Sir / Madam

Sub: Recommendation letter for Dr. Debapratim Purkayastha for SMS Educational Impact Award

I have great pleasure in supporting the candidature of Dr. Debapratim Purkayastha for the esteemed SMS Educational Impact award. Debapratim is a colleague at ICFAI Business School, Hyderabad, where he has been an inspiration to other faculty members, through his excellent teaching of Business Strategy, mentoring other faculty members in case method, and development of high quality teaching cases.

While teaching Business Strategy at the school, in addition to regular cases, Debapratim has developed and used cases in innovative comic book format, that were hailed as "innovative" and "pioneering".

In addition, Debapratim has developed and disseminated more than 200 cases on Strategy and allied areas. The impact can be gauged from the fact that his cases have been used in more than 800 business schools across 90 countries and have been used in teaching and training nearly half a million students since 2006! All leading Strategic Management textbooks contain at least one case from Debapratim.

Above all, I am happy that in addition to leading the school's case method initiative, Debapratim regularly mentors other faculty members in teaching innovatively with the case method and also in case writing. His impact in this regard also goes beyond IBS Hyderabad, to other sister institutions in the ICFAI Group and peer institutions in India and abroad.

Debapratim's contributions and the impact he has had is quite well-documented in national and international media. In the past, his dedication and penchant to go the extra mile above and beyond the call of duty has won him the highly coveted 'Outstanding Contribution to the Case Method' from the executive committee of the UK-based The Case Centre, the independent home of the case method, in 2015.

Yours sincerely

NOTE FOR APPROVAL

Sub: Deputation of Prof. Debapratim Purkayastha for NACRA Conference at Orlando, USA

The North American Case Research Association Annual Meeting is the most prestigious conference for Management case studies. This year the conference will be held in Las Vegas, USA (October 06-08, 2016). As part of the programs, Prof. Debapratim Purkayastha has been invited for two case presentations:

- 1) 'Conflicting Business Approaches of Two Generations: The Otsuka Family Showdown' in the 'Corporate Governance and Ethics' track – The case is in contention for an award.
- 2) 'The Grim(m) Story: Far from a Fairy Tale' in the 'Corporate Governance and Ethics' track– This case is also in contention for an award.

NACRA rules require accepted cases to be presented at the conference for the cases to be considered for any award/ listing in proceedings. The estimated expenses for the tour are provided below:

Air fare		Rs.90,000
DA (including accommodation, airport transfers & local conveyance)	$1100
Conference Registration(For early bird registration up to September 2, 2016)	$450
	$1550	Rs.90,000

Participating in the event has multiple benefits for IBS. On earlier occasions such trips have helped us explore opportunities for primary cases, and also helped us attract submissions to our journals. The benefits include brand building for IBS, opportunity to network and institutional development, opportunity to showcase these in our list of international academic paper presentations, and build our credibility further as a case teaching institution. This can also be leveraged to conduct FDPs/MDPs by IBS and for expanding the market for our cases.

Considering the benefits to IBS, it is recommended that Prof. Debapratim be deputed for the NACRA Conference.

The Deputation of Prof. Debapratim Purkayastha to the NACRA Conference and the expenditure for this trip commencing on October 4, 2016 and ending on October 11, 2016 is recommended for approval.

Participating in the event has multiple benefits for IBS. On earlier occasions such trips have helped us explore opportunities for primary cases, and also helped us attract submissions to our journals. The benefits includes, but is not limited to brand building for IBS, opportunity to network and institutional development, opportunity to showcase these in our list of international academic paper presentations and FDP lists, and build our credibility further as a case teaching institution. This can also be leveraged to conduct more FDPs/MDPs by IBS and for expanding the market for our cases.

Considering the benefits to IBS, it is recommended that Dr. Debapratim be deputed for the AOM Conference.

The deputation of Dr. Debapratim Purkayastha for the AOM Conference and the expenditure for the trip commencing on August 8 and ending on August 17 is recommended for approval.
