purposes of the preceding paragraph with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me. I hereby waive and quitclaim to the Company any and all claims, of any nature whatsoever, which I now or may hereafter have for infringement of any Proprietary Rights assigned hereunder to the Company.

3. NO CONFLICTS OR SOLICITATION. I acknowledge that during my contract I will have access to and knowledge of Proprietary Information. To protect the Company's Proprietary Information, I agree that during the period of my contract with the Company I will not, without the Company's express written consent, engage in any other employment or business activity directly related to the business in which the Company is now involved or becomes involved, nor will I engage in any other activities which conflict with my obligations to the Company. For the period of my contract with the Company and continuing until (a) twelve (12) months after my last day of my contract with the Company if I terminate my contract with Good Reason (as defined below) or the Company terminates my contract without Cause (as defined below) or (b) two (2) years after my last day of my contract with the Company if I terminate my contract without Good Reason or the Company terminates my contract for Cause, I will not (x) directly or indirectly induce any employee or contractor of the Company to terminate or negatively alter his or her relationship with the Company, (y) solicit the business of any client, customer, user, or investor of the Company (other than on behalf of the Company) or (z) induce any customer, investor, user, supplier, vendor, consultant or independent contractor of the Company to terminate or negatively alter his, her or its relationship with the Company. If any restriction set forth in this Section is found by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable because it extends for too long a period of time or over too great a range of activities or in too broad a geographic area, it shall be interpreted to extend only over the maximum period of time, range of activities or geographic area as to which it may be enforceable.

4. COVENANT NOT TO COMPETE. I acknowledge that during my contract I will have access to and knowledge of Proprietary Information. To protect the Company's Proprietary Information, I agree that during my contract with the Company whether full-time or half-time and for a period of (a) twelve (12) months after my last day of my contract with the Company if I terminate my contract with Good Reason or the Company terminates my contract without Cause or (b) two (2) years after my last day of my contract with the Company if I terminate my contract without Good Reason or the Company terminates my contract with Cause, I will not directly or indirectly engage in (whether as an employee, consultant, proprietor, partner, director or otherwise), or have any ownership interest in, or participate in the financing, operation, management or control of, any person, firm, corporation or business that engages in a Restricted Business (as defined below) in a Restricted Territory (as defined below). It is agreed that ownership of (i) no more than one percent (1%) of the outstanding voting stock of a publicly traded corporation, or (ii) any stock I presently own shall not constitute a violation of this provision.

4.1 Reasonable. I agree and acknowledge that the time limitation on the restrictions in this paragraph, combined with the geographic scope, is reasonable. I also acknowledge and agree that this paragraph is reasonably necessary for the protection of Company's Proprietary Information as defined in paragraph 1.2 herein, that through my contract I shall receive adequate consideration for any loss of opportunity associated with the provisions herein, and that these provisions provide a reasonable way of protecting Company's business value which will be imparted to me. If any restriction set forth in this paragraph 4 is found by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable because it extends for too long a period of time or over too great a range of activities or in too broad a geographic area, it shall be interpreted to extend only over the maximum period of time, range of activities or geographic area as to which it may be enforceable.

I agree that no modification, use or publication of the Works by PwC AC Bangalore or any successor or transferee thereof will be deemed to constitute a distortion or mutilation of the Works. PwC AC Bangalore shall have the unrestricted right to transfer and convey any or all of PwC AC Bangalore's rights in or relating to the Works to any person or entity.

(b) I understand that the CIPA is not intended and shall not be interpreted to assign to or invest in PwC AC Bangalore any of my rights in any inventions developed entirely on my own time without using PwC AC Bangalore's equipment, supplies, facilities, resources, or trade secret information, except for those inventions that either relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the inventions to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or the actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of PwC AC Bangalore, or result from any work that I performed for PwC AC Bangalore.

I understand that my obligations under this Section shall survive any termination of this CIPA or of my employment in perpetuity, provided that PwC AC Bangalore will compensate me at a reasonable rate for time actually spent performing such obligations at PwC AC Bangalore's request after such termination. If PwC AC Bangalore is unable for any reason whatsoever, including my mental or physical incapacity, to secure my signature to apply for or to pursue any application for any United States or foreign letters patent or copyright registrations or on any document transferring or assigning any patent, copyright or other proprietary right that I am obligated hereunder to transfer or assign, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint PwC AC Bangalore and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, to act for and on my behalf and in my stead to execute and file any such applications and documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the application, registration, prosecution and issuance of letters patent or copyright registrations or transfers or assignments thereof or of any other proprietary rights with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me. This appointment is coupled with an interest in and to the inventions, works of authorship, trade secrets and other Works to which any proprietary rights may apply and shall survive my death or disability.

(e) "Works" means:

(i) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during my employment with PwC AC Bangalore (which term includes, for purposes of this entire definition, any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore), or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and that relate to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or its actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development,

(ii) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during or after my employment with PwC AC Bangalore, or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and which are made through the use of any of PwC AC Bangalore's or any PwC AC Bangalore's predecessors' equipment, facilities, supplies, trade secrets or time, or which result from any work that I perform or performed for PwC AC Bangalore, and

(iii) any part or aspect of any of the foregoing.

(f) For purposes of Sections 2(a), (b), (c) and (d) of this CIPA, the term PwC AC Bangalore shall mean (i) PwC AC Bangalore for any period of time during which I am employed by PwC AC Bangalore and (ii) any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore for any period of time during which I am employed by such affiliate.

3. I will return immediately to PwC AC Bangalore all property of PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates (including without limitation all Proprietary Information, documents, notes and other work product) in my possession or control, including duplicates, when I leave my employment or whenever PwC AC Bangalore may otherwise require that such Proprietary Information and other property be returned.

5. I understand and agree that the provisions of this CIPA shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms notwithstanding any termination of my employment with PwC AC Bangalore for any or no reason.

6. The CIPA constitutes the entire agreement between PwC AC Bangalore and me with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and/or contemporaneous understandings, agreements or communications, whether oral or written, on such subject matter, provided that the provisions of any other written agreement between PwC AC Bangalore and me shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

7. The CIPA shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of India.

8. The CIPA may not be amended or modified except by a written document signed by me and a duly authorized representative of PwC AC Bangalore. The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

10. If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates will be entitled, without limiting any other available legal or equitable remedies, to injunctive relief (without the need to post any bond or other security) to enforce the terms of the CIPA in whole or in part

The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates will be entitled, without limiting any other available legal or equitable remedies, to injunctive relief (without the need to post any bond or other security) to enforce the terms of the CIPA in whole or in part

If PwC AC Bangalore is unable for any reason whatsoever, including my mental or physical incapacity, to secure my signature to apply for or to pursue any application for any United States or foreign letters patent or copyright registrations or on any document transferring or assigning any patent, copyright or other proprietary right that I am obligated hereunder to transfer or assign, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint PwC AC Bangalore and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, to act for and on my behalf and in my stead to execute and file any such applications and documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the application, registration, prosecution and issuance of letters patent or copyright registrations or transfers or assignments thereof or of any other proprietary rights with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me. This appointment is coupled with an interest in and to the inventions, works of authorship, trade secrets and other Works to which any proprietary rights may apply and shall survive my death or disability.

(e) "Works" means:

(i) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during my employment with PwC AC Bangalore (which term includes, for purposes of this entire definition, any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore), or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and that relate to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or its actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development,

(ii) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during or after my employment with PwC AC Bangalore, or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and which are made through the use of any of PwC AC Bangalore's or any PwC AC Bangalore's predecessors' equipment, facilities, supplies, trade secrets or time, or which result from any work that I perform or performed for PwC AC Bangalore, and

(iii) any part or aspect of any of the foregoing.

The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

10. If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates will be entitled, without limiting any other available legal or equitable remedies, to injunctive relief (without the need to post any bond or other security) to enforce the terms of the CIPA in whole or in part and to prevent any breach or threatened breach of any of those Sections.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates will be entitled, without limiting any other available legal or equitable remedies, to injunctive relief (without the need to post any bond or other security) to enforce the terms of the CIPA in whole or in part

INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Me?

Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain independence with respect to the Firm's clients. They are ' Member of the Firm ' and ' Covered Person ' . As you will see, all Covered Persons are also Members of the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

'Member of the Firm' - You are a Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term 'Member of the Firm' also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

'Covered Person' - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm's Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors' report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ' office ' in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term 'Covered Person' also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled 'When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?' The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ‘ immediate family members ’ in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ‘ close family members ’ —immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member’s employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm’s independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a ‘Member of the Firm’?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

- If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

- You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm's independence rules with respect to their investments.

- Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.

INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Me?

Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain independence with respect to the Firm's clients. They are ' Member of the Firm ' and ' Covered Person ' . As you will see, all Covered Persons are also Members of the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

'Member of the Firm' - You are a Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term 'Member of the Firm' also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

'Covered Person' - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm's Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors' report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ' office ' in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term 'Covered Person' also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled 'When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?' The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ' immediate family members ' in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ' close family members ' — immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member's employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm's independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a 'Member of the Firm'?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

· If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

· You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm's independence rules with respect to their investments.

· Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term 'Member of the Firm' also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

'Covered Person' - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm's Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors' report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ' office ' in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term 'Covered Person' also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled 'When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?' The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ' immediate family members ' in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ' close family members ' — immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member's employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm's independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a 'Member of the Firm'?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

· If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

· You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm's independence rules with respect to their investments.

· Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.

INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Me?

Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

'Member of the Firm' - You are a Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term 'Member of the Firm' also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

'Covered Person' - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm's Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors' report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ' office ' in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term 'Covered Person' also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled 'When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?' The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ' immediate family members ' in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ' close family members ' —immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member's employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm's independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a 'Member of the Firm'?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

· If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

· You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm's independence rules with respect to their investments.

plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Me?

Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain independence with respect to the Firm's clients. They are ' Member of the Firm ' and ' Covered Person ' . As you will see, all Covered Persons are also Members of the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

‘Member of the Firm’ - You are a Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term ‘Member of the Firm’ also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

‘Covered Person’ - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm’s Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors’ report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ‘ office ’ in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term ‘Covered Person’ also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled ‘When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?’ The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ‘ immediate family members ’ in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ‘ close family members ’ — immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member’s employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm’s independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a ‘Member of the Firm’?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

· If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

· You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm’s independence rules with respect to their investments.

· Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.
