INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Me?

Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain independence with respect to the Firm's clients. They are ' Member of the Firm ' and ' Covered Person ' . As you will see, all Covered Persons are also Members of the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

‘Member of the Firm’ - You are a Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term ‘Member of the Firm’ also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

‘Covered Person’ - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm’s Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors’ report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ‘ office ’ in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term ‘Covered Person’ also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled ‘When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?’ The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ‘ immediate family members ’ in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ‘ close family members ’ — immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member’s employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm’s independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a ‘Member of the Firm’?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

· If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

· You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm’s independence rules with respect to their investments.

· Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.

INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Me?

Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain independence with respect to the Firm's clients. They are ' Member of the Firm ' and ' Covered Person ' . As you will see, all Covered Persons are also Members of the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

‘Member of the Firm’ - You are a Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term ‘Member of the Firm’ also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

‘Covered Person’ - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm’s Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors’ report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ‘ office ’ in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term ‘Covered Person’ also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled ‘When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?’ The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ‘ immediate family members ’ in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ‘ close family members ’ — immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member’s employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm’s independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a ‘Member of the Firm’?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

· If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

· You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm’s independence rules with respect to their investments.

· Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.

The Company may, subject to applicable laws, require you to work beyond these hours for performing your duties competently and to meet the Company's requirements.

PLACE OF WORK

You will report into the India office of the Company. The Company may at any point in time, in its sole discretion, after giving you reasonable notice, transfer or assign your services to any place of business of the Company that may presently be operating, or which may subsequently be acquired or established, in any part of India or abroad. In such event, the terms and conditions governing your service shall be those applicable at the location of transfer or those applicable to employees of such subsidiaries or affiliates as the case may be.

The Company may also depute you to any work or assign your services to any associate company, branch, office, subsidiary or other companies, concerns, organizations, or firms with whom the Company may make any such arrangement or agreement.

However, the management agrees that due regard and consideration will be given to personal factors prior to any such transfer/deputation.

CONFIDENTIALITY

UBS

7 Total Employment Cost

7.1 Salary

Your annual Total Employment Cost (TEC) will be INR500,000/-. Your annual basic salary will be INR250,000/-, which will be paid in 12 instalments of INR20,833/- per month.

7.2 Employer Provident Fund Contribution

12% of your monthly basic salary will be paid to the Provident Fund each month.

7.3 Basket Allowance

The remaining balance of Total Employment Cost (TEC) of INR220,000/- per annum will form the Basket Allowance, which may include allowances related to housing rent, car running and maintenance, driver's wages, and/or leave travel allowance, in accordance with applicable laws. You will be invited to indicate your preference as to the planned allocation of this Basket Allowance.

7.4 Whilst it is the current policy of the Firm that total employment cost is reviewed annually, any increment is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm and you acknowledge that any such review may not result in any increase to your TEC.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 7 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. Where the non-shift role is temporary, your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will resume on the date on which the shift role resumes.

Any changes to working hours and/or shifts should only take effect from the 1st of the month.

The Firm reserves the right to amend, modify or withdraw the "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift" and/or to withdraw the Shift Allowance and/or to vary the amount of the Shift Allowance at its discretion from time to time and you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

10 Tax and other Payments

10.1 The Firm shall be entitled to deduct and withhold any and all taxes and imposts as required by law. You will be solely and personally liable for declaring and paying all taxes and imposts relating to your employment as required by law.

10.2 You will be required to make any necessary employee contributions to the Provident Fund which will be deducted from your monthly basic salary.

11 Relocation

In connection with your acceptance of this offer of employment and required relocation from Mumbai to Hyderabad, you will be provided with the following core benefits:

The Firm will provide a one-off payment of INR200,000/- to cover transportation, movement of house hold goods and one month temp accommodation that might be incurred in the process of transferring to your new location. The Firm will bear the tax costs associated with this payment. This payment will be made in the month of your successful relocation.

Please note that the benefits listed above are the benefits you are eligible for in connection with your relocation and no other reimbursements will be made to you in relation to any other expenses incurred by you.

If you do not commence employment, or your employment is terminated for any reason except redundancy, disability or death within 12 months from the Date of Commencement, the Firm will have the right to require you to repay the total of the above relocation costs (including any tax liability paid on your behalf) ('total relocation costs') and/or to deduct a sum up to or equal to amount of the total relocation costs from any sum owed by UBS to you, and you hereby authorise the Firm to make any such deduction.

12 Benefits

You will be entitled to participate in all of the Firm's benefit plans as established from time to time, at such times as you qualify for them or, as the case may be, as you are selected for participation in them. The Firm reserves the right to amend, discontinue or withdraw such benefit plans in its sole and absolute discretion. Please refer to the Firm's Employee Handbook for further details.

13 Termination

13.1 During your probation period, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving 7 days' notice of termination.

13.2 The Firm reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time without notice or payment in lieu thereof if you commit any serious or persistent breach or non-observance of the terms, conditions or stipulations contained in this Agreement including termination for breach of warranties as set out at clause 23.2 of this Agreement, or the Firm's regulations, policies and procedures, (including but not limited to the Firm's Employee Handbook) or if you are guilty of any serious negligence or misconduct in connection with or affecting the business or affairs of the Firm or otherwise as permitted under applicable laws in India.

(b) repeated failure to comply with the lawful directions of the Firm and/or its officers;
(d) going on or abetting a strike in contravention of any law;
(c) causing damage to the property of the Firm; and/or
(e) breach of confidentiality/secrecy provisions set out in this Agreement.

13.4 After the completion of your probationary period, except in the case of termination for cause under paragraph 13.2 which requires no notice or payment in lieu of notice, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving three months' notice of termination (in the case of Directors, Executive Directors and Managing Directors) or two months' notice of termination (in all other cases).

You acknowledge and agree that such notice (or payment in lieu thereof) is reasonable notice of termination and no other notice requirements express or implied by law shall apply.

13.5 At any time, including during any period of notice provided for in this paragraph 13, the Firm may elect to make payment of wages in lieu of all or part of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, only the Firm has the right to terminate this Agreement by making payment in lieu of notice and you can terminate this Agreement only by providing notice in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and not by making payment in lieu of notice.

13.6 You may not offset the notice period by any vacation leave that has not been taken. However, the Firm may direct you to take annual leave at any time to the extent permitted by law.

13.7 Termination of your employment under this paragraph 13 would be without prejudice to:
(a) the Firm's right to claim the actual damages it has suffered through the breach on your part of any of the responsibilities or obligations in this Agreement; and
(b) any other relief to which the Firm may be entitled under contract, law or equity.

13.8 The Firm's decision as to the termination of your services or employment shall be final and legally binding on you.

13.9 As and when required by the Firm (and in any event upon the cessation of your employment for whatever reason), you shall resign from all offices held by you with the Firm or any Group Company without any claims for compensation for loss of office.

13.10 Following the termination of your employment, you agree that you will be willing to assist the Firm or any other Group Company in respect of any dispute, internal or external investigation or enquiry or any actual or potential litigation (whether civil or criminal) with which the Firm or such Group Company may be involved and in respect of which you might reasonably be expected to have knowledge, including but not limited to assisting in preparing witness statements and attending at court to give evidence.

13.11 Following the termination of your employment, you shall not represent yourself or hold yourself out as being employed by the Firm or any Group Company. You shall take appropriate steps within seven (7) days of your Termination Date to ensure any social media accounts and external profiles which you may have are updated to accurately reflect the cessation of your employment with the Firm and/or any relevant Group Company.

14 Garden / Paid Leave

14.1 During the period of notice as provided for in paragraph 13 above or for any reason during your employment, the Firm may place you on any period of paid leave on full pay and contractual benefits (except that you are not entitled to performance incentives in respect of such period) and exclude you from the Firm's premises and/or remove your access to the Firm's systems. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, during such period of paid leave, the Firm shall be under no obligation to vest in or assign to you any duties or work or require you to appear at work. You will remain bound by all of the express and implied obligations arising out of your employment with the Firm, including the obligations of good faith.

You shall cooperate with the Firm with respect to the procurement and enforcement of such Intellectual Property Rights and Works. You confirm that the provisions of Section 19(4) of the Copyright Act, 1957 shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

20.4 Insofar as you are able, you waive and agree not to assert and/or exercise any moral rights you may have in the Works and voluntarily and unconditionally consent to all or any acts or omissions by the Firm or persons authorized by the Firm, which would otherwise infringe your moral rights in the Works.

20.5 You hereby:

(a) agree to give and supply, at the request and expense of the Firm, all such information and assistance that the Firm may deem appropriate to enable the Firm to use the Works to its best advantage and to register the Firm or its nominee as owner and beneficiary of the Works; and

(b) agree to cooperate fully with the Firm, at the request and expense of the Firm, to do all acts and to execute all documents in such manner and at such location as may be required by the Firm to effect, perfect, record or register the assignment of, or to protect or enforce all or any of the rights, title or interest assigned or granted or proposed to be assigned or granted to the Firm under this Agreement in any jurisdiction. You also agree that, if you fail to perform any act or execute any document aforesaid following 14 days' notice from the Firm, the Firm shall have the right to do so in your place and stead as your lawfully appointed attorney and you hereby confirm, and ratify and agree to be bound by any and all actions of the Firm pursuant to this paragraph and such authority and appointment shall take effect as an irrevocable appointment.

20.6 You may not use any Intellectual Property Rights or Works in any way other than for the purposes of performing your duties in the interests of the Firm unless you obtain proper written permission from the Firm to do otherwise.

2. Even if your employment contract with your former employer is silent on your duties of confidentiality, general law is likely to impose duties of confidentiality and fidelity on you not to use or disclose your former employers' confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets to any third party, including your new employer.

   - any breach of contractual duties (such as non-solicitation of staff of former employer or non-compete clauses) or applicable laws and regulations by our staff.

5. A breach of your duties and obligations renders you liable at law to your former employer(s) and/or third parties and may jeopardize your employment at UBS. Furthermore, such breach could subject UBS to potential legal liability, regulatory censures or penalties, and serious reputational damage.

6. Examples of what you CAN and CANNOT bring with you

   YES, you may use in the course of employment with UBS:
   - Information from your previous employers that is freely available in the public domain

   - confidential information or trade secrets belonging to or claimed by your former employer(s).

   Please take note that the above serves merely to illustrate and is not exhaustive. Your exact duties and obligations owed to your former employer(s) depend on your former role and responsibilities, the construction of your employment contract and on the general laws of the jurisdiction in which you were employed. If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

7 Total Employment Cost

7.1 Salary

Your annual Total Employment Cost (TEC) will be INR500,000/-. Your annual basic salary will be INR250,000/-, which will be paid in 12 instalments of INR20,833/- per month.

7.2 Employer Provident Fund Contribution

12% of your monthly basic salary will be paid to the Provident Fund each month.

7.3 Basket Allowance

The remaining balance of Total Employment Cost (TEC) of INR220,000/- per annum will form the Basket Allowance, which may include allowances related to housing rent, car running and maintenance, driver's wages, and/or leave travel allowance, in accordance with applicable laws. You will be invited to indicate your preference as to the planned allocation of this Basket Allowance.

7.4 Whilst it is the current policy of the Firm that total employment cost is reviewed annually, any increment is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm and you acknowledge that any such review may not result in any increase to your TEC.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 7 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. Where the non-shift role is temporary, your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will resume on the date on which the shift role resumes.

Any changes to working hours and/or shifts should only take effect from the 1st of the month.

The Firm reserves the right to amend, modify or withdraw the "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift" and/or to withdraw the Shift Allowance and/or to vary the amount of the Shift Allowance at its discretion from time to time and you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

10 Tax and other Payments

In connection with your acceptance of this offer of employment and required relocation from Sitarganj to Hyderabad, you will be provided with the following core benefits:

The Firm will provide a one-off payment of INR200,000/- to cover transportation, movement of house hold goods and one month temp accommodation that might be incurred in the process of transferring to your new location. The Firm will bear the tax costs associated with this payment. This payment will be made in the month of your successful relocation.

Please note that the benefits listed above are the benefits you are eligible for in connection with your relocation and no other reimbursements will be made to you in relation to any other expenses incurred by you.

If you do not commence employment, or your employment is terminated for any reason except redundancy, disability or death within 12 months from the Date of Commencement, the Firm will have the right to require you to repay the total of the above relocation costs (including any tax liability paid on your behalf) ('total relocation costs') and/or to deduct a sum up to or equal to amount of the total relocation costs from any sum owed by UBS to you, and you hereby authorise the Firm to make any such deduction.

12 Benefits

You will be entitled to participate in all of the Firm's benefit plans as established from time to time, at such times as you qualify for them or, as the case may be, as you are selected for participation in them. The Firm reserves the right to amend, discontinue or withdraw such benefit plans in its sole and absolute discretion. Please refer to the Firm's Employee Handbook for further details.

13 Termination

13.1 During your probation period, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving 7 days' notice of termination.

(d) going on or abetting a strike in contravention of any law;
(c) causing damage to the property of the Firm; and/or
(e) breach of confidentiality/secrecy provisions set out in this Agreement.

13.4 After the completion of your probationary period, except in the case of termination for cause under paragraph 13.2 which requires no notice or payment in lieu of notice, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving three months' notice of termination (in the case of Directors, Executive Directors and Managing Directors) or two months' notice of termination (in the case of Associate Directors and Authorized Officers) or one month's notice of termination (in all other cases).

You acknowledge and agree that such notice (or payment in lieu thereof) is reasonable notice of termination and no other notice requirements express or implied by law shall apply.

13.5 At any time, including during any period of notice provided for in this paragraph 13, the Firm may elect to make payment of wages in lieu of all or part of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, only the Firm has the right to terminate this Agreement by making payment in lieu of notice and you can terminate this Agreement only by providing notice in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and not by making payment in lieu of notice.

13.6 You may not offset the notice period by any vacation leave that has not been taken. However, the Firm may direct you to take annual leave at any time to the extent permitted by law.

13.7 Termination of your employment under this paragraph 13 would be without prejudice to:
(a) the Firm's right to claim the actual damages it has suffered through the breach on your part of any of the responsibilities or obligations in this Agreement; and
(b) any other relief to which the Firm may be entitled under contract, law or equity.

13.8 The Firm's decision as to the termination of your services or employment shall be final and legally binding on you.

13.9 As and when required by the Firm (and in any event upon the cessation of your employment for whatever reason), you shall resign from all offices held by you with the Firm or any Group Company without any claims for compensation for loss of office.

13.10 Following the termination of your employment, you agree that you will be willing to assist the Firm or any other Group Company in respect of any dispute, internal or external investigation or enquiry or any actual or potential litigation (whether civil or criminal) with which the Firm or such Group Company may be involved and in respect of which you might reasonably be expected to have knowledge, including but not limited to assisting in preparing witness statements and attending at court to give evidence.

13.11 Following the termination of your employment, you shall not represent yourself or hold yourself out as being employed by the Firm or any Group Company. You shall take appropriate steps within seven (7) days of your Termination Date to ensure any social media accounts and external profiles which you may have are updated to accurately reflect the cessation of your employment with the Firm and/or any relevant Group Company.

14 Garden / Paid Leave

14.1 During the period of notice as provided for in paragraph 13 above or for any reason during your employment, the Firm may place you on any period of paid leave on full pay and contractual benefits (except that you are not entitled to performance incentives in respect of such period) and exclude you from the Firm's premises and/or

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, during such period of paid leave, the Firm shall be under no obligation to vest in or assign to you any duties or work or require you to appear at work. You will remain bound by all of the express and implied obligations arising out of your employment with the Firm, including the obligations of good faith.

(iii) reputational risk to the Firm or any Group Company resulting from problems arising under such circumstances.

15.2 In this regard, you shall comply with the provisions of the UBS Group Policy on Outside Directorships and other External Functions, including any approval procedures prescribed thereunder. All information which is made available, obtained or created by you during your duties that is not already obviously public knowledge or publicly available information (through no breach of any obligation of confidentiality by you or any third party) is Confidential Information.

It is the responsibility and obligation of all employees to ensure and preserve the confidentiality and non-disclosure of the Confidential Information and maintain the highest professional standards to ensure that all Confidential Information is kept confidential and secret and is properly and professionally handled to protect the Firm's commercial interests and to ensure compliance with regulatory and legal requirements. Failure to follow these principles will jeopardize the Firm's reputation and business.

19.2 In addition to and without altering any legal obligation (that you already have or to which you become subject) to keep the Confidential Information confidential, you agree not to use, retain, remove, destroy, transmit, disclose or communicate any Confidential Information to any third party outside of the Firm (except for the purpose of properly performing your duties for the Firm or unless required to do so by law or any regulatory or investigative authority or unless authorized to do so by your line manager or senior officer) either during the course of your employment or after it has ended, whether deliberately or otherwise. Furthermore, you shall not use any Confidential Information known to you or reconstruct or reproduce any Confidential Information.

19.3 You may not use any Confidential Information in any way other than for performance of your duties to the Firm. For example, Confidential Information must not be used to trade on your own account or for trading by other persons (such as family and friends). You shall at all times comply with the requirements of the UBS Group's Policy on Personal Account Dealing.

19.6 You agree that the terms of this Agreement are strictly private and confidential and you shall not disclose the existence of this Agreement, or the contents herein to anyone, except your immediate family, accountants and legal advisors, and only upon their agreement not to disclose to another person or entity, any information relating to the existence and/or contents of this Agreement, except to the extent required by legal process.

19.7 In this paragraph 19, "Firm" shall include each and every member of the UBS Group.

20 Intellectual Property

20.2 You shall promptly disclose and deliver to the Firm upon creation full details of all designs, inventions, works of authorship and other works in which Intellectual Property Rights subsist, conceived or created by you in the context of the Firm's business or related activities, or within the scope of employment, or by using the Firm's time, materials, facilities, or information (the "Works"). All such Works, whether or not protectable under the Copyright Act, 1957, or any other statute for the time being in force, will be considered a "work made in the course of the author's employment" under Section 17 of the Copyright Act, 1957 or other statutes in force. Ownership of any and all Intellectual Property Rights in any and all such Works will belong to the Firm. In the event any portion of the Works is deemed not to be a "work made in the course of the author's employment" for any reason, you hereby assign, convey, transfer and grant, and agree to assign, convey, transfer, and grant to the Firm all of your rights, title, and interest in and to the Works and any Intellectual Property Rights therein, and agree to cooperate with the Firm in the execution of appropriate instruments assigning and evidencing such ownership rights hereunder, which obligation shall survive termination of your employment with the Firm.

20.3 You hereby assign to the Firm (to the extent not already vested in the Firm by operation of law) and on an exclusive and irrevocable basis all present and future Intellectual Property Rights (including in or relating to the Works) for their full terms around the world. You shall cooperate with the Firm with respect to the procurement and enforcement of such Intellectual Property Rights and Works. You confirm that the provisions of Section 19(4) of the Copyright Act, 1957 shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

20.4 Insofar as you are able, you waive and agree not to assert and/or exercise any moral rights you may have in the Works and voluntarily and unconditionally consent to all or any acts or omissions by the Firm or persons authorized by the Firm, which would otherwise infringe your moral rights in the Works.

UBS

20.5 You hereby:

(a) agree to give and supply, at the request and expense of the Firm, all such information and assistance that the Firm may deem appropriate to enable the Firm to use the Works to its best advantage and to register the Firm or its nominee as owner and beneficiary of the Works; and

(b) agree to cooperate fully with the Firm, at the request and expense of the Firm, to do all acts and to execute all documents in such manner and at such location as may be required by the Firm to effect, perfect, record or register the assignment of, or to protect or enforce all or any of the rights, title or interest assigned or granted or proposed to be assigned or granted to the Firm under this Agreement in any jurisdiction. You also agree that, if you fail to perform any act or execute any document aforesaid following 14 days' notice from the Firm, the Firm shall have the right to do so in your place and stead as your lawfully appointed attorney and you hereby confirm, and ratify and agree to be bound by any and all actions of the Firm pursuant to this paragraph and such authority and appointment shall take effect as an irrevocable appointment.

20.6 You may not use any Intellectual Property Rights or Works in any way other than for the purposes of performing your duties in the interests of the Firm unless you obtain proper written permission from the Firm to do otherwise.

20.7 You agree not to do any act or omit to do any act during your employment with the Firm or at any time thereafter to affect or imperil the validity of any Intellectual Property Rights obtained, applied for or to be applied for by the Firm or its nominee. In particular, you shall not disclose the subject matter of any inventions which may be patentable in such a way that could jeopardize the interests of the Firm in such inventions or that could impair the right of the Firm to apply for a patent for such inventions. You agree that any Intellectual Property Right that was made, conceived or suggested by you, either solely or jointly with others, within one (1) year following termination of your employment with the Firm and that pertains to any Confidential Information or business activity of the Firm will be presumed to have been made, conceived or suggested in the course of your employment and with the use of the time, materials or facilities of the Firm.

20.8 You agree and undertake that all Intellectual Property Rights and Works created by you shall not infringe any rights of any third party (including but not limited to contractual or intellectual property rights) or put the Firm or any Group Company into disrepute, and shall be original.

You shall faithfully perform the duties assigned to you by the Firm and shall fully comply with all of the Firm's regulations, policies and procedures (including, but not limited to, the Firm's Employee Handbook) as implemented and/or amended in the Firm's sole discretion from time to time. However, all such regulations, policies and procedures do not and shall not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract with the Firm.

23 Warranties and Undertakings

23.1 You represent and warrant that:

(a) you have no previous criminal convictions and are not the subject of any investigation which may lead to a criminal conviction in India or elsewhere and no consent is required from any jurisdictional regulator including the Securities Exchange Board of India or Reserve Bank of India or any other regulator for your employment with the Firm;

(b) you have not been reprimanded or otherwise disciplined nor are currently being investigated by any regulatory or professional body in India and elsewhere including, but not limited to, Securities Exchange Board of India;

(d) all information provided by you, including but not limited to your personal data and any other information provided in the course of your application for and during your employment are true and correct in all respects and not misleading;

(e) entering into this Agreement and performance of your duties as an employee of the Firm will not result in any breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any term of any agreement or court order by which you are bound, including any obligation owed to a current or former employer;

(f) all necessary approvals or consents or any other actions that are required by law or regulations to be obtained or undertaken for the purposes of the execution of this Agreement and the performance of your duties hereunder have been obtained and/or undertaken.

23.2 Any breach of any of the warranties and undertakings set out in this paragraph 23 may give rise to grounds for instant dismissal and/or cancellations/annulments of this Agreement to the extent permitted under applicable laws.

24 Non-Disparagement

You agree that during the course of your employment and after its cessation (for whatever reason) you will not make, publish or issue (or authorise or permit the making, publication or issuing of) any disparaging or derogatory statement whether oral or written concerning the Firm or any other Group Company or any of its or their current or former employees, agents, directors or officers, or act in any manner which would or might bring the Firm or any other Group Company into disrepute.

25 Background and Reference Checks

25.1 The offer of employment contained in this Agreement is subject to verification of the details provided by you in your curriculum vitae, employment application form, personal data form and any other information provided by you in the course of your application for employment.

25.2 This offer is also subject to the completion of the Firm's background screening process to the satisfaction of the Firm (as determined in the Firm's sole discretion). This includes the Firm obtaining satisfactory references (as determined by the Firm) in its sole and absolute discretion. You will receive separately an "Information Release Form" and must complete such form in connection with the relevant background checking. If you do not complete the form with mandatory details provided and return this in a timely manner at the Firm's reasonable request, this will be sufficient cause to justify the immediate withdrawal of this offer of employment or, if you have already become an employee, the immediate termination of your employment without any prior notice.

25.3 Any false information provided by you may result in immediate withdrawal of this offer or termination of employment (as the case may be) with no further compensation to you.

25.4 This offer is also subject to your being entitled (and continuing to be entitled) to lawfully reside and work in India. If an employment pass/visa is required, the Firm will assist you to apply for this (and bear the cost). If this is not required, please provide us with documentary evidence of this. 27 Preservation of Common Law Rights

27.1 All of the rights, duties and obligations between the Firm and you as set forth in this Agreement are in addition to those provided by applicable law and none of the remedies specifically provided for in this Agreement will preclude either you or the Firm from pursuing additional remedies available to either of the parties.

27.2 If you violate the terms of the paragraphs regarding Non-Solicitation, Confidentiality, Intellectual Property, Non-Disparagement and/or Policies and Procedures of this Agreement, you may, in addition to damages, be subject to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions set out in these provisions. The Firm and you mutually acknowledge that it may be difficult to ascertain the exact amount of damages for violation of these provisions, but that damages would be of a continuing nature and that the Firm would suffer irreparable harm and injury by reason of such violations. Consequently, you consent to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions of these provisions.

The Firm reserves the right to vary any of the terms and conditions of your employment at any time to the extent permitted by applicable law in its reasonable discretion.

29 Right to Withhold or Set-off

You acknowledge and agree that the Firm shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be entitled from time to time to withhold or set-off from any sum payable by the Firm to you (including, for the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, remuneration) a sum equivalent to or less than any amount owed by you to the Firm or any other Group Company, and to apply such amount in full or partial settlement of such amount payable by you to the Firm or such Group Company (as the case may be). The rights under this paragraph 29 shall be without prejudice to any other rights of recovery which the Firm or Group Company may have in law or in equity.

30 Severability

If any term or provision in this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable, in whole or in part, such term or provision shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this Agreement but the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected.

   - keep information gained during your former employment confidential and secret; and/or
   - return property belonging to your former employer when you leave; and/or
   - not to solicit their staff &/or customers during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to compete with your former employer during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to disparage your former employer.

   Such confidential information or property may include any document or materials (whether in hard or electronic form) developed or created by you or with your assistance during your former employment.

   Where you are subject to a non-solicitation or non-compete clause, you must abide by these, and make sure that your line manager and Human Resources are aware of the relevant restrictions prior to commencing employment.

   If you have a non-solicitation clause concerning your former employer's staff/employees, you should not, until the non-solicitation clause has expired, refer any former colleagues to UBS and nor will such former colleagues be eligible for referral through UBS's iHire programme.

2. Even if your employment contract with your former employer is silent on your duties of confidentiality, general law is likely to impose duties of confidentiality and fidelity on you not to use or disclose your former employers' confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets to any third party, including your new employer.

3. It is important to note that your obligations of confidentiality and fidelity towards your former employer can continue even after you leave their employment.

   - any breach of contractual duties (such as non-solicitation of staff of former employer or non-compete clauses) or applicable laws and regulations by our staff.

5. A breach of your duties and obligations renders you liable at law to your former employer(s) and/or third parties and may jeopardize your employment at UBS. Furthermore, such breach could subject UBS to potential legal liability, regulatory censures or penalties, and serious reputational damage.

6. Examples of what you CAN and CANNOT bring with you

   YES, you may use in the course of employment with UBS:
   - Information from your previous employers that is freely available in the public domain
   - skills, experience, general know-how or commercial knowledge acquired from your previous employment

   - confidential information or trade secrets belonging to or claimed by your former employer(s).

   Please take note that the above serves merely to illustrate and is not exhaustive. Your exact duties and obligations owed to your former employer(s) depend on your former role and responsibilities, the construction of your employment contract and on the general laws of the jurisdiction in which you were employed. If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

Group Functions incentive approach

A simplified incentive approach applies to employees in Group Functions with Employee (EE) and Authorized Officer (AO) ranks. Here's what you need to know.

What is the incentive approach?

- All employees in Group Functions with EE and AO ranks are eligible for an incentive (bonus) that is a target percentage[1] of the employee's salary.
- The incentive can be expected to be around half of a month's salary in any given year[2]. In a strong performance year, the incentive can be higher than that.
- All EEs and AOs are eligible; those with a meets most expectations (2) rating or higher in their performance evaluation can generally anticipate an incentive.
- Incentive decisions remain at the firm's discretion and the level (target percentage) is based on the firm's overall performance for the year.

Why are Group Functions EEs and AOs part of this approach?

- Group Functions pay is closely linked to Group performance and less volatile than front office functions. Additionally, compensation models like this are relatively common for back-office functions in other industries.
- We are protecting employees' compensation by eliminating the downside in cases of weak Group performance, while retaining the upside in strong performance years.

How is individual performance rewarded?

- The firm is committed to rewarding strong individual performance.
- Individual performance is considered by focusing on career development and by pay for performance – with salary reviews, training and development opportunities and promotions.

Are discretionary change requests allowed?

- No. The new incentive model applies to all EEs and AOs in Group Functions;[2] no individual exceptions are accepted.

Are employees who are nominated for promotion to AD also part of this model?

- Yes, all employees with EE or AO rank are part of this model, independent of their promotion status.

Are EEs and AOs still eligible for a salary increase?

- Yes. All employees are eligible to be considered for salary increases each year as part of the regular annual process.

How is the incentive calculated?

- The incentive is a percentage of the annual gross salary at 31 December. Any salary changes through the year are not considered.
- If applicable, the incentive is adjusted for hire date, leave of absence, part-time work and/or changes to average FTE that year.
  - For example, if someone joins on 1 April, the incentive will be pro-rated for the day of hire.
  - The incentive will be adjusted to the average FTE for the year, so if someone worked 100% for six months and 50% for the other six months, the average FTE would be 75%.
  - The incentive for employees who took a leave of absence in a year will be adjusted based on the duration of the absence, according to global guidance and following local employment laws.

What if an employee changes location during the year?

- The effective salary date is 31 December. Salaries from different locations will not be aggregated to calculate the incentive.
- Employees transferring from a high cost to a low cost location will be individually reviewed by HR.

Are internal transfers from front-office areas to Group Functions also part of this model?

- Yes, their incentive is based on the same approach as other Group Functions EEs and AOs.
- Their compensation should be reviewed before the transfer takes place to assess any implications for their incentive and total compensation level.

7 Total Employment Cost

7.1 Salary

Your annual Total Employment Cost (TEC) will be INR500,000/-. Your annual basic salary will be INR250,000/-, which will be paid in 12 instalments of INR20,833/- per month.

7.2 Employer Provident Fund Contribution

12% of your monthly basic salary will be paid to the Provident Fund each month.

7.3 Basket Allowance

The remaining balance of Total Employment Cost (TEC) of INR220,000/- per annum will form the Basket Allowance, which may include allowances related to housing rent, car running and maintenance, driver's wages, and/or leave travel allowance, in accordance with applicable laws. You will be invited to indicate your preference as to the planned allocation of this Basket Allowance.

7.4 Whilst it is the current policy of the Firm that total employment cost is reviewed annually, any increment is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm and you acknowledge that any such review may not result in any increase to your TEC.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 7 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. Where the non-shift role is temporary, your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will resume on the date on which the shift role resumes.

Any changes to working hours and/or shifts should only take effect from the 1st of the month.

The Firm reserves the right to amend, modify or withdraw the "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift" and/or to withdraw the Shift Allowance and/or to vary the amount of the Shift Allowance at its discretion from time to time and you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

UBS

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

10 Tax and other Payments

10.1 The Firm shall be entitled to deduct and withhold any and all taxes and imposts as required by law. You will be solely and personally liable for declaring and paying all taxes and imposts relating to your employment as required by law.

10.2 You will be required to make any necessary employee contributions to the Provident Fund which will be deducted from your monthly basic salary.

11 Relocation

In connection with your acceptance of this offer of employment and required relocation from Agra to Hyderabad, you will be provided with the following core benefits:

The Firm will provide a one-off payment of INR200,000/- to cover transportation, movement of house hold goods and one month temp accommodation that might be incurred in the process of transferring to your new location. The Firm will bear the tax costs associated with this payment. This payment will be made in the month of your successful relocation.

Please note that the benefits listed above are the benefits you are eligible for in connection with your relocation and no other reimbursements will be made to you in relation to any other expenses incurred by you.

If you do not commence employment, or your employment is terminated for any reason except redundancy, disability or death within 12 months from the Date of Commencement, the Firm will have the right to require you to repay the total of the above relocation costs (including any tax liability paid on your behalf) ('total relocation costs') and/or to deduct a sum up to or equal to amount of the total relocation costs from any sum owed by UBS to you, and you hereby authorise the Firm to make any such deduction.

12 Benefits

You will be entitled to participate in all of the Firm's benefit plans as established from time to time, at such times as you qualify for them or, as the case may be, as you are selected for participation in them. The Firm reserves the right to amend, discontinue or withdraw such benefit plans in its sole and absolute discretion. Please refer to the Firm's Employee Handbook for further details.

13.1 During your probation period, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving 7 days' notice of termination.

(d) going on or abetting a strike in contravention of any law;
(c) causing damage to the property of the Firm; and/or
(e) breach of confidentiality/secrecy provisions set out in this Agreement.

13.4 After the completion of your probationary period, except in the case of termination for cause under paragraph 13.2 which requires no notice or payment in lieu of notice, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving three months' notice of termination (in the case of Directors, Executive Directors and Managing Directors) or two months' notice of termination (in all other cases).

You acknowledge and agree that such notice (or payment in lieu thereof) is reasonable notice of termination and no other notice requirements express or implied by law shall apply.

13.5 At any time, including during any period of notice provided for in this paragraph 13, the Firm may elect to make payment of wages in lieu of all or part of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, only the Firm has the right to terminate this Agreement by making payment in lieu of notice and you can terminate this Agreement only by providing notice in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and not by making payment in lieu of notice.

13.6 You may not offset the notice period by any vacation leave that has not been taken. However, the Firm may direct you to take annual leave at any time to the extent permitted by law.

13.7 Termination of your employment under this paragraph 13 would be without prejudice to:
(a) the Firm's right to claim the actual damages it has suffered through the breach on your part of any of the responsibilities or obligations in this Agreement; and
(b) any other relief to which the Firm may be entitled under contract, law or equity.

13.8 The Firm's decision as to the termination of your services or employment shall be final and legally binding on you.

13.9 As and when required by the Firm (and in any event upon the cessation of your employment for whatever reason), you shall resign from all offices held by you with the Firm or any Group Company without any claims for compensation for loss of office.

13.10 Following the termination of your employment, you agree that you will be willing to assist the Firm or any other Group Company in respect of any dispute, internal or external investigation or enquiry or any actual or potential litigation (whether civil or criminal) with which the Firm or such Group Company may be involved and in respect of which you might reasonably be expected to have knowledge, including but not limited to assisting in preparing witness statements and attending at court to give evidence.

13.11 Following the termination of your employment, you shall not represent yourself or hold yourself out as being employed by the Firm or any Group Company. You shall take appropriate steps within seven (7) days of your Termination Date to ensure any social media accounts and external profiles which you may have are updated to accurately reflect the cessation of your employment with the Firm and/or any relevant Group Company.

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, during such period of paid leave, the Firm shall be under no obligation to vest in or assign to you any duties or work or require you to appear at work. 20.6 You may not use any Intellectual Property Rights or Works in any way other than for the purposes of performing your duties in the interests of the Firm unless you obtain proper written permission from the Firm to do otherwise.

20.7 You agree not to do any act or omit to do any act during your employment with the Firm or at any time thereafter to affect or imperil the validity of any Intellectual Property Rights obtained, applied for or to be applied for by the Firm or its nominee. In particular, you shall not disclose the subject matter of any inventions which may be patentable in such a way that could jeopardize the interests of the Firm in such inventions or that could impair the right of the Firm to apply for a patent for such inventions. You agree that any Intellectual Property Right that was made, conceived or suggested by you, either solely or jointly with others, within one (1) year following termination of your employment with the Firm and that pertains to any Confidential Information or business activity of the Firm will be presumed to have been made, conceived or suggested in the course of your employment and with the use of the time, materials or facilities of the Firm.

20.8 You agree and undertake that all Intellectual Property Rights and Works created by you shall not infringe any rights of any third party (including but not limited to contractual or intellectual property rights) or put the Firm or any Group Company into disrepute, and shall be original.

Consequently, you consent to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions of these provisions.

28 Variation

The Firm reserves the right to vary any of the terms and conditions of your employment at any time to the extent permitted by applicable law in its reasonable discretion.

If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

Group Functions incentive approach

A simplified incentive approach applies to employees in Group Functions with Employee (EE) and Authorized Officer (AO) ranks. Here's what you need to know.

What is the incentive approach?

- All employees in Group Functions with EE and AO ranks are eligible for an incentive (bonus) that is a target percentage[1] of the employee's salary.
- The incentive can be expected to be around half of a month's salary in any given year[2]. In a strong performance year, the incentive can be higher than that.
- All EEs and AOs are eligible; those with a meets most expectations (2) rating or higher in their performance evaluation can generally anticipate an incentive.
- Incentive decisions remain at the firm's discretion and the level (target percentage) is based on the firm's overall performance for the year.

Why are Group Functions EEs and AOs part of this approach?

- Group Functions pay is closely linked to Group performance and less volatile than front office functions. Additionally, compensation models like this are relatively common for back-office functions in other industries.
- We are protecting employees' compensation by eliminating the downside in cases of weak Group performance, while retaining the upside in strong performance years.

How is individual performance rewarded?

- The firm is committed to rewarding strong individual performance.
- Individual performance is considered by focusing on career development and by pay for performance – with salary reviews, training and development opportunities and promotions.

Are discretionary change requests allowed?

- No. The new incentive model applies to all EEs and AOs in Group Functions;[2] no individual exceptions are accepted.

Are employees who are nominated for promotion to AD also part of this model?

- Yes, all employees with EE or AO rank are part of this model, independent of their promotion status.

Are EEs and AOs still eligible for a salary increase?

- Yes. All employees are eligible to be considered for salary increases each year as part of the regular annual process.

How is the incentive calculated?

- The incentive is a percentage of the annual gross salary at 31 December. Any salary changes through the year are not considered.
- If applicable, the incentive is adjusted for hire date, leave of absence, part-time work and/or changes to average FTE that year.
  - For example, if someone joins on 1 April, the incentive will be pro-rated for the day of hire.
  - The incentive will be adjusted to the average FTE for the year, so if someone worked 100% for six months and 50% for the other six months, the average FTE would be 75%.
  - The incentive for employees who took a leave of absence in a year will be adjusted based on the duration of the absence, according to global guidance and following local employment laws.

What if an employee changes location during the year?

- The effective salary date is 31 December. Salaries from different locations will not be aggregated to calculate the incentive.
- Employees transferring from a high cost to a low cost location will be individually reviewed by HR.

Are internal transfers from front-office areas to Group Functions also part of this model?

- Yes, their incentive is based on the same approach as other Group Functions EEs and AOs.
- Their compensation should be reviewed before the transfer takes place to assess any implications for their incentive and total compensation level.

Notes:
[1] For a full working year; pro-rated for new joiners, bonus eligibility criteria (e.g., in case of termination) apply.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

10 Tax and other Payments

10.1 The Firm shall be entitled to deduct and withhold any and all taxes and imposts as required by law. You will be solely and personally liable for declaring and paying all taxes and imposts relating to your employment as required by law.

10.2 You will be required to make any necessary employee contributions to the Provident Fund which will be deducted from your monthly basic salary.

11 Relocation

In connection with your acceptance of this offer of employment and required relocation from Chandigarh to Pune, you will be provided with the following core benefits:

The Firm will provide a one-off payment of INR200,000/- to cover transportation, movement of house hold goods and one month temp accommodation that might be incurred in the process of transferring to your new location. The Firm will bear the tax costs associated with this payment. This payment will be made in the month of your successful relocation.

Please note that the benefits listed above are the benefits you are eligible for in connection with your relocation and no other reimbursements will be made to you in relation to any other expenses incurred by you.

If you do not commence employment, or your employment is terminated for any reason except redundancy, disability or death within 12 months from the Date of Commencement, the Firm will have the right to require you to repay the total of the above relocation costs (including any tax liability paid on your behalf) ('total relocation costs') and/or to deduct a sum up to or equal to amount of the total relocation costs from any sum owed by UBS to you, and you hereby authorise the Firm to make any such deduction.

12 Benefits

You will be entitled to participate in all of the Firm's benefit plans as established from time to time, at such times as you qualify for them or, as the case may be, as you are selected for participation in them. The Firm reserves the right to amend, discontinue or withdraw such benefit plans in its sole and absolute discretion. Please refer to the Firm's Employee Handbook for further details.

13 Termination

13.1 During your probation period, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving 7 days' notice of termination.

(e) breach of confidentiality/secrecy provisions set out in this Agreement.

13.4 After the completion of your probationary period, except in the case of termination for cause under paragraph 13.2 which requires no notice or payment in lieu of notice, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving three months' notice of termination (in the case of Directors, Executive Directors and Managing Directors) or two months' notice of termination (in the case of Associate Directors and Authorized Officers) or one month's notice of termination (in all other cases).

You acknowledge and agree that such notice (or payment in lieu thereof) is reasonable notice of termination and no other notice requirements express or implied by law shall apply.

13.5 At any time, including during any period of notice provided for in this paragraph 13, the Firm may elect to make payment of wages in lieu of all or part of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, only the Firm has the right to terminate this Agreement by making payment in lieu of notice and you can terminate this Agreement only by providing notice in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and not by making payment in lieu of notice.

13.6 You may not offset the notice period by any vacation leave that has not been taken. However, the Firm may direct you to take annual leave at any time to the extent permitted by law.

13.7 Termination of your employment under this paragraph 13 would be without prejudice to:
(a) the Firm's right to claim the actual damages it has suffered through the breach on your part of any of the responsibilities or obligations in this Agreement; and
(b) any other relief to which the Firm may be entitled under contract, law or equity.

13.8 The Firm's decision as to the termination of your services or employment shall be final and legally binding on you.

13.9 As and when required by the Firm (and in any event upon the cessation of your employment for whatever reason), you shall resign from all offices held by you with the Firm or any Group Company without any claims for compensation for loss of office.

13.10 Following the termination of your employment, you agree that you will be willing to assist the Firm or any other Group Company in respect of any dispute, internal or external investigation or enquiry or any actual or potential litigation (whether civil or criminal) with which the Firm or such Group Company may be involved and in respect of which you might reasonably be expected to have knowledge, including but not limited to assisting in preparing witness statements and attending at court to give evidence.

13.11 Following the termination of your employment, you shall not represent yourself or hold yourself out as being employed by the Firm or any Group Company. You shall take appropriate steps within seven (7) days of your Termination Date to ensure any social media accounts and external profiles which you may have are updated to accurately reflect the cessation of your employment with the Firm and/or any relevant Group Company.

14 Garden / Paid Leave

14.1 During the period of notice as provided for in paragraph 13 above or for any reason during your employment, the Firm may place you on any period of paid leave on full pay and contractual benefits (except that you are not entitled to performance incentives in respect of such period) and exclude you from the Firm's premises and/or remove your access to the Firm's systems. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, during such period of paid leave, the Firm shall be under no obligation to vest in or assign to you any duties or work or require you to appear at work. You will remain bound by all of the express and implied obligations arising out of your employment with the Firm, including the obligations of good faith.

19.1 The operations of the Firm involve all employees having knowledge of or access to information (which may include commercially sensitive information) important to and relating to the business of the Firm or any other Group Company or any clients, employees, consultants, or officers thereof or their affairs, which includes but is not limited to information regarding the Firm's business affairs, operations, products, processes, methodologies, plans, intentions, projections, know-how, Intellectual Property Rights, trade secrets, drawings, inventions, discoveries, designs, techniques, improvements, market opportunities, suppliers and vendors, clients, marketing activities, records, finances and personnel, any documents marked "confidential" (or a similar expression), any information which employees have been told is of a confidential nature or which might reasonably be expected by the Firm or any other Group Company to be regarded as confidential, or any information which has been given to the Firm or any other Group Company in confidence (the "Confidential Information").

All information which is made available, obtained or created by you during your duties that is not already obviously public knowledge or publicly available information (through no breach of any obligation of confidentiality by you or any third party) is Confidential Information.

It is the responsibility and obligation of all employees to ensure and preserve the confidentiality and non-disclosure of the Confidential Information and maintain the highest professional standards to ensure that all Confidential Information is kept confidential and secret and is properly and professionally handled to protect the Firm's commercial interests and to ensure compliance with regulatory and legal requirements. Failure to follow these principles will jeopardize the Firm's reputation and business.

19.2 In addition to and without altering any legal obligation (that you already have or to which you become subject) to keep the Confidential Information confidential, you agree not to use, retain, remove, destroy, transmit, disclose or communicate any Confidential Information to any third party outside of the Firm (except for the purpose of properly performing your duties for the Firm or unless required to do so by law or any regulatory or investigative authority or unless authorized to do so by your line manager or senior officer) either during the course of your employment or after it has ended, whether deliberately or otherwise. Furthermore, you shall not use any Confidential Information known to you or reconstruct or reproduce any Confidential Information.

19.3 You may not use any Confidential Information in any way other than for performance of your duties to the Firm. For example, Confidential Information must not be used to trade on your own account or for trading by other persons (such as family and friends). You shall at all times comply with the requirements of the UBS Group's Policy on Personal Account Dealing.

19.4 On or before the cessation of your employment with the Firm or as and when required by the Firm, you must return or surrender to the Firm all Confidential Information (including any copies thereof) without retaining it in any form, as well as any and all documents, data, manuals and other material (whether in hard or electronic form) either prepared, received or accessed by you during your employment at the Firm comprising or containing all or any part of the Confidential Information, together with any security keys and other items which are the Firm's property and in your possession or under your control.

19.6 You agree that the terms of this Agreement are strictly private and confidential and you shall not disclose the existence of this Agreement, or the contents herein to anyone, except your immediate family, accountants and legal advisors, and only upon their agreement not to disclose to another person or entity, any information relating to the existence and/or contents of this Agreement, except to the extent required by legal process.

19.7 In this paragraph 19, "Firm" shall include each and every member of the UBS Group.

20 Intellectual Property

20.1 All Intellectual Property Rights are, upon creation, the property of the Firm unless such rights cannot be owned by the Firm under applicable laws.

20.2 You shall promptly disclose and deliver to the Firm upon creation full details of all designs, inventions, works of authorship and other works in which Intellectual Property Rights subsist, conceived or created by you in the context of the Firm's business or related activities, or within the scope of employment, or by using the Firm's time, materials, facilities, or information (the "Works"). All such Works, whether or not protectable under the Copyright Act, 1957, or any other statute for the time being in force, will be considered a "work made in the course of the author's employment" under Section 17 of the Copyright Act, 1957 or other statutes in force. Ownership of any and all Intellectual Property Rights in any and all such Works will belong to the Firm. In the event any portion of the Works is deemed not to be a "work made in the course of the author's employment" for any reason, you hereby assign, convey, transfer and grant, and agree to assign, convey, transfer, and grant to the Firm all of your rights, title, and interest in and to the Works and any Intellectual Property Rights therein, and agree to cooperate with the Firm in the execution of appropriate instruments assigning and evidencing such ownership rights hereunder, which obligation shall survive termination of your employment with the Firm.

20.3 You hereby assign to the Firm (to the extent not already vested in the Firm by operation of law) and on an exclusive and irrevocable basis all present and future Intellectual Property Rights (including in or relating to the Works) for their full terms around the world. You shall cooperate with the Firm with respect to the procurement and enforcement of such Intellectual Property Rights and Works. You confirm that the provisions of Section 19(4) of the Copyright Act, 1957 shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

20.4 Insofar as you are able, you waive and agree not to assert and/or exercise any moral rights you may have in the Works and voluntarily and unconditionally consent to all or any acts or omissions by the Firm or persons authorized by the Firm, which would otherwise infringe your moral rights in the Works.

20.5 You hereby:

(a) agree to give and supply, at the request and expense of the Firm, all such information and assistance that the Firm may deem appropriate to enable the Firm to use the Works to its best advantage and to register the Firm or its nominee as owner and beneficiary of the Works; and perfect, record or register the assignment of, or to protect or enforce all or any of the rights, title or interest assigned or granted or proposed to be assigned or granted to the Firm under this Agreement in any jurisdiction. You also agree that, if you fail to perform any act or execute any document aforesaid following 14 days' notice from the Firm, the Firm shall have the right to do so in your place and stead as your lawfully appointed attorney and you hereby confirm, and ratify and agree to be bound by any and all actions of the Firm pursuant to this paragraph and such authority and appointment shall take effect as an irrevocable appointment.

20.6 You may not use any Intellectual Property Rights or Works in any way other than for the purposes of performing your duties in the interests of the Firm unless you obtain proper written permission from the Firm to do otherwise.

20.7 You agree not to do any act or omit to do any act during your employment with the Firm or at any time thereafter to affect or imperil the validity of any Intellectual Property Rights obtained, applied for or to be applied for by the Firm or its nominee. In particular, you shall not disclose the subject matter of any inventions which may be patentable in such a way that could jeopardize the interests of the Firm in such inventions or that could impair the right of the Firm to apply for a patent for such inventions. You agree that any Intellectual Property Right that was made, conceived or suggested by you, either solely or jointly with others, within one (1) year following termination of your employment with the Firm and that pertains to any Confidential Information or business activity of the Firm will be presumed to have been made, conceived or suggested in the course of your employment and with the use of the time, materials or facilities of the Firm.

20.8 You agree and undertake that all Intellectual Property Rights and Works created by you shall not infringe any rights of any third party (including but not limited to contractual or intellectual property rights) or put the Firm or any Group Company into disrepute, and shall be original.

20.9 As used herein,

"Firm" shall include each and every member of the UBS Group where the context so requires; and

"Intellectual Property Rights" means any and all intellectual property and industrial property and/or proprietary rights which are created by you or with your assistance in connection with your employment with the Firm (whether or not made, devised or discovered during working hours or using the Firm's premises or resources) including but not limited to patents and rights in inventions (whether patentable or not and whether patent protection has been applied for or granted), all improvements thereto, developments, and discoveries; trademarks or service marks, trade dress, logos, trade and business/corporate names, and all associated goodwill symbolized by any of the foregoing, protection from trademark dilution, and rights to sue for passing off or unfair competition; copyrightable works, copyrights, moral rights, and related rights; designs (whether or not registrable and whether or not design rights subsist in them); copyright in computer software (including all data and source code and related documentation), rights in databases; rights in information, including know-how, technical information, trade secrets, proprietary information, and Confidential Information; websites; work products; other proprietary rights including Internet domain names, logos, art work, slogans, processes, utility models; and all other similar or equivalent rights subsisting now or in the future, in each case whether registered or unregistered, legal or beneficial, including all applications for, and renewals or extensions of such rights for their full term.

However, all such regulations, policies and procedures do not and shall not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract with the Firm.

23 Warranties and Undertakings

23.1 You represent and warrant that:

(a) you have no previous criminal convictions and are not the subject of any investigation which may lead to a criminal conviction in India or elsewhere and no consent is required from any jurisdictional regulator including the Securities Exchange Board of India or Reserve Bank of India or any other regulator for your employment with the Firm;

(b) you have not been reprimanded or otherwise disciplined nor are currently being investigated by any regulatory or professional body in India and elsewhere including, but not limited to, Securities Exchange Board of India;

(f) all necessary approvals or consents or any other actions that are required by law or regulations to be obtained or undertaken for the purposes of the execution of this Agreement and the performance of your duties hereunder have been obtained and/or undertaken.

23.2 Any breach of any of the warranties and undertakings set out in this paragraph 23 may give rise to grounds for instant dismissal and/or cancellations/annulments of this Agreement to the extent permitted under applicable laws.

24 Non-Disparagement

You agree that during the course of your employment and after its cessation (for whatever reason) you will not make, publish or issue (or authorise or permit the making, publication or issuing of) any disparaging or derogatory statement whether oral or written concerning the Firm or any other Group Company or any of its or their current or former employees, agents, directors or officers, or act in any manner which would or might bring the Firm or any other Group Company into disrepute.

25 Background and Reference Checks

25.1 The offer of employment contained in this Agreement is subject to verification of the details provided by you in your curriculum vitae, employment application form, personal data form and any other information provided by you in the course of your application for employment.

25.2 This offer is also subject to the completion of the Firm's background screening process to the satisfaction of the Firm (as determined in the Firm's sole discretion). The Firm and you mutually acknowledge that it may be difficult to ascertain the exact amount of damages for violation of these provisions, but that damages would be of a continuing nature and that the Firm would suffer irreparable harm and injury by reason of such violations. Consequently, you consent to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions of these provisions.

28 Variation

The Firm reserves the right to vary any of the terms and conditions of your employment at any time to the extent permitted by applicable law in its reasonable discretion.

29 Right to Withhold or Set-off

   - return property belonging to your former employer when you leave; and/or
   - not to solicit their staff &/or customers during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to compete with your former employer during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to disparage your former employer.

   Such confidential information or property may include any document or materials (whether in hard or electronic form) developed or created by you or with your assistance during your former employment.

   Where you are subject to a non-solicitation or non-compete clause, you must abide by these, and make sure that your line manager and Human Resources are aware of the relevant restrictions prior to commencing employment.

   If you have a non-solicitation clause concerning your former employer's staff/employees, you should not, until the non-solicitation clause has expired, refer any former colleagues to UBS and nor will such former colleagues be eligible for referral through UBS's iHire programme.

2. Even if your employment contract with your former employer is silent on your duties of confidentiality, general law is likely to impose duties of confidentiality and fidelity on you not to use or disclose your former employers' confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets to any third party, including your new employer.

3. It is important to note that your obligations of confidentiality and fidelity towards your former employer can continue even after you leave their employment.

   - any breach of contractual duties (such as non-solicitation of staff of former employer or non-compete clauses) or applicable laws and regulations by our staff.

5. A breach of your duties and obligations renders you liable at law to your former employer(s) and/or third parties and may jeopardize your employment at UBS. Furthermore, such breach could subject UBS to potential legal liability, regulatory censures or penalties, and serious reputational damage.

6. Examples of what you CAN and CANNOT bring with you

   YES, you may use in the course of employment with UBS:
   - Information from your previous employers that is freely available in the public domain
   - skills, experience, general know-how or commercial knowledge acquired from your previous employment

   - Proprietary documents or materials belonging to your former employer(s); and/or
   - confidential information or trade secrets belonging to or claimed by your former employer(s).

   Please take note that the above serves merely to illustrate and is not exhaustive. Your exact duties and obligations owed to your former employer(s) depend on your former role and responsibilities, the construction of your employment contract and on the general laws of the jurisdiction in which you were employed. If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

Group Functions incentive approach

A simplified incentive approach applies to employees in Group Functions with Employee (EE) and Authorized Officer (AO) ranks. Here's what you need to know.

What is the incentive approach?

- All employees in Group Functions with EE and AO ranks are eligible for an incentive (bonus) that is a target percentage[1] of the employee's salary.
- The incentive can be expected to be around half of a month's salary in any given year[2]. In a strong performance year, the incentive can be higher than that.
- All EEs and AOs are eligible; those with a meets most expectations (2) rating or higher in their performance evaluation can generally anticipate an incentive.
- Incentive decisions remain at the firm's discretion and the level (target percentage) is based on the firm's overall performance for the year.

Why are Group Functions EEs and AOs part of this approach?

- Group Functions pay is closely linked to Group performance and less volatile than front office functions. Additionally, compensation models like this are relatively common for back-office functions in other industries.
- We are protecting employees' compensation by eliminating the downside in cases of weak Group performance, while retaining the upside in strong performance years.

How is individual performance rewarded?

- The firm is committed to rewarding strong individual performance.
- Individual performance is considered by focusing on career development and by pay for performance – with salary reviews, training and development opportunities and promotions.

Are discretionary change requests allowed?

- No. The new incentive model applies to all EEs and AOs in Group Functions;[2] no individual exceptions are accepted.

Are employees who are nominated for promotion to AD also part of this model?

- Yes, all employees with EE or AO rank are part of this model, independent of their promotion status.

Are EEs and AOs still eligible for a salary increase?

- Yes. All employees are eligible to be considered for salary increases each year as part of the regular annual process.

How is the incentive calculated?

- The incentive is a percentage of the annual gross salary at 31 December. Any salary changes through the year are not considered.
- If applicable, the incentive is adjusted for hire date, leave of absence, part-time work and/or changes to average FTE that year.
  - For example, if someone joins on 1 April, the incentive will be pro-rated for the day of hire.
  - The incentive will be adjusted to the average FTE for the year, so if someone worked 100% for six months and 50% for the other six months, the average FTE would be 75%.
  - The incentive for employees who took a leave of absence in a year will be adjusted based on the duration of the absence, according to global guidance and following local employment laws.

What if an employee changes location during the year?

- The effective salary date is 31 December. Salaries from different locations will not be aggregated to calculate the incentive.
- Employees transferring from a high cost to a low cost location will be individually reviewed by HR.

Are internal transfers from front-office areas to Group Functions also part of this model?

- Yes, their incentive is based on the same approach as other Group Functions EEs and AOs.
- Their compensation should be reviewed before the transfer takes place to assess any implications for their incentive and total compensation level.

7 Total Employment Cost

7.1 Salary

Your annual Total Employment Cost (TEC) will be INR500,000/-. Your annual basic salary will be INR250,000/-, which will be paid in 12 instalments of INR20,833/- per month.

7.2 Employer Provident Fund Contribution

12% of your monthly basic salary will be paid to the Provident Fund each month.

7.3 Basket Allowance

The remaining balance of Total Employment Cost (TEC) of INR220,000/- per annum will form the Basket Allowance, which may include allowances related to housing rent, car running and maintenance, driver's wages, and/or leave travel allowance, in accordance with applicable laws. You will be invited to indicate your preference as to the planned allocation of this Basket Allowance.

7.4 Whilst it is the current policy of the Firm that total employment cost is reviewed annually, any increment is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm and you acknowledge that any such review may not result in any increase to your TEC.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 0 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. Where the non-shift role is temporary, your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will resume on the date on which the shift role resumes.

Any changes to working hours and/or shifts should only take effect from the 1st of the month.

The Firm reserves the right to amend, modify or withdraw the "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift" and/or to withdraw the Shift Allowance and/or to vary the amount of the Shift Allowance at its discretion from time to time and you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

UBS

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

10 Tax and other Payments

10.1 The Firm shall be entitled to deduct and withhold any and all taxes and imposts as required by law. You will be solely and personally liable for declaring and paying all taxes and imposts relating to your employment as required by law.

10.2 You will be required to make any necessary employee contributions to the Provident Fund which will be deducted from your monthly basic salary.

11 Relocation

In connection with your acceptance of this offer of employment and required relocation from Lucknow to Pune, you will be provided with the following core benefits:

The Firm will provide a one-off payment of INR200,000/- to cover transportation, movement of house hold goods and one month temp accommodation that might be incurred in the process of transferring to your new location. The Firm will bear the tax costs associated with this payment. This payment will be made in the month of your successful relocation.

Please note that the benefits listed above are the benefits you are eligible for in connection with your relocation and no other reimbursements will be made to you in relation to any other expenses incurred by you.

If you do not commence employment, or your employment is terminated for any reason except redundancy, disability or death within 12 months from the Date of Commencement, the Firm will have the right to require you to repay the total of the above relocation costs (including any tax liability paid on your behalf) ('total relocation costs') and/or to deduct a sum up to or equal to amount of the total relocation costs from any sum owed by UBS to you, and you hereby authorise the Firm to make any such deduction.

12 Benefits

You will be entitled to participate in all of the Firm's benefit plans as established from time to time, at such times as you qualify for them or, as the case may be, as you are selected for participation in them. The Firm reserves the right to amend, discontinue or withdraw such benefit plans in its sole and absolute discretion. Please refer to the Firm's Employee Handbook for further details.

You acknowledge and agree that such notice (or payment in lieu thereof) is reasonable notice of termination and no other notice requirements express or implied by law shall apply.

13.5 At any time, including during any period of notice provided for in this paragraph 13, the Firm may elect to make payment of wages in lieu of all or part of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, only the Firm has the right to terminate this Agreement by making payment in lieu of notice and you can terminate this Agreement only by providing notice in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and not by making payment in lieu of notice.

13.6 You may not offset the notice period by any vacation leave that has not been taken. However, the Firm may direct you to take annual leave at any time to the extent permitted by law.

13.7 Termination of your employment under this paragraph 13 would be without prejudice to:
(a) the Firm's right to claim the actual damages it has suffered through the breach on your part of any of the responsibilities or obligations in this Agreement; and
(b) any other relief to which the Firm may be entitled under contract, law or equity.

13.8 The Firm's decision as to the termination of your services or employment shall be final and legally binding on you.

In particular, you shall not disclose the subject matter of any inventions which may be patentable in such a way that could jeopardize the interests of the Firm in such inventions or that could impair the right of the Firm to apply for a patent for such inventions. Furthermore, such breach could subject UBS to potential legal liability, regulatory censures or penalties, and serious reputational damage.

6. Examples of what you CAN and CANNOT bring with you

If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

Group Functions incentive approach

A simplified incentive approach applies to employees in Group Functions with Employee (EE) and Authorized Officer (AO) ranks. Here's what you need to know.

What is the incentive approach?

- All employees in Group Functions with EE and AO ranks are eligible for an incentive (bonus) that is a target percentage[1] of the employee's salary.
- The incentive can be expected to be around half of a month's salary in any given year[2]. In a strong performance year, the incentive can be higher than that.
- All EEs and AOs are eligible; those with a meets most expectations (2) rating or higher in their performance evaluation can generally anticipate an incentive.
- Incentive decisions remain at the firm's discretion and the level (target percentage) is based on the firm's overall performance for the year.

Why are Group Functions EEs and AOs part of this approach?

- Group Functions pay is closely linked to Group performance and less volatile than front office functions. Additionally, compensation models like this are relatively common for back-office functions in other industries.
- We are protecting employees' compensation by eliminating the downside in cases of weak Group performance, while retaining the upside in strong performance years.

How is individual performance rewarded?

- The firm is committed to rewarding strong individual performance.
- Individual performance is considered by focusing on career development and by pay for performance – with salary reviews, training and development opportunities and promotions.

Are discretionary change requests allowed?

- No. The new incentive model applies to all EEs and AOs in Group Functions;[2] no individual exceptions are accepted.

Are employees who are nominated for promotion to AD also part of this model?

- Yes, all employees with EE or AO rank are part of this model, independent of their promotion status.

Are EEs and AOs still eligible for a salary increase?

- Yes. All employees are eligible to be considered for salary increases each year as part of the regular annual process.

How is the incentive calculated?

- The incentive is a percentage of the annual gross salary at 31 December. Any salary changes through the year are not considered.
- If applicable, the incentive is adjusted for hire date, leave of absence, part-time work and/or changes to average FTE that year.
  - For example, if someone joins on 1 April, the incentive will be pro-rated for the day of hire.
  - The incentive will be adjusted to the average FTE for the year, so if someone worked 100% for six months and 50% for the other six months, the average FTE would be 75%.
  - The incentive for employees who took a leave of absence in a year will be adjusted based on the duration of the absence, according to global guidance and following local employment laws.

What if an employee changes location during the year?

- The effective salary date is 31 December. Salaries from different locations will not be aggregated to calculate the incentive.
- Employees transferring from a high cost to a low cost location will be individually reviewed by HR.

Are internal transfers from front-office areas to Group Functions also part of this model?

- Yes, their incentive is based on the same approach as other Group Functions EEs and AOs.
- Their compensation should be reviewed before the transfer takes place to assess any implications for their incentive and total compensation level.

Notes:
[1] For a full working year; pro-rated for new joiners, bonus eligibility criteria (e.g., in case of termination) apply.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 7 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

UBS

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

13.4 After the completion of your probationary period, except in the case of termination for cause under paragraph 13.2 which requires no notice or payment in lieu of notice, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving three months' notice of termination (in the case of Directors, Executive Directors and Managing Directors) or two months' notice of termination (in all other cases).

You acknowledge and agree that such notice (or payment in lieu thereof) is reasonable notice of termination and no other notice requirements express or implied by law shall apply.

13.5 At any time, including during any period of notice provided for in this paragraph 13, the Firm may elect to make payment of wages in lieu of all or part of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, only the Firm has the right to terminate this Agreement by making payment in lieu of notice and you can terminate this Agreement only by providing notice in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and not by making payment in lieu of notice.

13.6 You may not offset the notice period by any vacation leave that has not been taken. However, the Firm may direct you to take annual leave at any time to the extent permitted by law.

13.7 Termination of your employment under this paragraph 13 would be without prejudice to:
(a) the Firm's right to claim the actual damages it has suffered through the breach on your part of any of the responsibilities or obligations in this Agreement; and
(b) any other relief to which the Firm may be entitled under contract, law or equity.

13.8 The Firm's decision as to the termination of your services or employment shall be final and legally binding on you.

13.10 Following the termination of your employment, you agree that you will be willing to assist the Firm or any other Group Company in respect of any dispute, internal or external investigation or enquiry or any actual or potential litigation (whether civil or criminal) with which the Firm or such Group Company may be involved and in respect of which you might reasonably be expected to have knowledge, including but not limited to assisting in preparing witness statements and attending at court to give evidence.

13.11 Following the termination of your employment, you shall not represent yourself or hold yourself out as being employed by the Firm or any Group Company. You shall take appropriate steps within seven (7) days of your Termination Date to ensure any social media accounts and external profiles which you may have are updated to accurately reflect the cessation of your employment with the Firm and/or any relevant Group Company.

14 Garden / Paid Leave

14.1 During the period of notice as provided for in paragraph 13 above or for any reason during your employment, the Firm may place you on any period of paid leave on full pay and contractual benefits (except that you are not entitled to performance incentives in respect of such period) and exclude you from the Firm's premises and/or remove your access to the Firm's systems. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, during such period of paid leave, the Firm shall be under no obligation to vest in or assign to you any duties or work or require you to appear at work. 17.3 Each of the restrictions in paragraphs 17.1(a) and 17.1(b) shall be construed as a separate and independent restriction and if one or more of the restrictions is found to be void or unenforceable, the validity of the remaining restrictions shall not be affected.

19 Confidentiality

19.1 The operations of the Firm involve all employees having knowledge of or access to information (which may include commercially sensitive information) important to and relating to the business of the Firm or any other Group Company or any clients, employees, consultants, or officers thereof or their affairs, which includes but is not limited to information regarding the Firm's business affairs, operations, products, processes, methodologies, plans, intentions, projections, know-how, Intellectual Property Rights, trade secrets, drawings, inventions, discoveries, designs, techniques, improvements, market opportunities, suppliers and vendors, clients, marketing activities, records, finances and personnel, any documents marked "confidential" (or a similar expression), any information which employees have been told is of a confidential nature or which might reasonably be expected by the Firm or any other Group Company to be regarded as confidential, or any information which has been given to the Firm or any other Group Company in confidence (the "Confidential Information").

All information which is made available, obtained or created by you during your duties that is not already obviously public knowledge or publicly available information (through no breach of any obligation of confidentiality by you or any third party) is Confidential Information.

It is the responsibility and obligation of all employees to ensure and preserve the confidentiality and non-disclosure of the Confidential Information and maintain the highest professional standards to ensure that all Confidential Information is kept confidential and secret and is properly and professionally handled to protect the Firm's commercial interests and to ensure compliance with regulatory and legal requirements. Failure to follow these principles will jeopardize the Firm's reputation and business.

19.2 In addition to and without altering any legal obligation (that you already have or to which you become subject) to keep the Confidential Information confidential, you agree not to use, retain, remove, destroy, transmit, disclose or communicate any Confidential Information to any third party outside of the Firm (except for the purpose of properly performing your duties for the Firm or unless required to do so by law or any regulatory or investigative authority or unless authorized to do so by your line manager or senior officer) either during the course of your employment or after it has ended, whether deliberately or otherwise. Furthermore, you shall not use any Confidential Information known to you or reconstruct or reproduce any Confidential Information.

19.3 You may not use any Confidential Information in any way other than for performance of your duties to the Firm. For example, Confidential Information must not be used to trade on your own account or for trading by other persons (such as family and friends). You shall at all times comply with the requirements of the UBS Group's Policy on Personal Account Dealing.

19.4 On or before the cessation of your employment with the Firm or as and when required by the Firm, you must return or surrender to the Firm all Confidential Information (including any copies thereof) without retaining it in any form, as well as any and all documents, data, manuals and other material (whether in hard or electronic form) either prepared, received or accessed by you during your employment at the Firm comprising or containing all or any part of the Confidential Information, together with any security keys and other items which are the Firm's property and in your possession or under your control.

19.5 Any breach of the responsibilities and obligation set out in this paragraph 19 may constitute gross misconduct and may result in summary dismissal.

19.6 You agree that the terms of this Agreement are strictly private and confidential and you shall not disclose the existence of this Agreement, or the contents herein to anyone, except your immediate family, accountants and legal advisors, and only upon their agreement not to disclose to another person or entity, any information relating to the existence and/or contents of this Agreement, except to the extent required by legal process.

19.7 In this paragraph 19, "Firm" shall include each and every member of the UBS Group.

20 Intellectual Property

20.1 All Intellectual Property Rights are, upon creation, the property of the Firm unless such rights cannot be owned by the Firm under applicable laws.

20.2 You shall promptly disclose and deliver to the Firm upon creation full details of all designs, inventions, works of authorship and other works in which Intellectual Property Rights subsist, conceived or created by you in the context of the Firm's business or related activities, or within the scope of employment, or by using the Firm's time, materials, facilities, or information (the "Works"). All such Works, whether or not protectable under the Copyright Act, 1957, or any other statute for the time being in force, will be considered a "work made in the course of the author's employment" under Section 17 of the Copyright Act, 1957 or other statutes in force. Ownership of any and all Intellectual Property Rights in any and all such Works will belong to the Firm. In the event any portion of the Works is deemed not to be a "work made in the course of the author's employment" for any reason, you hereby assign, convey, transfer and grant, and agree to assign, convey, transfer, and grant to the Firm all of your rights, title, and interest in and to the Works and any Intellectual Property Rights therein, and agree to cooperate with the Firm in the execution of appropriate instruments assigning and evidencing such ownership rights hereunder, which obligation shall survive termination of your employment with the Firm.

20.3 You hereby assign to the Firm (to the extent not already vested in the Firm by operation of law) and on an exclusive and irrevocable basis all present and future Intellectual Property Rights (including in or relating to the Works) for their full terms around the world. You shall cooperate with the Firm with respect to the procurement and enforcement of such Intellectual Property Rights and Works. You confirm that the provisions of Section 19(4) of the Copyright Act, 1957 shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

20.4 Insofar as you are able, you waive and agree not to assert and/or exercise any moral rights you may have in the Works and voluntarily and unconditionally consent to all or any acts or omissions by the Firm or persons authorized by the Firm, which would otherwise infringe your moral rights in the Works.

20.5 You hereby:

(a) agree to give and supply, at the request and expense of the Firm, all such information and assistance that the Firm may deem appropriate to enable the Firm to use the Works to its best advantage and to register the Firm or its nominee as owner and beneficiary of the Works; and

(b) agree to cooperate fully with the Firm, at the request and expense of the Firm, to do all acts and to execute all documents in such manner and at such location as may be required by the Firm to effect, perfect, record or register the assignment of, or to protect or enforce all or any of the rights, title or interest assigned or granted or proposed to be assigned or granted to the Firm under this Agreement in any jurisdiction. You also agree that, if you fail to perform any act or execute any document aforesaid following 14 days' notice from the Firm, the Firm shall have the right to do so in your place and stead as your lawfully appointed attorney and you hereby confirm, and ratify and agree to be bound by any and all actions of the Firm pursuant to this paragraph and such authority and appointment shall take effect as an irrevocable appointment.

20.6 You may not use any Intellectual Property Rights or Works in any way other than for the purposes of performing your duties in the interests of the Firm unless you obtain proper written permission from the Firm to do otherwise.

20.7 You agree not to do any act or omit to do any act during your employment with the Firm or at any time thereafter to affect or imperil the validity of any Intellectual Property Rights obtained, applied for or to be applied for by the Firm or its nominee. In particular, you shall not disclose the subject matter of any inventions which may be patentable in such a way that could jeopardize the interests of the Firm in such inventions or that could impair the right of the Firm to apply for a patent for such inventions. You agree that any Intellectual Property Right that was made, conceived or suggested by you, either solely or jointly with others, within one (1) year following termination of your employment with the Firm and that pertains to any Confidential Information or business activity of the Firm will be presumed to have been made, conceived or suggested in the course of your employment and with the use of the time, materials or facilities of the Firm.

20.8 You agree and undertake that all Intellectual Property Rights and Works created by you shall not infringe any rights of any third party (including but not limited to contractual or intellectual property rights) or put the Firm or any Group Company into disrepute, and shall be original.

20.9 As used herein,

"Firm" shall include each and every member of the UBS Group where the context so requires; and

"Intellectual Property Rights" means any and all intellectual property and industrial property and/or proprietary rights which are created by you or with your assistance in connection with your employment with the Firm (whether or not made, devised or discovered during working hours or using the Firm's premises or resources) including but not limited to patents and rights in inventions (whether patentable or not and whether patent protection has been applied for or granted), all improvements thereto, developments, and discoveries; trademarks or service marks, trade dress, logos, trade and business/corporate names, and all associated goodwill symbolized by any of the foregoing, protection from trademark dilution, and rights to sue for passing off or unfair competition; copyrightable works, copyrights, moral rights, and related rights; designs (whether or not registrable and whether or not design rights subsist in them); copyright in computer software (including all data and source code and related documentation), rights in databases; rights in information, including know-how, technical information, trade secrets, proprietary information, and Confidential Information; websites; work products; other proprietary rights including Internet domain names, logos, art work, slogans, processes, utility models; and all other similar or equivalent rights subsisting now or in the future, in each case whether registered or unregistered, legal or beneficial, including all applications for, and renewals or extensions of such rights for their full term.

However, all such regulations, policies and procedures do not and shall not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract with the Firm.

23 Warranties and Undertakings

23.1 You represent and warrant that:

(a) you have no previous criminal convictions and are not the subject of any investigation which may lead to a criminal conviction in India or elsewhere and no consent is required from any jurisdictional regulator including the Securities Exchange Board of India or Reserve Bank of India or any other regulator for your employment with the Firm;

(b) you have not been reprimanded or otherwise disciplined nor are currently being investigated by any regulatory or professional body in India and elsewhere including, but not limited to, Securities Exchange Board of India;

(f) all necessary approvals or consents or any other actions that are required by law or regulations to be obtained or undertaken for the purposes of the execution of this Agreement and the performance of your duties hereunder have been obtained and/or undertaken.

23.2 Any breach of any of the warranties and undertakings set out in this paragraph 23 may give rise to grounds for instant dismissal and/or cancellations/annulments of this Agreement to the extent permitted under applicable laws.

24 Non-Disparagement

You agree that during the course of your employment and after its cessation (for whatever reason) you will not make, publish or issue (or authorise or permit the making, publication or issuing of) any disparaging or derogatory statement whether oral or written concerning the Firm or any other Group Company or any of its or their current or former employees, agents, directors or officers, or act in any manner which would or might bring the Firm or any other Group Company into disrepute.

25 Background and Reference Checks

25.1 The offer of employment contained in this Agreement is subject to verification of the details provided by you in your curriculum vitae, employment application form, personal data form and any other information provided by you in the course of your application for employment.

25.2 This offer is also subject to the completion of the Firm's background screening process to the satisfaction of the Firm (as determined in the Firm's sole discretion). The Firm and you mutually acknowledge that it may be difficult to ascertain the exact amount of damages for violation of these provisions, but that damages would be of a continuing nature and that the Firm would suffer irreparable harm and injury by reason of such violations. Consequently, you consent to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions of these provisions.

28 Variation

The Firm reserves the right to vary any of the terms and conditions of your employment at any time to the extent permitted by applicable law in its reasonable discretion.

30 Severability

If any term or provision in this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable, in whole or in part, such term or provision shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this Agreement but the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected.

   - keep information gained during your former employment confidential and secret; and/or
   - return property belonging to your former employer when you leave; and/or
   - not to solicit their staff &/or customers during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to compete with your former employer during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to disparage your former employer.

   Such confidential information or property may include any document or materials (whether in hard or electronic form) developed or created by you or with your assistance during your former employment.

   Where you are subject to a non-solicitation or non-compete clause, you must abide by these, and make sure that your line manager and Human Resources are aware of the relevant restrictions prior to commencing employment.

   If you have a non-solicitation clause concerning your former employer's staff/employees, you should not, until the non-solicitation clause has expired, refer any former colleagues to UBS and nor will such former colleagues be eligible for referral through UBS's iHire programme.

2. Even if your employment contract with your former employer is silent on your duties of confidentiality, general law is likely to impose duties of confidentiality and fidelity on you not to use or disclose your former employers' confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets to any third party, including your new employer.

3. It is important to note that your obligations of confidentiality and fidelity towards your former employer can continue even after you leave their employment.

   - any breach of contractual duties (such as non-solicitation of staff of former employer or non-compete clauses) or applicable laws and regulations by our staff.

5. A breach of your duties and obligations renders you liable at law to your former employer(s) and/or third parties and may jeopardize your employment at UBS. Furthermore, such breach could subject UBS to potential legal liability, regulatory censures or penalties, and serious reputational damage.

6. Examples of what you CAN and CANNOT bring with you

   YES, you may use in the course of employment with UBS:
   - Information from your previous employers that is freely available in the public domain
   - skills, experience, general know-how or commercial knowledge acquired from your previous employment

   - Proprietary documents or materials belonging to your former employer(s); and/or
   - confidential information or trade secrets belonging to or claimed by your former employer(s).

   Please take note that the above serves merely to illustrate and is not exhaustive. Your exact duties and obligations owed to your former employer(s) depend on your former role and responsibilities, the construction of your employment contract and on the general laws of the jurisdiction in which you were employed. If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

Group Functions incentive approach

A simplified incentive approach applies to employees in Group Functions with Employee (EE) and Authorized Officer (AO) ranks. Here's what you need to know.

What is the incentive approach?

- All employees in Group Functions with EE and AO ranks are eligible for an incentive (bonus) that is a target percentage[1] of the employee's salary.
- The incentive can be expected to be around half of a month's salary in any given year[2]. In a strong performance year, the incentive can be higher than that.
- All EEs and AOs are eligible; those with a meets most expectations (2) rating or higher in their performance evaluation can generally anticipate an incentive.
- Incentive decisions remain at the firm's discretion and the level (target percentage) is based on the firm's overall performance for the year.

Why are Group Functions EEs and AOs part of this approach?

- Group Functions pay is closely linked to Group performance and less volatile than front office functions. Additionally, compensation models like this are relatively common for back-office functions in other industries.
- We are protecting employees' compensation by eliminating the downside in cases of weak Group performance, while retaining the upside in strong performance years.

How is individual performance rewarded?

- The firm is committed to rewarding strong individual performance.
- Individual performance is considered by focusing on career development and by pay for performance – with salary reviews, training and development opportunities and promotions.

Are discretionary change requests allowed?

- No. The new incentive model applies to all EEs and AOs in Group Functions;[2] no individual exceptions are accepted.

Are employees who are nominated for promotion to AD also part of this model?

- Yes, all employees with EE or AO rank are part of this model, independent of their promotion status.

Are EEs and AOs still eligible for a salary increase?

- Yes. All employees are eligible to be considered for salary increases each year as part of the regular annual process.

How is the incentive calculated?

- The incentive is a percentage of the annual gross salary at 31 December. Any salary changes through the year are not considered.
- If applicable, the incentive is adjusted for hire date, leave of absence, part-time work and/or changes to average FTE that year.
  - For example, if someone joins on 1 April, the incentive will be pro-rated for the day of hire.
  - The incentive will be adjusted to the average FTE for the year, so if someone worked 100% for six months and 50% for the other six months, the average FTE would be 75%.
  - The incentive for employees who took a leave of absence in a year will be adjusted based on the duration of the absence, according to global guidance and following local employment laws.

What if an employee changes location during the year?

- The effective salary date is 31 December. Salaries from different locations will not be aggregated to calculate the incentive.
- Employees transferring from a high cost to a low cost location will be individually reviewed by HR.

Are internal transfers from front-office areas to Group Functions also part of this model?

- Yes, their incentive is based on the same approach as other Group Functions EEs and AOs.
- Their compensation should be reviewed before the transfer takes place to assess any implications for their incentive and total compensation level.

7 Total Employment Cost

7.1 Salary

Your annual Total Employment Cost (TEC) will be INR500,000/-. Your annual basic salary will be INR250,000/-, which will be paid in 12 instalments of INR20,833/- per month.

7.2 Employer Provident Fund Contribution

12% of your monthly basic salary will be paid to the Provident Fund each month.

7.3 Basket Allowance

The remaining balance of Total Employment Cost (TEC) of INR220,000/- per annum will form the Basket Allowance, which may include allowances related to housing rent, car running and maintenance, driver's wages, and/or leave travel allowance, in accordance with applicable laws. You will be invited to indicate your preference as to the planned allocation of this Basket Allowance.

7.4 Whilst it is the current policy of the Firm that total employment cost is reviewed annually, any increment is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm and you acknowledge that any such review may not result in any increase to your TEC.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 7 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. Where the non-shift role is temporary, your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will resume on the date on which the shift role resumes.

Any changes to working hours and/or shifts should only take effect from the 1st of the month.

The Firm reserves the right to amend, modify or withdraw the "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift" and/or to withdraw the Shift Allowance and/or to vary the amount of the Shift Allowance at its discretion from time to time and you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

UBS

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

Group Functions incentive approach

A simplified incentive approach applies to employees in Group Functions with Employee (EE) and Authorized Officer (AO) ranks. Here's what you need to know.

What is the incentive approach?

- All employees in Group Functions with EE and AO ranks are eligible for an incentive (bonus) that is a target percentage[1] of the employee's salary.
- The incentive can be expected to be around half of a month's salary in any given year[2]. In a strong performance year, the incentive can be higher than that.
- All EEs and AOs are eligible; those with a meets most expectations (2) rating or higher in their performance evaluation can generally anticipate an incentive.
- Incentive decisions remain at the firm's discretion and the level (target percentage) is based on the firm's overall performance for the year.

Why are Group Functions EEs and AOs part of this approach?

- Group Functions pay is closely linked to Group performance and less volatile than front office functions. Additionally, compensation models like this are relatively common for back-office functions in other industries.
- We are protecting employees' compensation by eliminating the downside in cases of weak Group performance, while retaining the upside in strong performance years.

How is individual performance rewarded?

- The firm is committed to rewarding strong individual performance.
- Individual performance is considered by focusing on career development and by pay for performance – with salary reviews, training and development opportunities and promotions.

Are discretionary change requests allowed?

- No. The new incentive model applies to all EEs and AOs in Group Functions;[2] no individual exceptions are accepted.

Are employees who are nominated for promotion to AD also part of this model?

- Yes, all employees with EE or AO rank are part of this model, independent of their promotion status.

Are EEs and AOs still eligible for a salary increase?

- Yes. All employees are eligible to be considered for salary increases each year as part of the regular annual process.

How is the incentive calculated?

- The incentive is a percentage of the annual gross salary at 31 December. Any salary changes through the year are not considered.
- If applicable, the incentive is adjusted for hire date, leave of absence, part-time work and/or changes to average FTE that year.
  - For example, if someone joins on 1 April, the incentive will be pro-rated for the day of hire.
  - The incentive will be adjusted to the average FTE for the year, so if someone worked 100% for six months and 50% for the other six months, the average FTE would be 75%.
  - The incentive for employees who took a leave of absence in a year will be adjusted based on the duration of the absence, according to global guidance and following local employment laws.

What if an employee changes location during the year?

- The effective salary date is 31 December. Salaries from different locations will not be aggregated to calculate the incentive.
- Employees transferring from a high cost to a low cost location will be individually reviewed by HR.

Are internal transfers from front-office areas to Group Functions also part of this model?

- Yes, their incentive is based on the same approach as other Group Functions EEs and AOs.
- Their compensation should be reviewed before the transfer takes place to assess any implications for their incentive and total compensation level.

Notes:
[1] For a full working year; pro-rated for new joiners, bonus eligibility criteria (e.g., in case of termination) apply.

You will be invited to indicate your preference as to the planned allocation of this Basket Allowance.

7.4 Whilst it is the current policy of the Firm that total employment cost is reviewed annually, any increment is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm and you acknowledge that any such review may not result in any increase to your TEC.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 7 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

UBS

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

10 Tax and other Payments

10.1 The Firm shall be entitled to deduct and withhold any and all taxes and imposts as required by law. You will be solely and personally liable for declaring and paying all taxes and imposts relating to your employment as required by law.

Please note that the benefits listed above are the benefits you are eligible for in connection with your relocation and no other reimbursements will be made to you in relation to any other expenses incurred by you.

If you do not commence employment, or your employment is terminated for any reason except redundancy, disability or death within 12 months from the Date of Commencement, the Firm will have the right to require you to repay the total of the above relocation costs (including any tax liability paid on your behalf) ('total relocation costs') and/or to deduct a sum up to or equal to amount of the total relocation costs from any sum owed by UBS to you, and you hereby authorise the Firm to make any such deduction.

12 Benefits

You will be entitled to participate in all of the Firm's benefit plans as established from time to time, at such times as you qualify for them or, as the case may be, as you are selected for participation in them. The Firm reserves the right to amend, discontinue or withdraw such benefit plans in its sole and absolute discretion. Please refer to the Firm's Employee Handbook for further details.

(e) breach of confidentiality/secrecy provisions set out in this Agreement.

13.4 After the completion of your probationary period, except in the case of termination for cause under paragraph 13.2 which requires no notice or payment in lieu of notice, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving three months' notice of termination (in the case of Directors, Executive Directors and Managing Directors) or two months' notice of termination (in all other cases).

You acknowledge and agree that such notice (or payment in lieu thereof) is reasonable notice of termination and no other notice requirements express or implied by law shall apply.

13.5 At any time, including during any period of notice provided for in this paragraph 13, the Firm may elect to make payment of wages in lieu of all or part of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, only the Firm has the right to terminate this Agreement by making payment in lieu of notice and you can terminate this Agreement only by providing notice in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and not by making payment in lieu of notice.

13.6 You may not offset the notice period by any vacation leave that has not been taken. However, the Firm may direct you to take annual leave at any time to the extent permitted by law.

13.7 Termination of your employment under this paragraph 13 would be without prejudice to:
(a) the Firm's right to claim the actual damages it has suffered through the breach on your part of any of the responsibilities or obligations in this Agreement; and
(b) any other relief to which the Firm may be entitled under contract, law or equity.

13.8 The Firm's decision as to the termination of your services or employment shall be final and legally binding on you.

13.10 Following the termination of your employment, you agree that you will be willing to assist the Firm or any other Group Company in respect of any dispute, internal or external investigation or enquiry or any actual or potential litigation (whether civil or criminal) with which the Firm or such Group Company may be involved and in respect of which you might reasonably be expected to have knowledge, including but not limited to assisting in preparing witness statements and attending at court to give evidence.

13.11 Following the termination of your employment, you shall not represent yourself or hold yourself out as being employed by the Firm or any Group Company. You shall take appropriate steps within seven (7) days of your Termination Date to ensure any social media accounts and external profiles which you may have are updated to accurately reflect the cessation of your employment with the Firm and/or any relevant Group Company.

14 Garden / Paid Leave

14.1 During the period of notice as provided for in paragraph 13 above or for any reason during your employment, the Firm may place you on any period of paid leave on full pay and contractual benefits (except that you are not entitled to performance incentives in respect of such period) and exclude you from the Firm's premises and/or remove your access to the Firm's systems. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, during such period of paid leave, the Firm shall be under no obligation to vest in or assign to you any duties or work or require you to appear at work. You will remain bound by all of the express and implied obligations arising out of your employment with the Firm, including the obligations of good faith.

(a) reasonable in terms of the period, territorial limitation and subject matters; and

(b) necessary and not more than that which is reasonably required for the protection of the Firm's business and of any confidential information you may have learned or possessed during the term of your employment.

but if any such prohibition or restriction shall be found to be void or voidable, but would be valid and enforceable if some part(s) thereof was deleted, such prohibition or restriction shall apply with such modification as may be necessary to make it valid and enforceable.

17.3 Each of the restrictions in paragraphs 17.1(a) and 17.1(b) shall be construed as a separate and independent restriction and if one or more of the restrictions is found to be void or unenforceable, the validity of the remaining restrictions shall not be affected.

17.4 Without prejudice to paragraph 17.2, if any prohibition or restriction is found by any court or other competent authority to be void or unenforceable, you and the Firm agree to negotiate in good faith to replace such void or unenforceable prohibition or restriction with a valid prohibition or restriction which, as far as possible, has the same legal and commercial effect as that which it replaces.

18.4 The Firm is entitled to terminate your employment if you fail to obtain and maintain any such requisite clearance and registration or satisfy the relevant competence and fit and proper criteria.

19 Confidentiality

19.1 The operations of the Firm involve all employees having knowledge of or access to information (which may include commercially sensitive information) important to and relating to the business of the Firm or any other Group Company or any clients, employees, consultants, or officers thereof or their affairs, which includes but is not limited to information regarding the Firm's business affairs, operations, products, processes, methodologies, plans, intentions, projections, know-how, Intellectual Property Rights, trade secrets, drawings, inventions, discoveries, designs, techniques, improvements, market opportunities, suppliers and vendors, clients, marketing activities, records, finances and personnel, any documents marked "confidential" (or a similar expression), any information which employees have been told is of a confidential nature or which might reasonably be expected by the Firm or any other Group Company to be regarded as confidential, or any information which has been given to the Firm or any other Group Company in confidence (the "Confidential Information").

All information which is made available, obtained or created by you during your duties that is not already obviously public knowledge or publicly available information (through no breach of any obligation of confidentiality by you or any third party) is Confidential Information.

It is the responsibility and obligation of all employees to ensure and preserve the confidentiality and non-disclosure of the Confidential Information and maintain the highest professional standards to ensure that all Confidential Information is kept confidential and secret and is properly and professionally handled to protect the Firm's commercial interests and to ensure compliance with regulatory and legal requirements. Failure to follow these principles will jeopardize the Firm's reputation and business.

19.2 In addition to and without altering any legal obligation (that you already have or to which you become subject) to keep the Confidential Information confidential, you agree not to use, retain, remove, destroy, transmit, disclose or communicate any Confidential Information to any third party outside of the Firm (except for the purpose of properly performing your duties for the Firm or unless required to do so by law or any regulatory or investigative authority or unless authorized to do so by your line manager or senior officer) either during the course of your employment or after it has ended, whether deliberately or otherwise. Furthermore, you shall not use any Confidential Information known to you or reconstruct or reproduce any Confidential Information.

19.3 You may not use any Confidential Information in any way other than for performance of your duties to the Firm. For example, Confidential Information must not be used to trade on your own account or for trading by other persons (such as family and friends). You shall at all times comply with the requirements of the UBS Group's Policy on Personal Account Dealing.

19.4 On or before the cessation of your employment with the Firm or as and when required by the Firm, you must return or surrender to the Firm all Confidential Information (including any copies thereof) without retaining it in any form, as well as any and all documents, data, manuals and other material (whether in hard or electronic form) either prepared, received or accessed by you during your employment at the Firm comprising or containing all or any part of the Confidential Information, together with any security keys and other items which are the Firm's property and in your possession or under your control.

19.5 Any breach of the responsibilities and obligation set out in this paragraph 19 may constitute gross misconduct and may result in summary dismissal.

19.6 You agree that the terms of this Agreement are strictly private and confidential and you shall not disclose the existence of this Agreement, or the contents herein to anyone, except your immediate family, accountants and legal advisors, and only upon their agreement not to disclose to another person or entity, any information relating to the existence and/or contents of this Agreement, except to the extent required by legal process.

19.7 In this paragraph 19, "Firm" shall include each and every member of the UBS Group.

20 Intellectual Property

20.1 All Intellectual Property Rights are, upon creation, the property of the Firm unless such rights cannot be owned by the Firm under applicable laws.

20.2 You shall promptly disclose and deliver to the Firm upon creation full details of all designs, inventions, works of authorship and other works in which Intellectual Property Rights subsist, conceived or created by you in the context of the Firm's business or related activities, or within the scope of employment, or by using the Firm's time, materials, facilities, or information (the "Works"). All such Works, whether or not protectable under the Copyright Act, 1957, or any other statute for the time being in force, will be considered a "work made in the course of the author's employment" under Section 17 of the Copyright Act, 1957 or other statutes in force. Ownership of any and all Intellectual Property Rights in any and all such Works will belong to the Firm. In the event any portion of the Works is deemed not to be a "work made in the course of the author's employment" for any reason, you hereby assign, convey, transfer and grant, and agree to assign, convey, transfer, and grant to the Firm all of your rights, title, and interest in and to the Works and any Intellectual Property Rights therein, and agree to cooperate with the Firm in the execution of appropriate instruments assigning and evidencing such ownership rights hereunder, which obligation shall survive termination of your employment with the Firm.

20.3 You hereby assign to the Firm (to the extent not already vested in the Firm by operation of law) and on an exclusive and irrevocable basis all present and future Intellectual Property Rights (including in or relating to the Works) for their full terms around the world. You shall cooperate with the Firm with respect to the procurement and enforcement of such Intellectual Property Rights and Works. You confirm that the provisions of Section 19(4) of the Copyright Act, 1957 shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

20.4 Insofar as you are able, you waive and agree not to assert and/or exercise any moral rights you may have in the Works and voluntarily and unconditionally consent to all or any acts or omissions by the Firm or persons authorized by the Firm, which would otherwise infringe your moral rights in the Works.

UBS

20.5 You hereby:

(a) agree to give and supply, at the request and expense of the Firm, all such information and assistance that the Firm may deem appropriate to enable the Firm to use the Works to its best advantage and to register the Firm or its nominee as owner and beneficiary of the Works; and

(b) agree to cooperate fully with the Firm, at the request and expense of the Firm, to do all acts and to execute all documents in such manner and at such location as may be required by the Firm to effect, perfect, record or register the assignment of, or to protect or enforce all or any of the rights, title or interest assigned or granted or proposed to be assigned or granted to the Firm under this Agreement in any jurisdiction. You also agree that, if you fail to perform any act or execute any document aforesaid following 14 days' notice from the Firm, the Firm shall have the right to do so in your place and stead as your lawfully appointed attorney and you hereby confirm, and ratify and agree to be bound by any and all actions of the Firm pursuant to this paragraph and such authority and appointment shall take effect as an irrevocable appointment.

20.6 You may not use any Intellectual Property Rights or Works in any way other than for the purposes of performing your duties in the interests of the Firm unless you obtain proper written permission from the Firm to do otherwise.

20.7 You agree not to do any act or omit to do any act during your employment with the Firm or at any time thereafter to affect or imperil the validity of any Intellectual Property Rights obtained, applied for or to be applied for by the Firm or its nominee. In particular, you shall not disclose the subject matter of any inventions which may be patentable in such a way that could jeopardize the interests of the Firm in such inventions or that could impair the right of the Firm to apply for a patent for such inventions. You agree that any Intellectual Property Right that was made, conceived or suggested by you, either solely or jointly with others, within one (1) year following termination of your employment with the Firm and that pertains to any Confidential Information or business activity of the Firm will be presumed to have been made, conceived or suggested in the course of your employment and with the use of the time, materials or facilities of the Firm.

20.8 You agree and undertake that all Intellectual Property Rights and Works created by you shall not infringe any rights of any third party (including but not limited to contractual or intellectual property rights) or put the Firm or any Group Company into disrepute, and shall be original.

UBS

You also acknowledge and agree to fully comply with the contents of the annexed "Note on New Joiners' Obligations to Former Employers''.

22 Policies and Procedures

You shall faithfully perform the duties assigned to you by the Firm and shall fully comply with all of the Firm's regulations, policies and procedures (including, but not limited to, the Firm's Employee Handbook) as implemented and/or amended in the Firm's sole discretion from time to time. However, all such regulations, policies and procedures do not and shall not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract with the Firm.

23 Warranties and Undertakings

23.1 You represent and warrant that:

(a) you have no previous criminal convictions and are not the subject of any investigation which may lead to a criminal conviction in India or elsewhere and no consent is required from any jurisdictional regulator including the Securities Exchange Board of India or Reserve Bank of India or any other regulator for your employment with the Firm;

(b) you have not been reprimanded or otherwise disciplined nor are currently being investigated by any regulatory or professional body in India and elsewhere including, but not limited to, Securities Exchange Board of India;

(c) you are not subject to any agreement, arrangement, contract, understanding, court order or otherwise, which in any way directly or indirectly restricts or prohibits you from fully performing the duties of your employment, or any of them, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

(d) all information provided by you, including but not limited to your personal data and any other information provided in the course of your application for and during your employment are true and correct in all respects and not misleading;

(e) entering into this Agreement and performance of your duties as an employee of the Firm will not result in any breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any term of any agreement or court order by which you are bound, including any obligation owed to a current or former employer;

(f) all necessary approvals or consents or any other actions that are required by law or regulations to be obtained or undertaken for the purposes of the execution of this Agreement and the performance of your duties hereunder have been obtained and/or undertaken.

23.2 Any breach of any of the warranties and undertakings set out in this paragraph 23 may give rise to grounds for instant dismissal and/or cancellations/annulments of this Agreement to the extent permitted under applicable laws.

24 Non-Disparagement

You agree that during the course of your employment and after its cessation (for whatever reason) you will not make, publish or issue (or authorise or permit the making, publication or issuing of) any disparaging or derogatory statement whether oral or written concerning the Firm or any other Group Company or any of its or their current or former employees, agents, directors or officers, or act in any manner which would or might bring the Firm or any other Group Company into disrepute.

25 Background and Reference Checks

25.1 The offer of employment contained in this Agreement is subject to verification of the details provided by you in your curriculum vitae, employment application form, personal data form and any other information provided by you in the course of your application for employment.

25.2 This offer is also subject to the completion of the Firm's background screening process to the satisfaction of the Firm (as determined in the Firm's sole discretion). 27.1 All of the rights, duties and obligations between the Firm and you as set forth in this Agreement are in addition to those provided by applicable law and none of the remedies specifically provided for in this Agreement will preclude either you or the Firm from pursuing additional remedies available to either of the parties.

27.2 If you violate the terms of the paragraphs regarding Non-Solicitation, Confidentiality, Intellectual Property, Non-Disparagement and/or Policies and Procedures of this Agreement, you may, in addition to damages, be subject to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions set out in these provisions. The Firm and you mutually acknowledge that it may be difficult to ascertain the exact amount of damages for violation of these provisions, but that damages would be of a continuing nature and that the Firm would suffer irreparable harm and injury by reason of such violations. Consequently, you consent to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions of these provisions.

The Firm reserves the right to vary any of the terms and conditions of your employment at any time to the extent permitted by applicable law in its reasonable discretion.

29 Right to Withhold or Set-off

The rights under this paragraph 29 shall be without prejudice to any other rights of recovery which the Firm or Group Company may have in law or in equity.

30 Severability

If any term or provision in this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable, in whole or in part, such term or provision shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this Agreement but the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected.

   - keep information gained during your former employment confidential and secret; and/or
   - return property belonging to your former employer when you leave; and/or
   - not to solicit their staff &/or customers during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to compete with your former employer during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to disparage your former employer.

   Such confidential information or property may include any document or materials (whether in hard or electronic form) developed or created by you or with your assistance during your former employment.

   Where you are subject to a non-solicitation or non-compete clause, you must abide by these, and make sure that your line manager and Human Resources are aware of the relevant restrictions prior to commencing employment.

   If you have a non-solicitation clause concerning your former employer's staff/employees, you should not, until the non-solicitation clause has expired, refer any former colleagues to UBS and nor will such former colleagues be eligible for referral through UBS's iHire programme.

2. Even if your employment contract with your former employer is silent on your duties of confidentiality, general law is likely to impose duties of confidentiality and fidelity on you not to use or disclose your former employers' confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets to any third party, including your new employer.

3. It is important to note that your obligations of confidentiality and fidelity towards your former employer can continue even after you leave their employment.

   - any breach of contractual duties (such as non-solicitation of staff of former employer or non-compete clauses) or applicable laws and regulations by our staff.

5. A breach of your duties and obligations renders you liable at law to your former employer(s) and/or third parties and may jeopardize your employment at UBS. Furthermore, such breach could subject UBS to potential legal liability, regulatory censures or penalties, and serious reputational damage.

6. Examples of what you CAN and CANNOT bring with you

   YES, you may use in the course of employment with UBS:
   - Information from your previous employers that is freely available in the public domain
   - skills, experience, general know-how or commercial knowledge acquired from your previous employment

   - confidential information or trade secrets belonging to or claimed by your former employer(s).

   Please take note that the above serves merely to illustrate and is not exhaustive. Your exact duties and obligations owed to your former employer(s) depend on your former role and responsibilities, the construction of your employment contract and on the general laws of the jurisdiction in which you were employed. If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

Group Functions incentive approach

A simplified incentive approach applies to employees in Group Functions with Employee (EE) and Authorized Officer (AO) ranks. Here's what you need to know.

What is the incentive approach?

- All employees in Group Functions with EE and AO ranks are eligible for an incentive (bonus) that is a target percentage[1] of the employee's salary.
- The incentive can be expected to be around half of a month's salary in any given year[2]. In a strong performance year, the incentive can be higher than that.
- All EEs and AOs are eligible; those with a meets most expectations (2) rating or higher in their performance evaluation can generally anticipate an incentive.
- Incentive decisions remain at the firm's discretion and the level (target percentage) is based on the firm's overall performance for the year.

Why are Group Functions EEs and AOs part of this approach?

- Group Functions pay is closely linked to Group performance and less volatile than front office functions. Additionally, compensation models like this are relatively common for back-office functions in other industries.
- We are protecting employees' compensation by eliminating the downside in cases of weak Group performance, while retaining the upside in strong performance years.

How is individual performance rewarded?

- The firm is committed to rewarding strong individual performance.
- Individual performance is considered by focusing on career development and by pay for performance – with salary reviews, training and development opportunities and promotions.

Are discretionary change requests allowed?

- No. The new incentive model applies to all EEs and AOs in Group Functions;[2] no individual exceptions are accepted.

Are employees who are nominated for promotion to AD also part of this model?

- Yes, all employees with EE or AO rank are part of this model, independent of their promotion status.

Are EEs and AOs still eligible for a salary increase?

- Yes. All employees are eligible to be considered for salary increases each year as part of the regular annual process.

How is the incentive calculated?

- The incentive is a percentage of the annual gross salary at 31 December. Any salary changes through the year are not considered.
- If applicable, the incentive is adjusted for hire date, leave of absence, part-time work and/or changes to average FTE that year.
  - For example, if someone joins on 1 April, the incentive will be pro-rated for the day of hire.
  - The incentive will be adjusted to the average FTE for the year, so if someone worked 100% for six months and 50% for the other six months, the average FTE would be 75%.
  - The incentive for employees who took a leave of absence in a year will be adjusted based on the duration of the absence, according to global guidance and following local employment laws.

What if an employee changes location during the year?

- The effective salary date is 31 December. Salaries from different locations will not be aggregated to calculate the incentive.
- Employees transferring from a high cost to a low cost location will be individually reviewed by HR.

Are internal transfers from front-office areas to Group Functions also part of this model?

- Yes, their incentive is based on the same approach as other Group Functions EEs and AOs.
- Their compensation should be reviewed before the transfer takes place to assess any implications for their incentive and total compensation level.

5 Probation

5.1 You will initially be on probation for a period of three months from the Date of Commencement, after which, your performance will be reviewed to determine if your performance meets the required standard for your role.

If your performance is found unsatisfactory, the probation period may be extended until your employment is expressly confirmed by the management of the Firm. 7 Total Employment Cost

7.1 Salary

Your annual Total Employment Cost (TEC) will be INR500,000/-. Your annual basic salary will be INR250,000/-, which will be paid in 12 instalments of INR20,833/- per month.

7.2 Employer Provident Fund Contribution

12% of your monthly basic salary will be paid to the Provident Fund each month.

7.3 Basket Allowance

The remaining balance of Total Employment Cost (TEC) of INR220,000/- per annum will form the Basket Allowance, which may include allowances related to housing rent, car running and maintenance, driver's wages, and/or leave travel allowance, in accordance with applicable laws. You will be invited to indicate your preference as to the planned allocation of this Basket Allowance.

7.4 Whilst it is the current policy of the Firm that total employment cost is reviewed annually, any increment is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm and you acknowledge that any such review may not result in any increase to your TEC.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 7 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. Where the non-shift role is temporary, your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will resume on the date on which the shift role resumes.

Any changes to working hours and/or shifts should only take effect from the 1st of the month.

The Firm reserves the right to amend, modify or withdraw the "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift" and/or to withdraw the Shift Allowance and/or to vary the amount of the Shift Allowance at its discretion from time to time and you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

UBS

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

10 Tax and other Payments

10.1 The Firm shall be entitled to deduct and withhold any and all taxes and imposts as required by law. You will be solely and personally liable for declaring and paying all taxes and imposts relating to your employment as required by law.

10.2 You will be required to make any necessary employee contributions to the Provident Fund which will be deducted from your monthly basic salary.

11 Relocation

In connection with your acceptance of this offer of employment and required relocation from Ahmedabad to Hyderabad, you will be provided with the following core benefits:

The Firm will provide a one-off payment of INR200,000/- to cover transportation, movement of house hold goods and one month temp accommodation that might be incurred in the process of transferring to your new location. The Firm will bear the tax costs associated with this payment. This payment will be made in the month of your successful relocation.

Please note that the benefits listed above are the benefits you are eligible for in connection with your relocation and no other reimbursements will be made to you in relation to any other expenses incurred by you.

If you do not commence employment, or your employment is terminated for any reason except redundancy, disability or death within 12 months from the Date of Commencement, the Firm will have the right to require you to repay the total of the above relocation costs (including any tax liability paid on your behalf) ('total relocation costs') and/or to deduct a sum up to or equal to amount of the total relocation costs from any sum owed by UBS to you, and you hereby authorise the Firm to make any such deduction.

12 Benefits

You will be entitled to participate in all of the Firm's benefit plans as established from time to time, at such times as you qualify for them or, as the case may be, as you are selected for participation in them. The Firm reserves the right to amend, discontinue or withdraw such benefit plans in its sole and absolute discretion. Please refer to the Firm's Employee Handbook for further details.

13 Termination

13.1 During your probation period, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving 7 days' notice of termination.

(d) going on or abetting a strike in contravention of any law;
(e) causing damage to the property of the Firm; and/or
(f) breach of confidentiality/secrecy provisions set out in this Agreement.

13.4 After the completion of your probationary period, except in the case of termination for cause under paragraph 13.2 which requires no notice or payment in lieu of notice, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving three months' notice of termination (in the case of Directors, Executive Directors and Managing Directors) or two months' notice of termination (in all other cases).

You acknowledge and agree that such notice (or payment in lieu thereof) is reasonable notice of termination and no other notice requirements express or implied by law shall apply.

13.5 At any time, including during any period of notice provided for in this paragraph 13, the Firm may elect to make payment of wages in lieu of all or part of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, only the Firm has the right to terminate this Agreement by making payment in lieu of notice and you can terminate this Agreement only by providing notice in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and not by making payment in lieu of notice.

13.6 You may not offset the notice period by any vacation leave that has not been taken. However, the Firm may direct you to take annual leave at any time to the extent permitted by law.

13.7 Termination of your employment under this paragraph 13 would be without prejudice to:
(a) the Firm's right to claim the actual damages it has suffered through the breach on your part of any of the responsibilities or obligations in this Agreement; and
(b) any other relief to which the Firm may be entitled under contract, law or equity.

13.8 The Firm's decision as to the termination of your services or employment shall be final and legally binding on you.

13.9 As and when required by the Firm (and in any event upon the cessation of your employment for whatever reason), you shall resign from all offices held by you with the Firm or any Group Company without any claims for compensation for loss of office.

13.10 Following the termination of your employment, you agree that you will be willing to assist the Firm or any other Group Company in respect of any dispute, internal or external investigation or enquiry or any actual or potential litigation (whether civil or criminal) with which the Firm or such Group Company may be involved and in respect of which you might reasonably be expected to have knowledge, including but not limited to assisting in preparing witness statements and attending at court to give evidence.

13.11 Following the termination of your employment, you shall not represent yourself or hold yourself out as being employed by the Firm or any Group Company. You shall take appropriate steps within seven (7) days of your Termination Date to ensure any social media accounts and external profiles which you may have are updated to accurately reflect the cessation of your employment with the Firm and/or any relevant Group Company.

14 Garden / Paid Leave

14.1 During the period of notice as provided for in paragraph 13 above or for any reason during your employment, the Firm may place you on any period of paid leave on full pay and contractual benefits (except that you are not entitled to performance incentives in respect of such period) and exclude you from the Firm's premises and/or remove your access to the Firm's systems. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, during such period of paid leave, the Firm shall be under no obligation to vest in or assign to you any duties or work or require you to appear at work. 20.6 You may not use any Intellectual Property Rights or Works in any way other than for the purposes of performing your duties in the interests of the Firm unless you obtain proper written permission from the Firm to do otherwise.

20.7 You agree not to do any act or omit to do any act during your employment with the Firm or at any time thereafter to affect or imperil the validity of any Intellectual Property Rights obtained, applied for or to be applied for by the Firm or its nominee. In particular, you shall not disclose the subject matter of any inventions which may be patentable in such a way that could jeopardize the interests of the Firm in such inventions or that could impair the right of the Firm to apply for a patent for such inventions. You agree that any Intellectual Property Right that was made, conceived or suggested by you, either solely or jointly with others, within one (1) year following termination of your employment with the Firm and that pertains to any Confidential Information or business activity of the Firm will be presumed to have been made, conceived or suggested in the course of your employment and with the use of the time, materials or facilities of the Firm.

20.8 You agree and undertake that all Intellectual Property Rights and Works created by you shall not infringe any rights of any third party (including but not limited to contractual or intellectual property rights) or put the Firm or any Group Company into disrepute, and shall be original.

25.1 The offer of employment contained in this Agreement is subject to verification of the details provided by you in your curriculum vitae, employment application form, personal data form and any other information provided by you in the course of your application for employment.

27.2 If you violate the terms of the paragraphs regarding Non-Solicitation, Confidentiality, Intellectual Property, Non-Disparagement and/or Policies and Procedures of this Agreement, you may, in addition to damages, be subject to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions set out in these provisions. The Firm and you mutually acknowledge that it may be difficult to ascertain the exact amount of damages for violation of these provisions, but that damages would be of a continuing nature and that the Firm would suffer irreparable harm and injury by reason of such violations. Consequently, you consent to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions of these provisions.

The Firm reserves the right to vary any of the terms and conditions of your employment at any time to the extent permitted by applicable law in its reasonable discretion.

29 Right to Withhold or Set-off

You acknowledge and agree that the Firm shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be entitled from time to time to withhold or set-off from any sum payable by the Firm to you (including, for the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, remuneration) a sum equivalent to or less than any amount owed by you to the Firm or any other Group Company, and to apply such amount in full or partial settlement of such amount payable by you to the Firm or such Group Company (as the case may be). The rights under this paragraph 29 shall be without prejudice to any other rights of recovery which the Firm or Group Company may have in law or in equity.

30 Severability

If any term or provision in this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable, in whole or in part, such term or provision shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this Agreement but the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected.

31 Entire Agreement

You acknowledge and agree that in relation to the subject matter of this Agreement:

(a) this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between you and the Firm and supersedes any previous agreement, representation, understanding or statement;
(b) in entering into this Agreement you have not relied upon any representation, warranty or undertaking by any Group Company (other than as set out in this Agreement); and

2. Even if your employment contract with your former employer is silent on your duties of confidentiality, general law is likely to impose duties of confidentiality and fidelity on you not to use or disclose your former employers' confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets to any third party, including your new employer.

   - any breach of contractual duties (such as non-solicitation of staff of former employer or non-compete clauses) or applicable laws and regulations by our staff.

5. A breach of your duties and obligations renders you liable at law to your former employer(s) and/or third parties and may jeopardize your employment at UBS. Furthermore, such breach could subject UBS to potential legal liability, regulatory censures or penalties, and serious reputational damage.

6. Examples of what you CAN and CANNOT bring with you

   YES, you may use in the course of employment with UBS:
   - Information from your previous employers that is freely available in the public domain

   Please take note that the above serves merely to illustrate and is not exhaustive. Your exact duties and obligations owed to your former employer(s) depend on your former role and responsibilities, the construction of your employment contract and on the general laws of the jurisdiction in which you were employed. If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

7 Total Employment Cost

7.1 Salary

Your annual Total Employment Cost (TEC) will be INR500,000/-. Your annual basic salary will be INR250,000/-, which will be paid in 12 instalments of INR20,833/- per month.

7.2 Employer Provident Fund Contribution

12% of your monthly basic salary will be paid to the Provident Fund each month.

7.3 Basket Allowance

The remaining balance of Total Employment Cost (TEC) of INR220,000/- per annum will form the Basket Allowance, which may include allowances related to housing rent, car running and maintenance, driver's wages, and/or leave travel allowance, in accordance with applicable laws. You will be invited to indicate your preference as to the planned allocation of this Basket Allowance.

7.4 Whilst it is the current policy of the Firm that total employment cost is reviewed annually, any increment is at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm and you acknowledge that any such review may not result in any increase to your TEC.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 7 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. Where the non-shift role is temporary, your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will resume on the date on which the shift role resumes.

Any changes to working hours and/or shifts should only take effect from the 1st of the month.

The Firm reserves the right to amend, modify or withdraw the "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift" and/or to withdraw the Shift Allowance and/or to vary the amount of the Shift Allowance at its discretion from time to time and you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. If you are subject to any external or internal investigation and/or disciplinary process at the time of the incentive payment date, UBS reserves the right in its absolute discretion to suspend determination, communication, payment and/or grant of any incentive award pending the outcome of the investigation and/or disciplinary process, and to adjust any incentive award amount (in full or in part, if any) already communicated to you in respect of the previous performance year.

10 Tax and other Payments

10.1 The Firm shall be entitled to deduct and withhold any and all taxes and imposts as required by law. You will be solely and personally liable for declaring and paying all taxes and imposts relating to your employment as required by law.

10.2 You will be required to make any necessary employee contributions to the Provident Fund which will be deducted from your monthly basic salary.

11 Relocation

In connection with your acceptance of this offer of employment and required relocation from Chandigarh to Hyderabad, you will be provided with the following core benefits:

The Firm will provide a one-off payment of INR200,000/- to cover transportation, movement of house hold goods and one month temp accommodation that might be incurred in the process of transferring to your new location. The Firm will bear the tax costs associated with this payment. This payment will be made in the month of your successful relocation.

Please note that the benefits listed above are the benefits you are eligible for in connection with your relocation and no other reimbursements will be made to you in relation to any other expenses incurred by you.

If you do not commence employment, or your employment is terminated for any reason except redundancy, disability or death within 12 months from the Date of Commencement, the Firm will have the right to require you to repay the total of the above relocation costs (including any tax liability paid on your behalf) ('total relocation costs') and/or to deduct a sum up to or equal to amount of the total relocation costs from any sum owed by UBS to you, and you hereby authorise the Firm to make any such deduction.

12 Benefits

You will be entitled to participate in all of the Firm's benefit plans as established from time to time, at such times as you qualify for them or, as the case may be, as you are selected for participation in them. The Firm reserves the right to amend, discontinue or withdraw such benefit plans in its sole and absolute discretion. Please refer to the Firm's Employee Handbook for further details.

13 Termination

13.1 During your probation period, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving 7 days' notice of termination.

13.2 The Firm reserves the right to terminate your employment at any time without notice or payment in lieu thereof if you commit any serious or persistent breach or non-observance of the terms, conditions or stipulations contained in this Agreement including termination for breach of warranties as set out at clause 23.2 of this Agreement, or the Firm's regulations, policies and procedures, (including but not limited to the Firm's Employee Handbook) or if you are guilty of any serious negligence or misconduct in connection with or affecting the business or affairs of the Firm or otherwise as permitted under applicable laws in India.

(d) going on or abetting a strike in contravention of any law;
(c) causing damage to the property of the Firm; and/or
(e) breach of confidentiality/secrecy provisions set out in this Agreement.

13.4 After the completion of your probationary period, except in the case of termination for cause under paragraph 13.2 which requires no notice or payment in lieu of notice, your employment may be terminated in writing at any time by the Firm or yourself by giving three months' notice of termination (in the case of Directors, Executive Directors and Managing Directors) or two months' notice of termination (in the case of Associate Directors and Authorized Officers) or one month's notice of termination (in all other cases).

You acknowledge and agree that such notice (or payment in lieu thereof) is reasonable notice of termination and no other notice requirements express or implied by law shall apply.

13.5 At any time, including during any period of notice provided for in this paragraph 13, the Firm may elect to make payment of wages in lieu of all or part of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, only the Firm has the right to terminate this Agreement by making payment in lieu of notice and you can terminate this Agreement only by providing notice in writing in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and not by making payment in lieu of notice.

13.6 You may not offset the notice period by any vacation leave that has not been taken. However, the Firm may direct you to take annual leave at any time to the extent permitted by law.

13.7 Termination of your employment under this paragraph 13 would be without prejudice to:
(a) the Firm's right to claim the actual damages it has suffered through the breach on your part of any of the responsibilities or obligations in this Agreement; and
(b) any other relief to which the Firm may be entitled under contract, law or equity.

13.8 The Firm's decision as to the termination of your services or employment shall be final and legally binding on you.

13.9 As and when required by the Firm (and in any event upon the cessation of your employment for whatever reason), you shall resign from all offices held by you with the Firm or any Group Company without any claims for compensation for loss of office.

13.10 Following the termination of your employment, you agree that you will be willing to assist the Firm or any other Group Company in respect of any dispute, internal or external investigation or enquiry or any actual or potential litigation (whether civil or criminal) with which the Firm or such Group Company may be involved and in respect of which you might reasonably be expected to have knowledge, including but not limited to assisting in preparing witness statements and attending at court to give evidence.

13.11 Following the termination of your employment, you shall not represent yourself or hold yourself out as being employed by the Firm or any Group Company. You shall take appropriate steps within seven (7) days of your Termination Date to ensure any social media accounts and external profiles which you may have are updated to accurately reflect the cessation of your employment with the Firm and/or any relevant Group Company.

14 Garden / Paid Leave

14.1 During the period of notice as provided for in paragraph 13 above or for any reason during your employment, the Firm may place you on any period of paid leave on full pay and contractual benefits (except that you are not entitled to performance incentives in respect of such period) and exclude you from the Firm's premises and/or remove your access to the Firm's systems. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, during such period of paid leave, the Firm shall be under no obligation to vest in or assign to you any duties or work or require you to appear at work. You will remain bound by all of the express and implied obligations arising out of your employment with the Firm, including the obligations of good faith.

(iii) reputational risk to the Firm or any Group Company resulting from problems arising under such circumstances.

15.2 In this regard, you shall comply with the provisions of the UBS Group Policy on Outside Directorships and other External Functions, including any approval procedures prescribed thereunder. Any failure to comply with this policy may constitute gross misconduct which may result in summary dismissal.

17.7 In this paragraph 17, "Firm" shall include each and every member of the UBS Group.

18 Clearance and Registration by Relevant Authorities

18.1 You authorise the Firm to use or disclose information contained in the Firm's records, all information provided in your application form, any other information related to your present or past employment, gathered prior to and/or during the course of your employment with the Firm, to the relevant regulatory authorities for the purpose of obtaining any clearance and registration (including any renewal thereof) as may be required for the performance of your duties.

18.2 You agree to take such examinations and attend continuous professional training, as required by the relevant regulatory authorities, to demonstrate/maintain professional competence at all times.

18.3 You agree to conduct yourself in a manner consistent with the highest professional standards and to remain "fit and proper" for the purposes of the relevant regulatory authorities.

18.4 The Firm is entitled to terminate your employment if you fail to obtain and maintain any such requisite clearance and registration or satisfy the relevant competence and fit and proper criteria.

19 Confidentiality

19.1 The operations of the Firm involve all employees having knowledge of or access to information (which may include commercially sensitive information) important to and relating to the business of the Firm or any other Group Company or any clients, employees, consultants, or officers thereof or their affairs, which includes but is not limited to information regarding the Firm's business affairs, operations, products, processes, methodologies, plans, intentions, projections, know-how, Intellectual Property Rights, trade secrets, drawings, inventions, discoveries, designs, techniques, improvements, market opportunities, suppliers and vendors, clients, marketing activities, records, finances and personnel, any documents marked "confidential" (or a similar expression), any information which employees have been told is of a confidential nature or which might reasonably be expected by the Firm or any other Group Company to be regarded as confidential, or any information which has been given to the Firm or any other Group Company in confidence (the "Confidential Information").

All information which is made available, obtained or created by you during your duties that is not already obviously public knowledge or publicly available information (through no breach of any obligation of confidentiality by you or any third party) is Confidential Information.

It is the responsibility and obligation of all employees to ensure and preserve the confidentiality and non-disclosure of the Confidential Information and maintain the highest professional standards to ensure that all Confidential Information is kept confidential and secret and is properly and professionally handled to protect the Firm's commercial interests and to ensure compliance with regulatory and legal requirements. Failure to follow these principles will jeopardize the Firm's reputation and business.

19.2 In addition to and without altering any legal obligation (that you already have or to which you become subject) to keep the Confidential Information confidential, you agree not to use, retain, remove, destroy, transmit, disclose or communicate any Confidential Information to any third party outside of the Firm (except for the purpose of properly performing your duties for the Firm or unless required to do so by law or any regulatory or investigative authority or unless authorized to do so by your line manager or senior officer) either during the course of your employment or after it has ended, whether deliberately or otherwise. Furthermore, you shall not use any Confidential Information known to you or reconstruct or reproduce any Confidential Information.

19.3 You may not use any Confidential Information in any way other than for performance of your duties to the Firm. For example, Confidential Information must not be used to trade on your own account or for trading by other persons (such as family and friends). You shall at all times comply with the requirements of the UBS Group's Policy on Personal Account Dealing.

19.4 On or before the cessation of your employment with the Firm or as and when required by the Firm, you must return or surrender to the Firm all Confidential Information (including any copies thereof) without retaining it in any form, as well as any and all documents, data, manuals and other material (whether in hard or electronic form) either prepared, received or accessed by you during your employment at the Firm comprising or containing all or any part of the Confidential Information, together with any security keys and other items which are the Firm's property and in your possession or under your control.

19.5 Any breach of the responsibilities and obligation set out in this paragraph 19 may constitute gross misconduct and may result in summary dismissal.

19.6 You agree that the terms of this Agreement are strictly private and confidential and you shall not disclose the existence of this Agreement, or the contents herein to anyone, except your immediate family, accountants and legal advisors, and only upon their agreement not to disclose to another person or entity, any information relating to the existence and/or contents of this Agreement, except to the extent required by legal process.

19.7 In this paragraph 19, "Firm" shall include each and every member of the UBS Group.

20 Intellectual Property

20.1 All Intellectual Property Rights are, upon creation, the property of the Firm unless such rights cannot be owned by the Firm under applicable laws.

20.2 You shall promptly disclose and deliver to the Firm upon creation full details of all designs, inventions, works of authorship and other works in which Intellectual Property Rights subsist, conceived or created by you in the context of the Firm's business or related activities, or within the scope of employment, or by using the Firm's time, materials, facilities, or information (the "Works"). All such Works, whether or not protectable under the Copyright Act, 1957, or any other statute for the time being in force, will be considered a "work made in the course of the author's employment" under Section 17 of the Copyright Act, 1957 or other statutes in force. Ownership of any and all Intellectual Property Rights in any and all such Works will belong to the Firm. In the event any portion of the Works is deemed not to be a "work made in the course of the author's employment" for any reason, you hereby assign, convey, transfer and grant, and agree to assign, convey, transfer, and grant to the Firm all of your rights, title, and interest in and to the Works and any Intellectual Property Rights therein, and agree to cooperate with the Firm in the execution of appropriate instruments assigning and evidencing such ownership rights hereunder, which obligation shall survive termination of your employment with the Firm.

20.3 You hereby assign to the Firm (to the extent not already vested in the Firm by operation of law) and on an exclusive and irrevocable basis all present and future Intellectual Property Rights (including in or relating to the Works) for their full terms around the world. You shall cooperate with the Firm with respect to the procurement and enforcement of such Intellectual Property Rights and Works. You confirm that the provisions of Section 19(4) of the Copyright Act, 1957 shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

20.4 Insofar as you are able, you waive and agree not to assert and/or exercise any moral rights you may have in the Works and voluntarily and unconditionally consent to all or any acts or omissions by the Firm or persons authorized by the Firm, which would otherwise infringe your moral rights in the Works.

20.5 You hereby:

(a) agree to give and supply, at the request and expense of the Firm, all such information and assistance that the Firm may deem appropriate to enable the Firm to use the Works to its best advantage and to register the Firm or its nominee as owner and beneficiary of the Works; and

(b) agree to cooperate fully with the Firm, at the request and expense of the Firm, to do all acts and to execute all documents in such manner and at such location as may be required by the Firm to effect, perfect, record or register the assignment of, or to protect or enforce all or any of the rights, title or interest assigned or granted or proposed to be assigned or granted to the Firm under this Agreement in any jurisdiction. You also agree that, if you fail to perform any act or execute any document aforesaid following 14 days' notice from the Firm, the Firm shall have the right to do so in your place and stead as your lawfully appointed attorney and you hereby confirm, and ratify and agree to be bound by any and all actions of the Firm pursuant to this paragraph and such authority and appointment shall take effect as an irrevocable appointment.

20.6 You may not use any Intellectual Property Rights or Works in any way other than for the purposes of performing your duties in the interests of the Firm unless you obtain proper written permission from the Firm to do otherwise.

20.7 You agree not to do any act or omit to do any act during your employment with the Firm or at any time thereafter to affect or imperil the validity of any Intellectual Property Rights obtained, applied for or to be applied for by the Firm or its nominee. In particular, you shall not disclose the subject matter of any inventions which may be patentable in such a way that could jeopardize the interests of the Firm in such inventions or that could impair the right of the Firm to apply for a patent for such inventions. You agree that any Intellectual Property Right that was made, conceived or suggested by you, either solely or jointly with others, within one (1) year following termination of your employment with the Firm and that pertains to any Confidential Information or business activity of the Firm will be presumed to have been made, conceived or suggested in the course of your employment and with the use of the time, materials or facilities of the Firm.

20.8 You agree and undertake that all Intellectual Property Rights and Works created by you shall not infringe any rights of any third party (including but not limited to contractual or intellectual property rights) or put the Firm or any Group Company into disrepute, and shall be original.

20.9 As used herein,

"Firm" shall include each and every member of the UBS Group where the context so requires; and

"Intellectual Property Rights" means any and all intellectual property and industrial property and/or proprietary rights which are created by you or with your assistance in connection with your employment with the Firm (whether or not made, devised or discovered during working hours or using the Firm's premises or resources) including but not limited to patents and rights in inventions (whether patentable or not and whether patent protection has been applied for or granted), all improvements thereto, developments, and discoveries; trademarks or service marks, trade dress, logos, trade and business/corporate names, and all associated goodwill symbolized by any of the foregoing, protection from trademark dilution, and rights to sue for passing off or unfair competition; copyrightable works, copyrights, moral rights, and related rights; designs (whether or not registrable and whether or not design rights subsist in them); copyright in computer software (including all data and source code and related documentation), rights in databases; rights in information, including know-how, technical information, trade secrets, proprietary information, and Confidential Information; websites; work products; other proprietary rights including Internet domain names, logos, art work, slogans, processes, utility models; and all other similar or equivalent rights subsisting now or in the future, in each case whether registered or unregistered, legal or beneficial, including all applications for, and renewals or extensions of such rights for their full term.

20.10 Any breach of the responsibilities and obligation set out in this paragraph 20 may constitute gross misconduct and may result in summary dismissal.

21 Obligations owed to previous employers

During your employment with the Firm, you must not use proprietary material, trade secrets or other highly confidential information or property obtained by you as a result of any prior employment without written authorization from the relevant organization.

You also acknowledge and agree to fully comply with the contents of the annexed "Note on New Joiners' Obligations to Former Employers''.

UBS

22 Policies and Procedures

You shall faithfully perform the duties assigned to you by the Firm and shall fully comply with all of the Firm's regulations, policies and procedures (including, but not limited to, the Firm's Employee Handbook) as implemented and/or amended in the Firm's sole discretion from time to time. However, all such regulations, policies and procedures do not and shall not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract with the Firm.

23 Warranties and Undertakings

23.1 You represent and warrant that:

(a) you have no previous criminal convictions and are not the subject of any investigation which may lead to a criminal conviction in India or elsewhere and no consent is required from any jurisdictional regulator including the Securities Exchange Board of India or Reserve Bank of India or any other regulator for your employment with the Firm;

(b) you have not been reprimanded or otherwise disciplined nor are currently being investigated by any regulatory or professional body in India and elsewhere including, but not limited to, Securities Exchange Board of India;

(c) you are not subject to any agreement, arrangement, contract, understanding, court order or otherwise, which in any way directly or indirectly restricts or prohibits you from fully performing the duties of your employment, or any of them, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

(d) all information provided by you, including but not limited to your personal data and any other information provided in the course of your application for and during your employment are true and correct in all respects and not misleading;

(e) entering into this Agreement and performance of your duties as an employee of the Firm will not result in any breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any term of any agreement or court order by which you are bound, including any obligation owed to a current or former employer;

(f) all necessary approvals or consents or any other actions that are required by law or regulations to be obtained or undertaken for the purposes of the execution of this Agreement and the performance of your duties hereunder have been obtained and/or undertaken.

23.2 Any breach of any of the warranties and undertakings set out in this paragraph 23 may give rise to grounds for instant dismissal and/or cancellations/annulments of this Agreement to the extent permitted under applicable laws.

24 Non-Disparagement

You agree that during the course of your employment and after its cessation (for whatever reason) you will not make, publish or issue (or authorise or permit the making, publication or issuing of) any disparaging or derogatory statement whether oral or written concerning the Firm or any other Group Company or any of its or their current or former employees, agents, directors or officers, or act in any manner which would or might bring the Firm or any other Group Company into disrepute.

25 Background and Reference Checks

25.1 The offer of employment contained in this Agreement is subject to verification of the details provided by you in your curriculum vitae, employment application form, personal data form and any other information provided by you in the course of your application for employment.

25.2 This offer is also subject to the completion of the Firm's background screening process to the satisfaction of the Firm (as determined in the Firm's sole discretion). This includes the Firm obtaining satisfactory references (as determined by the Firm) in its sole and absolute discretion. You will receive separately an "Information Release Form" and must complete such form in connection with the relevant background checking. If you do not complete the form with mandatory details provided and return this in a timely manner at the Firm's reasonable request, this will be sufficient cause to justify the immediate withdrawal of this offer of employment or, if you have already become an employee, the immediate termination of your employment without any prior notice.

25.3 Any false information provided by you may result in immediate withdrawal of this offer or termination of employment (as the case may be) with no further compensation to you.

UBS

25.4 This offer is also subject to your being entitled (and continuing to be entitled) to lawfully reside and work in India. If an employment pass/visa is required, the Firm will assist you to apply for this (and bear the cost). If this is not required, please provide us with documentary evidence of this. If your application for an employment pass/visa is rejected or your employment pass/visa is revoked at any point in time, the Firm shall be under no obligation to offer you an alternative position within or outside India and shall be entitled to withdraw this offer or terminate this Agreement (as the case may be) without any prior notice.

26 Equal Opportunities

The Firm is an equal opportunities employer and you are required to refrain from any discrimination, harassment, vilification or victimization which is prohibited by local law. You are required to comply with the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and the UBS Principles and Behaviours, as amended by the Firm from time to time.

27 Preservation of Common Law Rights

27.1 All of the rights, duties and obligations between the Firm and you as set forth in this Agreement are in addition to those provided by applicable law and none of the remedies specifically provided for in this Agreement will preclude either you or the Firm from pursuing additional remedies available to either of the parties.

27.2 If you violate the terms of the paragraphs regarding Non-Solicitation, Confidentiality, Intellectual Property, Non-Disparagement and/or Policies and Procedures of this Agreement, you may, in addition to damages, be subject to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions set out in these provisions. The Firm and you mutually acknowledge that it may be difficult to ascertain the exact amount of damages for violation of these provisions, but that damages would be of a continuing nature and that the Firm would suffer irreparable harm and injury by reason of such violations. Consequently, you consent to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions of these provisions.

The Firm reserves the right to vary any of the terms and conditions of your employment at any time to the extent permitted by applicable law in its reasonable discretion.

29 Right to Withhold or Set-off

You acknowledge and agree that the Firm shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be entitled from time to time to withhold or set-off from any sum payable by the Firm to you (including, for the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, remuneration) a sum equivalent to or less than any amount owed by you to the Firm or any other Group Company, and to apply such amount in full or partial settlement of such amount payable by you to the Firm or such Group Company (as the case may be). The rights under this paragraph 29 shall be without prejudice to any other rights of recovery which the Firm or Group Company may have in law or in equity.

30 Severability

If any term or provision in this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable, in whole or in part, such term or provision shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this Agreement but the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected.

31 Entire Agreement

You acknowledge and agree that in relation to the subject matter of this Agreement:

(a) this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between you and the Firm and supersedes any previous agreement, representation, understanding or statement;
(b) in entering into this Agreement you have not relied upon any representation, warranty or undertaking by any Group Company (other than as set out in this Agreement); and
(c) the only remedy available to you for breach of this Agreement shall be for breach of contract under the terms of this Agreement.

Note on New Joiners' Obligations to Former Employers

1. In your employment contract with your former employers (including any terms you may have agreed to on termination of your employment), you may have contracted or been obliged to:

   - keep information gained during your former employment confidential and secret; and/or
   - return property belonging to your former employer when you leave; and/or
   - not to solicit their staff &/or customers during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to compete with your former employer during a restrictive period; and/or
   - not to disparage your former employer.

   Such confidential information or property may include any document or materials (whether in hard or electronic form) developed or created by you or with your assistance during your former employment.

   Where you are subject to a non-solicitation or non-compete clause, you must abide by these, and make sure that your line manager and Human Resources are aware of the relevant restrictions prior to commencing employment.

   If you have a non-solicitation clause concerning your former employer's staff/employees, you should not, until the non-solicitation clause has expired, refer any former colleagues to UBS and nor will such former colleagues be eligible for referral through UBS's iHire programme.

2. Even if your employment contract with your former employer is silent on your duties of confidentiality, general law is likely to impose duties of confidentiality and fidelity on you not to use or disclose your former employers' confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets to any third party, including your new employer.

3. It is important to note that your obligations of confidentiality and fidelity towards your former employer can continue even after you leave their employment.

4. UBS respects your duties and obligations at law. We do not permit, tolerate or condone:

   - the direct or indirect use of confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets belonging to your former employer(s) in the course of your employment with UBS in whatever manner;
   - the storage or distribution of such confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets within UBS or our premises, systems and networks; and/or
   - any breach of contractual duties (such as non-solicitation of staff of former employer or non-compete clauses) or applicable laws and regulations by our staff.

5. A breach of your duties and obligations renders you liable at law to your former employer(s) and/or third parties and may jeopardize your employment at UBS. Furthermore, such breach could subject UBS to potential legal liability, regulatory censures or penalties, and serious reputational damage.

6. Examples of what you CAN and CANNOT bring with you

   YES, you may use in the course of employment with UBS:
   - Information from your previous employers that is freely available in the public domain
   - skills, experience, general know-how or commercial knowledge acquired from your previous employment

   NO, you cannot use in your course of employment with UBS (unless express permission from your former employer(s) has been obtained):
   - Proprietary documents or materials belonging to your former employer(s); and/or
   - confidential information or trade secrets belonging to or claimed by your former employer(s).

   Please take note that the above serves merely to illustrate and is not exhaustive. Your exact duties and obligations owed to your former employer(s) depend on your former role and responsibilities, the construction of your employment contract and on the general laws of the jurisdiction in which you were employed. If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

Group Functions incentive approach

A simplified incentive approach applies to employees in Group Functions with Employee (EE) and Authorized Officer (AO) ranks. Here's what you need to know.

What is the incentive approach?

- All employees in Group Functions with EE and AO ranks are eligible for an incentive (bonus) that is a target percentage[1] of the employee's salary.
- The incentive can be expected to be around half of a month's salary in any given year[2]. In a strong performance year, the incentive can be higher than that.
- All EEs and AOs are eligible; those with a meets most expectations (2) rating or higher in their performance evaluation can generally anticipate an incentive.
- Incentive decisions remain at the firm's discretion and the level (target percentage) is based on the firm's overall performance for the year.

Why are Group Functions EEs and AOs part of this approach?

- Group Functions pay is closely linked to Group performance and less volatile than front office functions. Additionally, compensation models like this are relatively common for back-office functions in other industries.
- We are protecting employees' compensation by eliminating the downside in cases of weak Group performance, while retaining the upside in strong performance years.

How is individual performance rewarded?

- The firm is committed to rewarding strong individual performance.
- Individual performance is considered by focusing on career development and by pay for performance – with salary reviews, training and development opportunities and promotions.

Are discretionary change requests allowed?

- No. The new incentive model applies to all EEs and AOs in Group Functions;[2] no individual exceptions are accepted.

Are employees who are nominated for promotion to AD also part of this model?

- Yes, all employees with EE or AO rank are part of this model, independent of their promotion status.

Are EEs and AOs still eligible for a salary increase?

- Yes. All employees are eligible to be considered for salary increases each year as part of the regular annual process.

How is the incentive calculated?

- The incentive is a percentage of the annual gross salary at 31 December. Any salary changes through the year are not considered.
- If applicable, the incentive is adjusted for hire date, leave of absence, part-time work and/or changes to average FTE that year.
  - For example, if someone joins on 1 April, the incentive will be pro-rated for the day of hire.
  - The incentive will be adjusted to the average FTE for the year, so if someone worked 100% for six months and 50% for the other six months, the average FTE would be 75%.
  - The incentive for employees who took a leave of absence in a year will be adjusted based on the duration of the absence, according to global guidance and following local employment laws.

What if an employee changes location during the year?

- The effective salary date is 31 December. Salaries from different locations will not be aggregated to calculate the incentive.
- Employees transferring from a high cost to a low cost location will be individually reviewed by HR.

Are internal transfers from front-office areas to Group Functions also part of this model?

- Yes, their incentive is based on the same approach as other Group Functions EEs and AOs.
- Their compensation should be reviewed before the transfer takes place to assess any implications for their incentive and total compensation level.

Notes:
[1] For a full working year; pro-rated for new joiners, bonus eligibility criteria (e.g., in case of termination) apply.

7.5 The costs set out in this clause 7 will be subject to any change in the applicable law, rules and regulations.

8 Shift Allowance

As you have been scheduled to work EMEA shift ("Shift Staff"), you are eligible for a monthly shift allowance of INR6,600/- gross per month in accordance with the Firm's "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift", payable in arrears each month for a complete month of service or pro-rata for any part thereof (the "Shift Allowance").

If, as Shift Staff, you switch to a non-shift role in the Firm, whether it is on a temporary or permanent basis and for any reason whatsoever (including without limitation, whether the switch is made at your request or if you were directed to do so by the Firm), your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will cease with immediate effect from the date the non-shift role commences. Where the non-shift role is temporary, your eligibility to receive a Shift Allowance will resume on the date on which the shift role resumes.

Any changes to working hours and/or shifts should only take effect from the 1st of the month.

The Firm reserves the right to amend, modify or withdraw the "Guidelines for UBS BSI Employees on Shift" and/or to withdraw the Shift Allowance and/or to vary the amount of the Shift Allowance at its discretion from time to time and you will be given reasonable notice of any such changes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shift Allowance is not applicable to non-Shift Staff.

9 Discretionary Performance Incentive

9.1 You may be eligible for consideration for a performance related incentive each year based on a variety of factors, including, without limitation, your individual performance and contribution (including financial and non financial objectives), that of your business area and business division, and the overall performance of the Firm during the calendar year ending 31 December, as well as any applicable regulations or law which may affect individual incentive awards.

9.2 Such incentive may consist of cash, equity and/or deferred instruments (which may include, without limitation, restricted shares, conditional future payments, or debt instruments), and may be granted subject to the rules of an applicable incentive award plan (as amended from time to time) and the jurisdictional foreign exchange regulations as may be applicable. Such incentive may also be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions including but not limited to individual, team, divisional and/or UBS Group performance conditions as set out in the applicable plan rules. The composition of any such discretionary award remains at the sole and absolute discretion of the Firm.

UBS

9.3 Any such incentive is granted at the sole discretion of the Firm and accordingly you shall have no contractual entitlement whatsoever to such an incentive. You acknowledge that the amount of the incentive is at the sole discretion of the Firm (and that such amount may be nil), and that the grant of an incentive award in any year shall not give rise to any obligation to make subsequent incentive award(s) in any other year. Any performance incentive granted by the Firm shall not accrue in proportion to service or form part of your TEC for the purpose of calculating or determining any benefits or entitlements which you may receive in connection with your employment and/or its termination. For the avoidance of doubt, any performance incentive granted by the Firm will not be deemed to be wages for the purposes of calculating any severance payment.

9.4 This performance incentive is usually disbursed during the first quarter of the subsequent year. No payment of any incentive will be made if you are not in employment with the Firm at the date of payment or if either you or the Firm has given notice of termination on or before that date for any reason. All such Works, whether or not protectable under the Copyright Act, 1957, or any other statute for the time being in force, will be considered a "work made in the course of the author's employment" under Section 17 of the Copyright Act, 1957 or other statutes in force. Ownership of any and all Intellectual Property Rights in any and all such Works will belong to the Firm. In the event any portion of the Works is deemed not to be a "work made in the course of the author's employment" for any reason, you hereby assign, convey, transfer and grant, and agree to assign, convey, transfer, and grant to the Firm all of your rights, title, and interest in and to the Works and any Intellectual Property Rights therein, and agree to cooperate with the Firm in the execution of appropriate instruments assigning and evidencing such ownership rights hereunder, which obligation shall survive termination of your employment with the Firm.

20.6 You may not use any Intellectual Property Rights or Works in any way other than for the purposes of performing your duties in the interests of the Firm unless you obtain proper written permission from the Firm to do otherwise.

20.7 You agree not to do any act or omit to do any act during your employment with the Firm or at any time thereafter to affect or imperil the validity of any Intellectual Property Rights obtained, applied for or to be applied for by the Firm or its nominee. In particular, you shall not disclose the subject matter of any inventions which may be patentable in such a way that could jeopardize the interests of the Firm in such inventions or that could impair the right of the Firm to apply for a patent for such inventions. You agree that any Intellectual Property Right that was made, conceived or suggested by you, either solely or jointly with others, within one (1) year following termination of your employment with the Firm and that pertains to any Confidential Information or business activity of the Firm will be presumed to have been made, conceived or suggested in the course of your employment and with the use of the time, materials or facilities of the Firm.

20.8 You agree and undertake that all Intellectual Property Rights and Works created by you shall not infringe any rights of any third party (including but not limited to contractual or intellectual property rights) or put the Firm or any Group Company into disrepute, and shall be original.

However, all such regulations, policies and procedures do not and shall not form part of the terms and conditions of your employment contract with the Firm.

23 Warranties and Undertakings

23.1 You represent and warrant that:

(a) you have no previous criminal convictions and are not the subject of any investigation which may lead to a criminal conviction in India or elsewhere and no consent is required from any jurisdictional regulator including the Securities Exchange Board of India or Reserve Bank of India or any other regulator for your employment with the Firm;

24 Non-Disparagement

You agree that during the course of your employment and after its cessation (for whatever reason) you will not make, publish or issue (or authorise or permit the making, publication or issuing of) any disparaging or derogatory statement whether oral or written concerning the Firm or any other Group Company or any of its or their current or former employees, agents, directors or officers, or act in any manner which would or might bring the Firm or any other Group Company into disrepute.

25 Background and Reference Checks

25.1 The offer of employment contained in this Agreement is subject to verification of the details provided by you in your curriculum vitae, employment application form, personal data form and any other information provided by you in the course of your application for employment.

25.2 This offer is also subject to the completion of the Firm's background screening process to the satisfaction of the Firm (as determined in the Firm's sole discretion). 27.2 If you violate the terms of the paragraphs regarding Non-Solicitation, Confidentiality, Intellectual Property, Non-Disparagement and/or Policies and Procedures of this Agreement, you may, in addition to damages, be subject to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions set out in these provisions. The Firm and you mutually acknowledge that it may be difficult to ascertain the exact amount of damages for violation of these provisions, but that damages would be of a continuing nature and that the Firm would suffer irreparable harm and injury by reason of such violations. Consequently, you consent to court enforcement of the specific terms and conditions of these provisions.

The Firm reserves the right to vary any of the terms and conditions of your employment at any time to the extent permitted by applicable law in its reasonable discretion.

The rights under this paragraph 29 shall be without prejudice to any other rights of recovery which the Firm or Group Company may have in law or in equity.

30 Severability

If any term or provision in this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable, in whole or in part, such term or provision shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this Agreement but the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected.

   If you have a non-solicitation clause concerning your former employer's staff/employees, you should not, until the non-solicitation clause has expired, refer any former colleagues to UBS and nor will such former colleagues be eligible for referral through UBS's iHire programme.

2. Even if your employment contract with your former employer is silent on your duties of confidentiality, general law is likely to impose duties of confidentiality and fidelity on you not to use or disclose your former employers' confidential information, proprietary materials or trade secrets to any third party, including your new employer.

3. It is important to note that your obligations of confidentiality and fidelity towards your former employer can continue even after you leave their employment.

5. A breach of your duties and obligations renders you liable at law to your former employer(s) and/or third parties and may jeopardize your employment at UBS. Furthermore, such breach could subject UBS to potential legal liability, regulatory censures or penalties, and serious reputational damage.

6. Examples of what you CAN and CANNOT bring with you

   Please take note that the above serves merely to illustrate and is not exhaustive. If you are in any doubt whatsoever, please consult with your own legal advisor.

Group Functions incentive approach

A simplified incentive approach applies to employees in Group Functions with Employee (EE) and Authorized Officer (AO) ranks. Here's what you need to know.

What is the incentive approach?

- All employees in Group Functions with EE and AO ranks are eligible for an incentive (bonus) that is a target percentage[1] of the employee's salary.
- The incentive can be expected to be around half of a month's salary in any given year[2]. In a strong performance year, the incentive can be higher than that.
- All EEs and AOs are eligible; those with a meets most expectations (2) rating or higher in their performance evaluation can generally anticipate an incentive.
- Incentive decisions remain at the firm's discretion and the level (target percentage) is based on the firm's overall performance for the year.

Why are Group Functions EEs and AOs part of this approach?

- Group Functions pay is closely linked to Group performance and less volatile than front office functions. Additionally, compensation models like this are relatively common for back-office functions in other industries.
- We are protecting employees' compensation by eliminating the downside in cases of weak Group performance, while retaining the upside in strong performance years.

How is individual performance rewarded?

- The firm is committed to rewarding strong individual performance.
- Individual performance is considered by focusing on career development and by pay for performance – with salary reviews, training and development opportunities and promotions.

Are discretionary change requests allowed?

- No. The new incentive model applies to all EEs and AOs in Group Functions;[2] no individual exceptions are accepted.

Are employees who are nominated for promotion to AD also part of this model?

- Yes, all employees with EE or AO rank are part of this model, independent of their promotion status.

Are EEs and AOs still eligible for a salary increase?

- Yes. All employees are eligible to be considered for salary increases each year as part of the regular annual process.

How is the incentive calculated?

- The incentive is a percentage of the annual gross salary at 31 December. Any salary changes through the year are not considered.
- If applicable, the incentive is adjusted for hire date, leave of absence, part-time work and/or changes to average FTE that year.
  - For example, if someone joins on 1 April, the incentive will be pro-rated for the day of hire.
  - The incentive will be adjusted to the average FTE for the year, so if someone worked 100% for six months and 50% for the other six months, the average FTE would be 75%.
  - The incentive for employees who took a leave of absence in a year will be adjusted based on the duration of the absence, according to global guidance and following local employment laws.

What if an employee changes location during the year?

- The effective salary date is 31 December. Salaries from different locations will not be aggregated to calculate the incentive.
- Employees transferring from a high cost to a low cost location will be individually reviewed by HR.

Are internal transfers from front-office areas to Group Functions also part of this model?

- Yes, their incentive is based on the same approach as other Group Functions EEs and AOs.
- Their compensation should be reviewed before the transfer takes place to assess any implications for their incentive and total compensation level.

Questions?

Please contact your recruiter / the regional HR Advisory team via goto/hr

Notes:
[1] For a full working year; pro-rated for new joiners, bonus eligibility criteria (e.g., in case of termination) apply.
[2] In some locations, the process may vary due to local restrictions.

(a) I will, both during my work for PwC AC Bangalore and thereafter, hold in confidence and not directly or indirectly reveal, report, publish, disclose, transfer or otherwise share or make any Proprietary Information (as defined below) accessible, to any person or entity, or utilize any Proprietary Information for any purpose, except in the course of my work for PwC AC Bangalore's sole benefit. In addition, I will not remove, reproduce, transmit, summarize or copy any Proprietary Information except as expressly required by PwC AC Bangalore to enable me to perform my duties. (b) I will not knowingly use for the benefit of, or disclose to any person employed by, PwC AC Bangalore confidential information of any of my former employers or of any other third party or otherwise knowingly infringe or misappropriate any proprietary right of any third party. I represent and warrant that no contract, agreement or other obligation between or among me and any third party will interfere in any manner with my complete performance of my duties to PwC AC Bangalore or with my compliance with the terms and conditions of this CIPA. Without limiting the foregoing, I (have / have not) signed an agreement with [•], a previous employer or other entity, relating to inventions and confidential information. I (can/cannot) furnish PwC AC Bangalore with a copy of said agreement.

(c) "Proprietary Information" as used in this CIPA means all information or material disclosed to or known to me as a consequence of my employment with PwC AC Bangalore or any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore ("affiliate" includes without limitation, for purposes of this CIPA, subsidiaries and other related entities of PwC AC Bangalore), including, without limitation, third party information that PwC AC Bangalore treats as confidential and any information disclosed to or developed by me or embodied in or relating to works for hire. Notwithstanding the foregoing, information that is publicly known and is generally employed by the trade at or after the time I first learn of such information (other than as a result of my breach of the CIPA), shall not be deemed part of the Proprietary Information.

(a) All Works (as defined below) shall belong exclusively to PwC AC Bangalore and/or its affiliates, as the context may require whether or not fixed in a tangible medium of expression. Without limiting the foregoing, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, all Works shall be deemed to be " works made in the course of your employment with the PwC AC Bangalore" or "works made for hire", under Section 17 of the Indian Copyright Act, 1957 (as amended from time to time) and PwC AC Bangalore shall be deemed to be the author thereof. If and to the extent any Works are determined not to constitute "works made for hire," or if any rights in the Works do not accrue to PwC AC Bangalore as a work made for hire, I hereby irrevocably assign and transfer to PwC AC Bangalore to the maximum extent permitted by law all right, title and interest in the Works, including all copyrights (including moral rights), patents, trade secret rights, and other proprietary rights in or relating to the Works. To the extent my moral rights cannot be assigned, I hereby irrevocably and expressly waive them and agree not to assert any claims based on such rights against PwC AC Bangalore or its affiliates. Without limiting the foregoing, I hereby irrevocably assign and transfer to PwC AC Bangalore all economic rights to the Works, including the rights to reproduce, manufacture, use, adapt, modify, publish, distribute, sublicense, publicly perform and communicate, translate, lease, sell, offer for sale, import, export and otherwise exploit the Works. I shall have no right to exercise any rights to the Works. Without limiting the foregoing, I will not have the right to and will not reproduce, adapt, modify, publish, distribute, sublicense, publicly perform or communicate, translate, lease, import or otherwise exploit the Works, except as expressly authorized by PwC AC Bangalore in the scope of my employment. I expressly acknowledge and agree that I wish to remain anonymous and not to have my name or any pseudonym used in connection with the Works. I hereby approve any and all modifications, uses, publications and other exploitation of the Works that PwC AC Bangalore or any successor or transferee thereof may elect to make, and I expressly agree that no such modifications, uses, publications or exploitations will or may cause harm to my honor or reputation. I agree that no modification, use or publication of the Works by PwC AC Bangalore or any successor or transferee thereof will be deemed to constitute a distortion or mutilation of the Works. PwC AC Bangalore shall have the unrestricted right to transfer and convey any or all of PwC AC Bangalore's rights in or relating to the Works to any person or entity.

(b) I understand that the CIPA is not intended and shall not be interpreted to assign to or invest in PwC AC Bangalore any of my rights in any inventions developed entirely on my own time without using PwC AC Bangalore's equipment, supplies, facilities, resources, or trade secret information, except for those inventions that either relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the inventions to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or the actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of PwC AC Bangalore, or result from any work that I performed for PwC AC Bangalore.

(c) I will keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all inventions, original works of authorship, trade secrets or other Works in which rights vest in or are assigned to PwC AC Bangalore hereunder. The records will be in the form of notes, sketches, drawings, and any other format that may be specified by PwC AC Bangalore. The records will be available to and remain the sole property of PwC AC Bangalore at all times.

(d) I will provide any assistance reasonably requested by PwC AC Bangalore to protect its proprietary and intellectual property rights, including, to obtain Indian or foreign letters patent and copyright registrations covering inventions, original works of authorship and other Works belonging or assigned hereunder to PwC AC Bangalore. I will execute any transfers of ownership of letters patent or assignments of copyrights or other proprietary rights transferred or assigned hereunder (including short form assignments intended for recording with the Indian, U.S. or any other foreign copyright and patent authorities, or any other entity). I understand that my obligations under this Section shall survive any termination of this CIPA or of my employment in perpetuity, provided that PwC AC Bangalore will compensate me at a reasonable rate for time actually spent performing such obligations at PwC AC Bangalore's request after such termination. If PwC AC Bangalore is unable for any reason whatsoever, including my mental or physical incapacity, to secure my signature to apply for or to pursue any application for any United States or foreign letters patent or copyright registrations or on any document transferring or assigning any patent, copyright or other proprietary right that I am obligated hereunder to transfer or assign, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint PwC AC Bangalore and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, to act for and on my behalf and in my stead to execute and file any such applications and documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the application, registration, prosecution and issuance of letters patent or copyright registrations or transfers or assignments thereof or of any other proprietary rights with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me. This appointment is coupled with an interest in and to the inventions, works of authorship, trade secrets and other Works to which any proprietary rights may apply and shall survive my death or disability.

(e) "Works" means:

(i) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during my employment with PwC AC Bangalore (which term includes, for purposes of this entire definition, any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore), or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and that relate to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or its actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development,

(ii) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during or after my employment with PwC AC Bangalore, or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and which are made through the use of any of PwC AC Bangalore's or any PwC AC Bangalore's predecessors' equipment, facilities, supplies, trade secrets or time, or which result from any work that I perform or performed for PwC AC Bangalore, and

(iii) any part or aspect of any of the foregoing.

(f) For purposes of Sections 2(a), (b), (c) and (d) of this CIPA, the term PwC AC Bangalore shall mean (i) PwC AC Bangalore for any period of time during which I am employed by PwC AC Bangalore and (ii) any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore for any period of time during which I am employed by such affiliate.

3. I will return immediately to PwC AC Bangalore all property of PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates (including without limitation all Proprietary Information, documents, notes and other work product) in my possession or control, including duplicates, when I leave my employment or whenever PwC AC Bangalore may otherwise require that such Proprietary Information and other property be returned.

4. I will comply, and do all things necessary to assist PwC AC Bangalore to comply, with the laws and regulations of all governments under which PwC AC Bangalore does business, and with the provisions of contracts between PwC AC Bangalore and any such government or its contractors, or between PwC AC Bangalore and any private contractors, that relate to intellectual property or to the safeguarding of information, including the signing of any confidentiality agreements required in connection with the performance of duties during my employment with PwC AC Bangalore.

5. I understand and agree that the provisions of this CIPA shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms notwithstanding any termination of my employment with PwC AC Bangalore for any or no reason.

6. The CIPA constitutes the entire agreement between PwC AC Bangalore and me with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and/or contemporaneous understandings, agreements or communications, whether oral or written, on such subject matter, provided that the provisions of any other written agreement between PwC AC Bangalore and me shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

7. The CIPA shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of India.

8. The CIPA may not be amended or modified except by a written document signed by me and a duly authorized representative of PwC AC Bangalore. The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

10. If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates will be entitled, without limiting any other available legal or equitable remedies, to injunctive relief (without the need to post any bond or other security) to enforce the terms of the CIPA in whole or in part and to prevent any breach or threatened breach of any of those Sections.

The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

10. If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its

The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. I understand that my obligations under this Section shall survive any termination of this CIPA or of my employment in perpetuity, provided that PwC AC Bangalore will compensate me at a reasonable rate for time actually spent performing such obligations at PwC AC Bangalore's request after such termination. If PwC AC Bangalore is unable for any reason whatsoever, including my mental or physical incapacity, to secure my signature to apply for or to pursue any application for any United States or foreign letters patent or copyright registrations or on any document transferring or assigning any patent, copyright or other proprietary right that I am obligated hereunder to transfer or assign, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint PwC AC Bangalore and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, to act for and on my behalf and in my stead to execute and file any such applications and documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the application, registration, prosecution and issuance of letters patent or copyright registrations or transfers or assignments thereof or of any other proprietary rights with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me. The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates will be entitled, without limiting any other available legal or equitable remedies, to injunctive relief (without the need to post any bond or other security) to enforce the terms of the CIPA in whole or in part

If and to the extent any Works are determined not to constitute "works made for hire," or if any rights in the Works do not accrue to PwC AC Bangalore as a work made for hire, I hereby irrevocably assign and transfer to PwC AC Bangalore to the maximum extent permitted by law all right, title and interest in the Works, including all copyrights (including moral rights), patents, trade secret rights, and other proprietary rights in or relating to the Works. To the extent my moral rights cannot be assigned, I hereby irrevocably and expressly waive them and agree not to assert any claims based on such rights against PwC AC Bangalore or its affiliates. Without limiting the foregoing, I will not have the right to and will not reproduce, adapt, modify, publish, distribute, sublicense, publicly perform or communicate, translate, lease, import or otherwise exploit the Works, except as expressly authorized by PwC AC Bangalore in the scope of my employment. (b) I understand that the CIPA is not intended and shall not be interpreted to assign to or invest in PwC AC Bangalore any of my rights in any inventions developed entirely on my own time without using PwC AC Bangalore's equipment, supplies, facilities, resources, or trade secret information, except for those inventions that either relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the inventions to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or the actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of PwC AC Bangalore, or result from any work that I performed for PwC AC Bangalore.

(c) I will keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all inventions, original works of authorship, trade secrets or other Works in which rights vest in or are assigned to PwC AC Bangalore hereunder. The records will be in the form of notes, sketches, drawings, and any other format that may be specified by PwC AC Bangalore. I will execute any transfers of ownership of letters patent or assignments of copyrights or other proprietary rights transferred or assigned hereunder (including short form assignments intended for recording with the Indian, U.S. or any other foreign copyright and patent authorities, or any other entity). I understand that my obligations under this Section shall survive any termination of this CIPA or of my employment in perpetuity, provided that PwC AC Bangalore will compensate me at a reasonable rate for time actually spent performing such obligations at PwC AC Bangalore's request after such termination. If PwC AC Bangalore is unable for any reason whatsoever, including my mental or physical incapacity, to secure my signature to apply for or to pursue any application for any United States or foreign letters patent or copyright registrations or on any document transferring or assigning any patent, copyright or other proprietary right that I am obligated hereunder to transfer or assign, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint PwC AC Bangalore and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, to act for and on my behalf and in my stead to execute and file any such applications and documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the application, registration, prosecution and issuance of letters patent or copyright registrations or transfers or assignments thereof or of any other proprietary rights with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me. This appointment is coupled with an interest in and to the inventions, works of authorship, trade secrets and other Works to which any proprietary rights may apply and shall survive my death or disability.

(e) "Works" means:

I. any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during my employment with PwC AC Bangalore (which term includes, for purposes of this entire definition, any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore), or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and that relate to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or its actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development,

II. any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during or after my employment with PwC AC Bangalore, or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and which are made through the use of any of PwC AC Bangalore's or any PwC AC Bangalore's predecessors' equipment, facilities, supplies, trade secrets or time, or which result from any work that I perform or performed for PwC AC Bangalore, and

III. any part or aspect of any of the foregoing.

IV. For purposes of Sections 2(a), (b), (c) and (d) of this CIPA, the term PwC AC Bangalore shall mean (i) PwC AC Bangalore for any period of time during which I am employed by PwC AC Bangalore and (ii) any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore for any period of time during which I am employed by such affiliate.

3. I will return immediately to PwC AC Bangalore all property of PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates (including without limitation all Proprietary Information, documents, notes and other work product) in my possession or control, including duplicates, when I leave my employment or whenever PwC AC Bangalore may otherwise require that such Proprietary Information and other property be returned.

4. I will comply, and do all things necessary to assist PwC AC Bangalore to comply, with the laws and regulations of all governments under which PwC AC Bangalore does business, and with the provisions of contracts between PwC AC Bangalore and any such government or its contractors, or between PwC AC Bangalore and any private contractors, that relate to intellectual property or to the safeguarding of information, including the signing of any confidentiality agreements required in connection with the performance of duties during my employment with PwC AC Bangalore.

5. I understand and agree that the provisions of this CIPA shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms notwithstanding any termination of my employment with PwC AC Bangalore for any or no reason.

6. The CIPA constitutes the entire agreement between PwC AC Bangalore and me with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and/or contemporaneous understandings, agreements or communications, whether oral or written, on such subject matter, provided that the provisions of any other written agreement between PwC AC Bangalore and me shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

7. The CIPA shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of India.

8. The CIPA may not be amended or modified except by a written document signed by me and a duly authorized representative of PwC AC Bangalore. The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

10. If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates will be entitled, without limiting any other available legal or equitable remedies, to injunctive relief (without the need to post any bond or other security) to enforce the terms of the CIPA in whole or in part and to prevent any breach or threatened breach of any of those Sections.

Sexual harassment is viewed as a form of employee conduct that undermines the integrity of the employment relationship. For the purposes of this policy, sexual harassment is defined as sexual behavior that is unwelcome, is personally offensive, and/or creates a hostile, intimidating or offensive work environment. PwC AC Bangalore will not tolerate sexual harassment by anyone — supervisors, employees, vendors, or clients.

Some examples of sexual harassment are:

- Any sexually oriented conduct that would unreasonably interfere with another's work performance. This includes extending unwanted sexual attention to someone, which reduces personal productivity.
- Participation in fostering a work environment that is intimidating, hostile, or offensive because of unwelcome or unwanted sexually oriented conversation, suggestions, requests, demands, physical contacts, or attention.
- Possession in the workplace or display of sexually suggestive objects or pictures; emails, internet sites, or other correspondence with sexually suggestive content.

- Tangible employment decisions made because of or influenced by an individual's compliance with or refusal to comply with sexual demands.
- Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature

This policy also expressly prohibits behavior that harasses an employee or applicant on the basis of his or her race, color, creed, religion, age, gender, national origin, citizenship status, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, or other category protected by Central, State, or local law. Forms of such harassment can include physical, verbal and nonverbal behavior that harasses, disrupts, or interferes with an employee's work performance or in any way creates or contributes to an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment. This behavior includes, by way of example only, epithets, slurs, off-color jokes, threats, or posters, cartoons, emails, or drawings that are insulting, degrading, derogatory or ridiculing of one based on his or her protected status.

Behavior prohibited by this policy often can occur without the knowledge of others and what one may regard as offensive, another may not. For the company to effectively implement this policy, all persons must respond to and report behavior that violates this policy. Cooperation in preventing this type of conduct is essential.

The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its

If PwC AC Bangalore is unable for any reason whatsoever, including my mental or physical incapacity, to secure my signature to apply for or to pursue any application for any United States or foreign letters patent or copyright registrations or on any document transferring or assigning any patent, copyright or other proprietary right that I am obligated hereunder to transfer or assign, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint PwC AC Bangalore and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, to act for and on my behalf and in my stead to execute and file any such applications and documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the application, registration, prosecution and issuance of letters patent or copyright registrations or transfers or assignments thereof or of any other proprietary rights with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me. This appointment is coupled with an interest in and to the inventions, works of authorship, trade secrets and other Works to which any proprietary rights may apply and shall survive my death or disability.

(e) "Works" means:

(i) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during my employment with PwC AC Bangalore (which term includes, for purposes of this entire definition, any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore), or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and that relate to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or its actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development,

(ii) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during or after my employment with PwC AC Bangalore, or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and which are made through the use of any of PwC AC Bangalore's or any PwC AC Bangalore's predecessors' equipment, facilities, supplies, trade secrets or time, or which result from any work that I perform or performed for PwC AC Bangalore, and

(iii) any part or aspect of any of the foregoing.

5. I understand and agree that the provisions of this CIPA shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms notwithstanding any termination of my employment with PwC AC Bangalore for any or no reason.

6. 7. The CIPA shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of India.

8. The CIPA may not be amended or modified except by a written document signed by me and a duly authorized representative of PwC AC Bangalore. The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

10. If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates will be entitled, without limiting any other available legal or equitable remedies, to injunctive relief (without the need to post any bond or other security) to enforce the terms of the CIPA in whole or in part and to prevent any breach or threatened breach of any of those Sections.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its

(a) I will, both during my work for PwC AC Bangalore and thereafter, hold in confidence and not directly or indirectly reveal, report, publish, disclose, transfer or otherwise share or make any Proprietary Information (as defined below) accessible, to any person or entity, or utilize any Proprietary Information for any purpose, except in the course of my work for PwC AC Bangalore's sole benefit. In addition, I will not remove, reproduce, transmit, summarize or copy any Proprietary Information except as expressly required by PwC AC Bangalore to enable me to perform my duties. I understand that this Section 1 is effective as of the commencement of my employment with PwC AC Bangalore or the date I acquired knowledge of any Proprietary Information, whichever is earlier.

(b) I will not knowingly use for the benefit of, or disclose to any person employed by, PwC AC Bangalore confidential information of any of my former employers or of any other third party or otherwise knowingly infringe or misappropriate any proprietary right of any third party. I represent and warrant that no contract, agreement or other obligation between or among me and any third party will interfere in any manner with my complete performance of my duties to PwC AC Bangalore or with my compliance with the terms and conditions of this CIPA. Without limiting the foregoing, I (have / have not) signed an agreement with [•], a previous employer or other entity, relating to inventions and confidential information. I (can/cannot) furnish PwC AC Bangalore with a copy of said agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, information that is publicly known and is generally employed by the trade at or after the time I first learn of such information (other than as a result of my breach of the CIPA), shall not be deemed part of the Proprietary Information.

(a) All Works (as defined below) shall belong exclusively to PwC AC Bangalore and/or its affiliates, as the context may require whether or not fixed in a tangible medium of expression. Without limiting the foregoing, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, all Works shall be deemed to be " works made in the course of your employment with the PwC AC Bangalore" or "works made for hire", under Section 17 of the Indian Copyright Act, 1957 (as amended from time to time) and PwC AC Bangalore shall be deemed to be the author thereof. If and to the extent any Works are determined not to constitute "works made for hire," or if any rights in the Works do not accrue to PwC AC Bangalore as a work made for hire, I hereby irrevocably assign and transfer to PwC AC Bangalore to the maximum extent permitted by law all right, title and interest in the Works, including all copyrights (including moral rights), patents, trade secret rights, and other proprietary rights in or relating to the Works. To the extent my moral rights cannot be assigned, I hereby irrevocably and expressly waive them and agree not to assert any claims based on such rights against PwC AC Bangalore or its affiliates. Without limiting the foregoing, I hereby irrevocably assign and transfer to PwC AC Bangalore all economic rights to the Works, including the rights to reproduce, manufacture, use, adapt, modify, publish, distribute, sublicense, publicly perform and communicate, translate, lease, sell, offer for sale, import, export and otherwise exploit the Works. I shall have no right to exercise any rights to the Works. Without limiting the foregoing, I will not have the right to and will not reproduce, adapt, modify, publish, distribute, sublicense, publicly perform or communicate, translate, lease, import or otherwise exploit the Works, except as expressly authorized by PwC AC Bangalore in the scope of my employment. I expressly acknowledge and agree that I wish to remain anonymous and not to have my name or any pseudonym used in connection with the Works. I hereby approve any and all modifications, uses, publications and other exploitation of the Works that PwC AC Bangalore or any successor or transferee thereof may elect to make, and I expressly agree that no such modifications, uses, publications or exploitations will or may cause harm to my honor or reputation. I agree that no modification, use or publication of the Works by PwC AC Bangalore or any successor or transferee thereof will be deemed to constitute a distortion or mutilation of the Works. PwC AC Bangalore shall have the unrestricted right to transfer and convey any or all of PwC AC Bangalore's rights in or relating to the Works to any person or entity.

(b) I understand that the CIPA is not intended and shall not be interpreted to assign to or invest in PwC AC Bangalore any of my rights in any inventions developed entirely on my own time without using PwC AC Bangalore's equipment, supplies, facilities, resources, or trade secret information, except for those inventions that either relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the inventions to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or the actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of PwC AC Bangalore, or result from any work that I performed for PwC AC Bangalore.

(c) I will keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all inventions, original works of authorship, trade secrets or other Works in which rights vest in or are assigned to PwC AC Bangalore hereunder. The records will be in the form of notes, sketches, drawings, and any other format that may be specified by PwC AC Bangalore. The records will be available to and remain the sole property of PwC AC Bangalore at all times.

(d) I will provide any assistance reasonably requested by PwC AC Bangalore to protect its proprietary and intellectual property rights, including, to obtain Indian or foreign letters patent and copyright registrations covering inventions, original works of authorship and other Works belonging or assigned hereunder to PwC AC Bangalore. I will execute any transfers of ownership of letters patent or assignments of copyrights or other proprietary rights transferred or assigned hereunder (including short form assignments intended for recording with the Indian, U.S. or any other foreign copyright and patent authorities, or any other entity). I understand that my obligations under this Section shall survive any termination of this CIPA or of my employment in perpetuity, provided that PwC AC Bangalore will compensate me at a reasonable rate for time actually spent performing such obligations at PwC AC Bangalore's request after such termination. If PwC AC Bangalore is unable for any reason whatsoever, including my mental or physical incapacity, to secure my signature to apply for or to pursue any application for any United States or foreign letters patent or copyright registrations or on any document transferring or assigning any patent, copyright or other proprietary right that I am obligated hereunder to transfer or assign, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint PwC AC Bangalore and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, to act for and on my behalf and in my stead to execute and file any such applications and documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the application, registration, prosecution and issuance of letters patent or copyright registrations or transfers or assignments thereof or of any other proprietary rights with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me. This appointment is coupled with an interest in and to the inventions, works of authorship, trade secrets and other Works to which any proprietary rights may apply and shall survive my death or disability.

(e) "Works" means:

(i) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during my employment with PwC AC Bangalore (which term includes, for purposes of this entire definition, any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore), or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and that relate to the business of PwC AC Bangalore or its actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development,

(ii) any inventions, trade secrets, ideas or original works of authorship that I conceive, develop, discover or make in whole or in part during or after my employment with PwC AC Bangalore, or which I conceived, developed, discovered, or made in whole or in part during my employment or relationship with PwC AC Bangalore, and which are made through the use of any of PwC AC Bangalore's or any PwC AC Bangalore's predecessors' equipment, facilities, supplies, trade secrets or time, or which result from any work that I perform or performed for PwC AC Bangalore, and

(iii) any part or aspect of any of the foregoing.

(f) For purposes of Sections 2(a), (b), (c) and (d) of this CIPA, the term PwC AC Bangalore shall mean (i) PwC AC Bangalore for any period of time during which I am employed by PwC AC Bangalore and (ii) any affiliate of PwC AC Bangalore for any period of time during which I am employed by such affiliate.

3. I will return immediately to PwC AC Bangalore all property of PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates (including without limitation all Proprietary Information, documents, notes and other work product) in my possession or control, including duplicates, when I leave my employment or whenever PwC AC Bangalore may otherwise require that such Proprietary Information and other property be returned.

4. I will comply, and do all things necessary to assist PwC AC Bangalore to comply, with the laws and regulations of all governments under which PwC AC Bangalore does business, and with the provisions of contracts between PwC AC Bangalore and any such government or its contractors, or between PwC AC Bangalore and any private contractors, that relate to intellectual property or to the safeguarding of information, including the signing of any confidentiality agreements required in connection with the performance of duties during my employment with PwC AC Bangalore.

5. I understand and agree that the provisions of this CIPA shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms notwithstanding any termination of my employment with PwC AC Bangalore for any or no reason.

6. The CIPA constitutes the entire agreement between PwC AC Bangalore and me with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and/or contemporaneous understandings, agreements or communications, whether oral or written, on such subject matter, provided that the provisions of any other written agreement between PwC AC Bangalore and me shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

7. The CIPA shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of India.

8. The CIPA may not be amended or modified except by a written document signed by me and a duly authorized representative of PwC AC Bangalore. The waiver of any right hereunder shall not be binding unless set forth in writing signed by the waiving party, and shall not bar the exercise of any other right or of the same right on any other occasion.

9. The CIPA shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of me, PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates, successors and assigns, provided, however, that I understand that I may not assign my rights or delegate my obligations under this CIPA without the express prior written consent of PwC AC Bangalore. Without limiting the foregoing, the rights of PwC AC Bangalore hereunder may be assigned in whole or in part without my consent to any of PwC AC Bangalore's affiliates or to any other entity that, whether by merger or otherwise, acquires all or substantially all of the assets, business or stock of the office or branch in which I work.

10. If any provision of this CIPA is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this CIPA, and the parties shall substitute for the invalid provision a valid provision which most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of the invalid provision.

11. I acknowledge and understand that any breach by me of any of Sections 1, 2, 3 or 4 of this CIPA will cause PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates to suffer irreparable harm for which damages are an inadequate remedy and are difficult to calculate. Accordingly, I agree that PwC AC Bangalore and its affiliates will be entitled, without limiting any other available legal or equitable remedies, to injunctive relief (without the need to post any bond or other security) to enforce the terms of the CIPA in whole or in part and to prevent any breach or threatened breach of any of those Sections.
