INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Me?

Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain independence with respect to the Firm's clients. They are ' Member of the Firm ' and ' Covered Person ' . As you will see, all Covered Persons are also Members of the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

‘Member of the Firm’ - You are a Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term ‘Member of the Firm’ also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

‘Covered Person’ - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm’s Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors’ report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ‘ office ’ in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term ‘Covered Person’ also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled ‘When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?’ The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ‘ immediate family members ’ in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ‘ close family members ’ — immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member’s employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm’s independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a ‘Member of the Firm’?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

· If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

· You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm’s independence rules with respect to their investments.

· Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.

INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain independence with respect to the Firm's clients. They are ' Member of the Firm ' and ' Covered Person ' . As you will see, all Covered Persons are also Members of the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term 'Member of the Firm' also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

'Covered Person' - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm's Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors' report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ' office ' in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term 'Covered Person' also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled 'When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?' The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members family members ' in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ' close family members ' —immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member's employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm's independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a 'Member of the Firm'?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.

In addition:

· If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

· You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm's independence rules with respect to their investments.

· Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.

AGENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into on March 10, 2021, by and between Abuyo, Inc. ("Abuyo", "SelectHub" or "Company") and Akshay Bharat Parekh ("Agent").

This Agreement sets forth the relationship between the parties and the manner in which compensation will be paid to Agent.

1. Definitions:
   a. "Start Date" is the date from which Agent will begin work for the Company, which is being defined as March 15, 2021.
   b. The scope of work includes but is not limited to market research, analyzing data related to software vendors and products in specific software categories, compiling and curating accurate research content including but not limited to requirements templates, vendor / product scorecards and leaderboards, compiling good quality product screenshots and demo videos, liaising with vendor representatives for SelectHub RFI (request-for-information), new content creation, as well as content scraping and entry into SelectHub or other systems, building specifications and documentation, and other tasks as requested by SelectHub management from time to time ("Scope of Work").

2. Compensation. Company will pay Agent a certain Base Compensation related to the amount of work done by Agent per Scope of Work documented above and as per the following:

   Base Compensation: Agent agrees to devote a minimum of 40 hours per week pursuing activities that are deemed as being within the Scope of Work (as documented above) on a full-time, dedicated basis for the Company per the following work hours: 8am to 5pm Denver Time (US Mountain Time), unless such hours are changed by SelectHub. There may be occasional extended work hours, wherein Agent may need to work longer hours or during the weekends (Saturday and/or Sunday) or other holidays to accomplish the goals set out by SelectHub.

   Agent's day-to-day efforts and quality of results will be measured by the supervisor assigned to oversee Agent's work on a regular basis. In exchange for this work, Company will pay Agent a monthly Base Compensation of INR 52,000 (equating to annually INR 624,000). The Base Compensation will be paid out on a monthly basis prorated to any start or termination date, or any excess leaves taken during the pay period. If the first month worked will be a partial month, Agent's first payment may be pro-rated for the remainder of month, and paid out at the end of first complete month of work.

   Work From Home / Benefits Allowance: An additional payment of INR 3,000 (equating to annually INR 36,000) will be paid to you for:

and maintained such that you are able to work from home in a productive manner, as per expectations shared with you by the SelectHub supervisor.

- Part of this allowance is also meant to help subsidize any health insurance and associated costs you will be incurring.

3. Personal Time Off (PTO), Sick Leaves and Holidays. PTOs and Sick Leaves are granted according to Company's policies in the US, and will be as per accompanying Staff Handbook. It comprises 1 day PTO per month worked, after the initial probationary period. Also, please note that PTOs, Sick Leaves and other holidays are not cashable in the event of termination of this Agreement. Sick leaves are provided as a courtesy for taking requisite time off in the event of your sickness only (and cannot be applied towards any other reason, including to tend to any family members being sick). PTOs are to be taken in minimum increments of half-days (4 hours).

   Please note that the Company provides 6 paid holidays per year. Since the set paid holidays follow primarily the US based holidays, we allow flexibility for our Indian team to take these days as "floating holidays" to celebrate other US or India-specific holidays and festivals, at your discretion, and subject to your supervisor's approval. For e.g., on US Labor Day holiday (first Monday in September), you can choose to work and instead take Diwali Day off.

4. Activity Log and Marketing Forecasting Reports. Agent will maintain and provide the Company and his assigned supervisor with an activity log sheet report via Hubstaff or other system on a daily basis. Access to such system(s) shall be provided by Company.

8. Other Employment. Agent will not accept part-time, full-time or other contract employment with any other third party during his tenure with SelectHub.

days notice to the Company, which the Company may opt to waive or reduce at its sole discretion. If Agent is terminated for any reason, Agent shall be paid Base Compensation through the date of termination. The payment shall be made in accordance with this Agreement and there shall be no acceleration of any payment. Agent shall not be entitled to any other payments. If this Agreement is terminated, the Agent agrees to provide accurate status reports and Activity Logs for the concluding week(s) with full and complete details of all work done during such period. Agent also agrees to the safe return to the Company of all Company items in Agent's possession, including but not limited to laptop, hardware, software, building access cards/keys, parking tags, and any other items within 24 hours after such termination (by "safe return" we mean to return the undamaged company property to a qualified company representative or initiate shipment via an insured carrier). Agent shall be responsible for his own benefits and taxes, including all country, state and local taxes, workers compensation insurance, medical insurance, liability insurance and unemployment insurance.

13. Confidentiality. Agent agrees to comply with the terms of the Proprietary Information, Inventions, Non-Competition, and Non-Solicitation Agreement executed contemporaneously with this Agreement.

14. Applicable Law. The laws of the State of Colorado, USA shall govern this contract and any interpretations or constructions thereof. Further, the place of performance and transaction of business shall be deemed to be in the County of Denver, State of Colorado, USA and in the event of litigation, the exclusive venue and place of jurisdiction shall be the State of Colorado, USA and more specifically, Denver County District Court, Colorado, USA.

This Agreement and any fully-executed attachments constitute the entire Agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior or contemporaneous proposals or agreements whether oral or written, and all communications between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and all past courses of dealing. No amendment or modification of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized signatory of Abuyo and Agent. Both the Company and the Agent agree that any breach of any clauses in this Agreement will cause irreparable harm to the non-breaching party, for which damages would not be an adequate remedy, and, therefore, the non-breaching party will be entitled to injunctive relief with respect thereto in addition to any other remedies. The failure of either party to enforce its rights under this Agreement at any time for any period shall not be construed as a waiver of such rights. No changes or modifications or waivers to this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and signed by both parties. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement shall otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado without regard to the conflicts of laws provisions thereof. In any action or proceeding to enforce rights under this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover costs and attorneys fees. The parties agree to submit any dispute between them to arbitration under the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The order of the clauses in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall in no way affect interpretation of this Agreement.

2. Compensation. Company will pay Agent a certain Base Compensation related to the amount of work done by Agent per Scope of Work documented above and as per the following:

    Base Compensation: Agent agrees to devote a minimum of 40 hours per week pursuing activities that are deemed as being within the Scope of Work (as documented above) on a full-time, dedicated basis for the Company per the following work hours: 8am to 5pm Denver Time (US Mountain Time), unless such hours are changed by SelectHub. There may be occasional extended work hours, wherein Agent may need to work longer hours or during the weekends (Saturday and/or Sunday) or other holidays to accomplish the goals set out by SelectHub.

    Agent's day-to-day efforts and quality of results will be measured by the supervisor assigned to oversee Agent's work on a regular basis. In exchange for this work, Company will pay Agent a monthly Base Compensation of INR 52,000 (equating to annually INR 624,000). The Base Compensation will be paid out on a monthly basis prorated to any start or termination date, or any excess leaves taken during the pay period. PTOs are to be taken in minimum increments of half-days (4 hours).

   Please note that the Company provides 6 paid holidays per year. Since the set paid holidays follow primarily the US based holidays, we allow flexibility for our Indian team to take these days as "floating holidays" to celebrate other US or India-specific holidays and festivals, at your discretion, and subject to your supervisor's approval. For e.g., on US Labor Day holiday (first Monday in September), you can choose to work and instead take Diwali Day off.

If Agent is terminated for any reason, Agent shall be paid Base Compensation through the date of termination. The payment shall be made in accordance with this Agreement and there shall be no acceleration of any payment. Agent shall not be entitled to any other payments. If this Agreement is terminated, the Agent agrees to provide accurate status reports and Activity Logs for the concluding week(s) with full and complete details of all work done during such period. Agent also agrees to the safe return to the Company of all Company items in Agent's possession, including but not limited to laptop, hardware, software, building access cards/keys, parking tags, and any other items within 24 hours after such termination (by "safe return" we mean to return the undamaged company property to a qualified company representative or initiate shipment via an insured carrier). This Agreement and any fully-executed attachments constitute the entire Agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior or contemporaneous proposals or agreements whether oral or written, and all communications between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and all past courses of dealing. No amendment or modification of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by a duly authorized signatory of Abuyo and Agent. Both the Company and the Agent agree that any breach of any clauses in this Agreement will cause irreparable harm to the non-breaching party, for which damages would not be an adequate remedy, and, therefore, the non-breaching party will be entitled to injunctive relief with respect thereto in addition to any other remedies. The failure of either party to enforce its rights under this Agreement at any time for any period shall not be construed as a waiver of such rights. No changes or modifications or waivers to this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and signed by both parties. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement shall otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable. INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Me?

Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain independence with respect to the Firm's clients. They are ' Member of the Firm ' and ' Covered Person ' . As you will see, all Covered Persons are also Members of the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

'Member of the Firm' - You are a Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term 'Member of the Firm' also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

'Covered Person' - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm's Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors' report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ' office ' in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term 'Covered Person' also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled 'When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?' The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ‘ immediate family members ’ in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ‘ close family members ’ —immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member’s employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm’s independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a ‘Member of the Firm’?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

- If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

- You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm's independence rules with respect to their investments.

- Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.

INDEPENDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR NEW JOINERS

What is independence and why is it so important?

Do the independence rules apply to me?

When is my family subject to the rules?

What kinds of investments are prohibited for a 'Member of the Firm'?

What kinds of loans are acceptable?

What Is Independence and Why Is It so Important?

Auditor Independence avoids interests and relationships that might impair objectivity. The SEC, PCAOB, IESBA, AICPA, ICAI and other regulators/oversight bodies have developed basic standards for determining independence. These standards apply to our audit clients.

Do the Independence Rules Apply to Me?

Independence rules apply to all employees, directors and partners of the Firm. However not all of the rules apply to everyone; so it is necessary to understand the independence rules that apply to you.

Please note that all client-facing personnel in the Firm, their spouses and dependents are governed by the independence policies of the Firm that include restrictions on investments in, and loans to or from, restricted entities. Investments include shares, debentures, bonds, mutual funds, portfolio management schemes, etc. In addition you may have restrictions on other financial interests with restricted entities on insurance policies, credit cards, loans, brokerage and bank accounts and spouse and dependent benefit plans. New Joiners should be in compliance with the Independence policies within 14 days of joining.

Two important technical terms identify those persons who need to maintain independence with respect to the Firm's clients. They are ' Member of the Firm ' and ' Covered Person ' . As you will see, all Covered Persons are also Members of the Firm, but all Members of the Firm may or may not be Covered Persons.

'Member of the Firm' - You are a Member of the Firm if you are a partner or a director or a client facing professional, including senior manager, manager or employee or any other professional who directly markets services, or who consults with an engagement team on a client-specific matter. This includes people who do not face clients directly but deal with client related data from afar. The only exception to these rules are staff who join Administration, Finance function etc. below the level of Director.

If you are a Member of the Firm you will be restricted from investing in, and receiving loans from or making loans to, restricted entities. Members of the Firm may invest in mutual funds if they are not Covered Persons.

Please note that the term 'Member of the Firm' also includes your immediate family members (spouse and dependents). Details are under - When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

'Covered Person' - You are a Covered Person with respect to a specific client if you (1) participate in the audit engagement, (2) are in the Firm's Chain of Command with respect to the audit engagement; (3) are a partner, director or professional employee having managerial responsibilities who (a) has provided 10 hours or more of non-audit professional services to the audit client for the period beginning on the date such services are first provided and ending on the date of the auditors' report on the financial statements for the fiscal year during which those services are provided, or (b) expects to provide any non-audit professional services to the audit client on a recurring basis; or (4) are a partner or client facing director in the same ' office ' in which the lead audit engagement partner primarily practices in connection with the audit engagement at an issuer level. The term 'Covered Person' also includes immediate family members, as explained in the section titled 'When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?' The Covered Person concept applies to bank accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance products, credit cards, housing and student loans, employment relationships of your family, investments of your spouse or dependents in their employee benefit plans of restricted entities, and investment in mutual funds.

When Is My Family Subject to the Rules?

If you are a Member of the Firm or a Covered Person, your spouse, spousal equivalent and dependents * , whether or not related, are also considered Members of the Firm or Covered Persons. These individuals are called ' immediate family members ' in the independence rules and they are subject to the same independence rules that apply to you. This means their investments, loans, all bank accounts, current and savings accounts, brokerage accounts, insurance policies, credit card balances, spouse or dependent employee benefit plans may affect your independence.

* Dependents are persons and/or their spouses who received more than 50% of their financial support in the past 12 months from you.

In certain instances your ‘ close family members ’ — immediate family members plus your non-dependent parents, non-dependent children and siblings—are also subject to the independence rules. A close family member’s employment with an audit client in an accounting role or a financial reporting oversight role, a material and known investment in, or control of an audit client, may impair the Firm’s independence.

What Kinds of Investments Are Prohibited For a ‘Member of the Firm’?

As a Member of the Firm, you (and your immediate family members) generally may not own (or be committed to acquire) any direct or material indirect financial interest in a restricted entity. Examples of financial interests include equity and preference shares, debentures, bonds and deposits, shares in a mutual fund, partnership units, stock rights, options or warrants to acquire an interest in an entity, or rights of participation such as puts, calls, or straddles.
In addition:

· If you own or your immediate family member owns shares in a mutual fund that is an audit client or in a non-client mutual fund that is advised, sponsored, or managed by an audit client or a subsidiary of an audit client for which you are a Covered Person, you have a direct financial interest in that client, and that is prohibited.

· You are not permitted to join an investment club, or participate in a Portfolio Management Scheme. Similarly, you may not invest in controlled joint ventures or partnerships unless those entities follow the Firm’s independence rules with respect to their investments.

· Beneficial interests in trusts and interests in retirement plans or stock option plans of former employers are subject to the restrictions applicable to financial interests.

What Kinds of Loans Are Acceptable?

If you are a Covered Person, you and your immediate family members may not obtain loans from SEC financial institution audit clients for which you are a Covered Person. However, certain types of loans are permitted and other loans already in existence may be grandfathered. Personal loans from SEC audit clients of the Firm are not permitted for all Covered Persons. These loans cannot be grandfathered.

FAQ on PhonePe ESOP Plan

Q1. What is the current price of the PhonePe option?

The current value of PhonePe option is USD 70.26, however this may be revised periodically based on the change in valuation of the company.

Q2. Can you explain the terms Grant, Vesting & Exercise?

- Grant means the grant of PhonePe Options to an employee (referred as 'Option Grantee') under the PSOP.
- PhonePe Option means an option Granted to an Option Grantee pursuant to the PSOP, each of which gives such Option Grantee the right, but not an obligation, to purchase or subscribe for one Share.
- Exercise is the fulfilment of the right whereby the option holder gets the option converted into a share by paying the exercise price.

Q3. What does the PhonePe stock option mean ?

Each PhonePe option that you are granted will entitle you, on exercise, to acquire one share of PhonePe Private Limited (Singapore)

Q4. What is the current exercise price ?

The current exercise price is Zero, you will not have to pay anything while exercising PhonePe vested options.

Q5. What are the vesting conditions of the options

The vesting schedule and other conditions for the options will be as laid out in the stock agreement letter issued to you.

Q6. What is the expiry date of PhonePe ESOPs?

All PhonePe ESOPs will expire in 10 years from the date of grant

Q7. Will ESOP Grants be taxed ?

As per Indian income-tax laws, any tax resident in India will be subject to tax on ESOPs as follows:

- On Grant : No Tax
- On Vesting : No Tax
- On Exercise of Options : Taxable as salary (perquisite) - the difference between the Fair Market Value (on exercise date) and exercise price is taxed as perquisite. The employer (PhonePe) will deduct tax (TDS) on this perquisite. This amount will be shown in the employee's Form 16 and would need to be included as part of total income from salary in the tax return
- On sale of shares : The proceeds of the sales would be treated as capital gains at applicable rates. Capital gain is calculated as follows - Consideration on sale of shares less cost (i.e. fair market value treated as perquisite on exercise and subject to tax as salary). Tax rate for capital gains would depend on the period of holding of shares.

Q8. When can I sell my shares ?

- Once the options have vested you can sell the shares only on the listing of the company or during other liquidity window events before listing, that the Company may declare.
- You will be provided with access to an online portal to access your options

Q9. What happens if an employee is on sabbatical leave ?

If an employee is on sabbatical all vested options till the day of sabbatical will remain as is, vesting of remaining options will pause and will resume from the day the employee has joined back the organization post sabbatical.

Q10. What happens to my options in case of my death, incapacitation or termination ?

- In the event of the death of an employee while in employment, all the options granted to him/her till such date shall vest in the legal heirs or nominees of the deceased employee.
- In case the employee suffers a permanent incapacity while in employment, all the options granted to him/her as on the date of permanent incapacitation, shall vest on that day.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 9760BFC1-4C40-4F12-9F36-77FD9648D6FC

- In the event of separation from PhonePe, all options unvested for an employee as on that day shall expire. The vested options will continue to be held by the employee (till the date of expiry of the ESOPs), unless found to be guilty of grave misconduct or moral turpitude (fraud, dishonesty, sexual harassment and other offences of a grave nature committed whilst at the Company).
- The company withholds the right to clawback any gains made by the employee through the ESOP program or cancel the vested options if the employee is found guilty of misconduct, moral turpitude or non-adherence to the clauses in the appointment letter and employment agreement.
