ICFAI Business School Hyderabad

Dear Shylajan,

On behalf of the Association of Environmental and Resource Economists (AERE), please accept my sincere appreciation for your AERE membership. Your contribution helps to support the activities of AERE, which benefit not only our members but also the broader policy and research communities with an interest in environmental and natural resource economics and policy issues.

With this support, AERE remains a strong association providing the means for exchanging ideas, stimulating research, recognizing achievements, and promoting graduate student training and professional engagement. This past year, the contribution helped support AERE's core functions and new initiatives, including:

- The launch of a new mentoring initiative—the AERE Scholars Program—an ambitious effort to increase diversity in environmental and natural resource economics, help the newest members of our community succeed, and create an inclusive culture that encourages members to give back to the organization and field
- Organization of a successful virtual AERE conference with over 260 research presentations by researchers across the globe and several AERE-organized research paper sessions at allied regional conferences and the annual ASSA meetings
- Publication of our two flagship journals: the Journal of the Association of Environmental and Resource Economists (JAERE) (receiving a remarkable first-time impact ranking of 5.167) and the Review of Environmental Economics and Policy (REEP) (ranked 13th among all economics journals in terms of impact factor!)

In addition to your complimentary electronic version of REEP and JAERE, you are eligible to purchase print subscriptions at the AERE member discount directly from the publisher by using the links below:

- JAERE: https://press.uchicago.edu/ucp/journals/subscribe/jaere.html

AERE has over 1,100 members from more than 50 nations, coming from academic institutions, the public sector, and private industry and we continue to grow. We have a number of new initiatives that we believe will build on AERE's forward momentum including efforts to expand engagement with graduate students, and to improve diversity in all aspects of our work as an association. We look forward to you being part of AERE's continued success!

AERE is a nonpartisan, non-profit organization with 501(c)(3) charitable status as a scientific organization. Please keep this letter and the attached paid dues invoice as an official acknowledgment of your support in the calendar year 2022.

We are very grateful for your support. Thank you again.

Sincerely,
